FAVORITES SPLIT WITH OUTSIDERS

Three Out of Four Events on
Second Day in Straight
Heats.

Cleveland, July 9.—With the exception of the 212 pace, each event on today's Grand Circuit card at North Randall was captured in straight heats, with honors divided between favorites and outsiders.

The 212 pace caused the biggest upset of the afternoon. After Margaret Margrave had taken the first heat, she was forced to succumb in the second to Grace Elder, who was captured by the favorite, Mame Locke, which was practically overlooked in the betting.

The first division of the Fasig three-year-old trot went to Mame Locke, which was practically overlooked in the betting. Zela Baird, the favorite, won the 220 trot rather easily from Hanks Stout, the contender in each heat.

In the 204 pace, Hal Boy, the other successful favorite, had things his own way. Summary:
220 class, trotting, purse, $1000:
Zela Baird, ch.m., by Hobo 1 1 1
