THREE DEAD, ONE MISSING.

Terrific Boiler Explosion at Black Diamond Steel Works.

Pittsburg, Dec. 20.—Three dead, one missing and 12 injured is the result of a terrific boiler explosion at the Black Diamond Steel Works of Park Bros. to-day.

The dead: John Welvik, aged 32; Patrick O'Connor, aged 28; an unknown man.

Missing: John Wilts (he is probably among the killed); Reuben Miller, jr., superintendent of the plant, states that the boilers were examined last week and pronounced in excellent condition. No known cause can be given for the explosion, but a thoro examination is now in progress.

Valuable Christmas Gift.

A special Christmas present offer is made by Archambault, the tailor, at 125 Yonge-street. It is practically a gift of $6.50 to each gentleman who orders an overcoat, for a twenty-dollar coat will be made to order for thirteen-fifty. This is a generous offer, the coats being equal in style, fit and finish to those made by the fashionable King-street tailors at high prices.

LOCAL TOPICS.

To-day is the shortest day of the year.

The Board of Police Commissioners will meet at 11 o'clock this morning to close up business for the present year.

Havana filled cigars, my own manufacture, sold at five cents, equal any ten-cent cigars. Buy direct and save middlemen's profit. Union made. Alfve Bollard, 199 Yonge-street. ed

The Christmas bazaar in aid of St. Alban's Cathedral will be open in the Temple Building from 10 o'clock this morning until night. There will be entertainments in the afternoon and evening.

The Brock-avenue Gospel Temperance Choir furnished a service of praise last evening at the Aged Men's Home, Belmont-street, under the leadership of Thomas Ewing. The accompanist was John Moore.

One of the handsomest and most attractive of next year's calendars which have made their appearance is that issued by the Berlin Mutual Fire Insurance Company, the head office of which is located in Toronto. Splendid pictures of T.R.H. the Prince and Princess of Wales adorn the scroll, the coloring of which is a happy blend of blue and gold.

The benefit concert to be held in the West End Y.M.C.A. Hall Jan. 14, for a poor widow with four children (one down with consumption), is expected to be a grand success. Any one wishing to sell tickets should call on Mr. Scott at 251 North Lisgar-street. Xmas donations towards this concert will be thankfully received at the above address.

BUSINESS COLLEGE CLOSING.

Presentation of Gold Medals at British-American College.

Probably the most successful closing exercises in the history of the British American Business College, most favorably known to the Canadian public for over 40 years, took place in the college halls, Y.M.C.A. Building, Yonge-street, yesterday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, before the students and a number of visiting friends. The chair was occupied by Mr. David Hoskins, C.A., principal of the college, who outlined very clearly and at some length the work of business colleges, quoting from the spoken words of the Hon. George W. Ross, Goldwin Smith, Byron E. Walker, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, and others as to the indispensable position commercial colleges hold in the education of young men and women to-day. He referred with a good deal of pleasure to the success of the British American Business College during the year now closed and the high position its graduates were taking in the commercial world.

A letter was read from Mr. C. R. McCullough, managing director of the Federated Business Colleges of Ontario, regretting that owing to the closing of the Hamilton Business College, of which he is principal, he would be unable to attend the British American closing, and in the letter cited two concrete cases that had come under his notice, of old students of the British American Business College who had attained to very great success in commercial life.

Mr. A. E. Ames, president of the Toronto Board of Trade, was unable to attend and present in person his gift of a gold medal, won by Mr. T. M. Watson, for the highest standing in the commercial department. This pleasant duty was performed by Mr. W. C. Eddis, F.C.A., president of the Institute of Chartered Accountants, preceded by a practical speech on the importance of thoroness in young men and women who would enter business.

The gold medal given by the college to the student holding first place in shorthand was won by Robert A. Crichton, and was presented by Mr. Ed. Trout, president of The Monetary Times Company. Suitable addresses were also delivered by Mr. F. M. Pratt, secretary of the Y.M.C.A., and Mr. J. S. Robertson, editor of Business. The names of the 18 students who had won diplomas in the commercial course, and the 23 in the shorthand course, were read by Deputy Principal Westervelt. The college resumes work after the holidays on Jan. 6, 1902.

WHAT TO GIVE THE BOY AT XMAS

American Tire Co. Furnishes Many Seasonable Solutions.

Fond fathers—and others—who are still looking about for something for "the boy," will find it time well spent if they drop around to the American Tire Company, 56 West King-street. If they cannot manage to hit on something there that will take the fancy of a healthy, sport-loving juvenile—well, it will not be much use going anywhere else. Just now hockey is booming, and if the selection is made from the hockey supplies carried by this firm there will be no disappointment.

To encourage physical culture in a pleasant way—and there is not a boy in Toronto but who would like to be a second edition of Sandow—there is a big assortment of various gymnasium equipments, such as the famous Whitely exerciser, boxing gloves, punching bags, fencing foils and the like, which cannot fail to please the lucky recipient, and at the same time be of real practical and healthful benefit. The "baby swing" and other games for the smaller children will prove a never-ending source of delight.

This firm also carries a line of "taking" electrical novelties. One beautiful novelty is the "banquet lamp," a most admirable gift for any lady. The light is within a beautifully modelled and tinted representation of a full-blown rose, which would grace any banquet table. For gentlemen, an electric scarf-pin, suitable for necktie wear, is a distinctly novel one, and an innocent-looking walking stick, which will give brilliant rays of light by the simple pressure of a spring, is another. These are only a few suggestions, however, of what may be seen at the American Tire Company's store in the way of seasonable gifts, and a visit there will amply repay anyone.

Burgomaster's Big Week.

The successful engagement of "The Burgomaster" last year has been eclipsed this week at the Princess Theatre, and Mr. Sheppard's house has again done the business of the week. The matinee this afternoon and evening performance of "The Burgomaster" to-night will conclude one of the best week-before-Christmas engagements ever seen in this city.

HEROIC HEART "FOOD"

Dr. Agnew's Cure for the heart is heroic because in cases of heart disease seemingly beyond all human aid it goes to the very brink of the "Black River" and snatches from it the heart-sick victim.

In a trice it allays pain—in a twinkling it gives strength and vigor and it works a quick and permanent cure as by magic. It is the one great heart remedy which rightly bears the crown of supremacy and on which is inscribed the life words, "It never fails." Thirty minutes after taking the first dose, the sick heart forgets its pain. Try it. 43

PUBLIC SERVICES TO-MORROW.

The Rev. Prof. Clark will continue his course of Advent sermons to-morrow in Grace Church, Elm-street, at 11 a.m.

Prof. O. W. Howard of the College of the Diocese of Montreal will preach in the Church of the Messiah to-morrow, both morning and evening.

The Revs. G. R. Turk and G. W. Kerby, B.A., two of the ablest ministers of the Methodist Church, will be the speakers at the meeting of the Canadian Temperance League in Massey Hall to-morrow. These gentlemen will sing, as well as speak, and the song service will be further supplemented by selections by Madame A. Don Cochrane Scottish contralto, of Detroit. Mr. B. Fletcher will occupy the chair.

The meeting in the Pavilion to-morrow afternoon will be addressed by Rev. Harris R. Cooley, Superintendent of Charities and Corrections in the City of Cleveland, Ohio. For 25 years this gentleman was pastor of the church in Cleveland, which the Hon. Tom L. Johnson attended. When Mr. Johnson became Mayor of that city he appointed Mr. Cooley to the position which he now fills. It is his duty to become acquainted with the lives of the prisoners, their weaknesses, surroundings and temptations, in order that methods more humane than the mere mechanical locking up like a herd of cattle may be tried for the reformation of these unfortunates. Mr. Cooley has made a very careful study of the social problem and its religious aspects.

Choose Fine Furniture FOR Christmas Giving

You will not give anything more suitable, nothing more sensible, useful or acceptable, than an article of furniture as a Christmas gift.

Our selection of individual articles in furniture is a big surprise to shoppers not acquainted with the size of stocks in this store—three large floors crowded with the beautiful in furniture.

Price is likewise an influencing factor—for everything is bought at first hand from the manufacturers—and we have made prices for the closing days of Christmas trade very extraordinary. The goods include, among many other things:

—A wide range of Desks, Writing Tables; Cabinets, China Cabinets, Jewel Cases, Inlaid Tables and Music Cabinets.
—An assortment that makes a choice easy of Jardiniere Stands, Work Tables, etc.
—An almost endless selection of odd pieces of furniture for drawing-rooms—Chairs, Settees, Divans, Morris Chairs, Rocking Chairs and Ladies' Writing Tables.
—For gentlemen we show a very fine assortment of Shaving Stands and Chiffoniers.
—Some unique and exceptional lines in weathered oak, comprising various kinds of Tables, Chairs and quaint designs in Grandfather's Clocks.

But these things need to be seen to be appreciated. Take this as an invitation to visit the store and inspect the goods. We do not urge to buy unless you find what will answer your purpose.

Art Pottery

Thousands of articles to choose from. Only words of praise come from the hundreds of shoppers who have visited our second floor and seen our display of Art Pottery.
