The supreme court's ruling on the betting case at Woodbine so cleared the afr that the O. J. C. had the confidence to buy the park. It was announced that the Jockey Club made the purchase yesterday from Mrs. Dixon, daughter of the late Joseph Duggan, for $150,000. The property consists of a frontage of 2597 feet on Queenstreet and a depth of 1020 feet to Asabridge's Bay, and contains 59 acres. The total assessment was $114,865. The club's option expired next month,

Sporting Editor World: I was glad to hear at the track to-day that the biggest owner had declared that he would scratch all but two in Saturday's classic race. I hope this idea will be incorporated in the conditions of the next year's plate, and that we have already seen the last of a field with a good percentage of the starters owned by one man. Harry Glddings paraded his 2-year-old colt, Flying Arrow, brother to Wire In and War Whoop. He is a big youngster, standing fully 16 hands, and is built in proportion. He has any amount of speed, showing a quarter thru the stretch in a shade less than 24 seconds. Several tempting offers have been made for the colt, but Mr. Clddings is very much inclined to keen Giddings is very much inclined to keep him for next year's plate. Secretary W. P. Fraser has issued a bulletin to the effect that the steeplechase field will be open for schooling purposes Wednesday and Thursday mornings.
