A wife and mother living in St. John N. B., says: "I shall ever pleasantly remeraber my first experience with Diamond Dyes. My husband had a Sundary coat that was getting to be a dingy and faded shade of brown. He could not afford it. After a day or two of very serious consideration, suggested that the coat might be dyed a good black, and stated that I would undertake the work. I had never dyed anything before; heard how easy it was to dye with the Diamond Dyes, I bought a package of Fast Diamond Dye Black for Wool and proceeded with the operation. was quite nervous and fearful lest l would completely spoil the coat; but after following closely the directions for dyeing, I was overjoyed with my victory. I was successful beyond all expectations, and my husband was delighted. The coat when dried, pressed and finished looked like a new one
