could write a good long letter. Well, now, look here: the longer the letter is the better I like them. I would write longer letters myself, but we have to be so particular what we write. This is sure some country. We have our winter when it should be summer, and summer when it should be winter.

"I guess I had better close. It is getting too lively to be writing letters. I very nearly got hit a few minutes ago. I will close, hoping to hear from you soon again.

"P. S.—I just received the papers you son. Thank you ever so much. I will have something to read for a while."

HE HIT IT RIGHT.

A motor car was held up in a busy street by a wagon drawn by two horses. The driver seemed in no hurry to get out of the way, and at length one of the occupants of the motor car exclaimed sarcastically:

"Here, I say, man! What are those things you are driving? What are they for, I should like to know?"

"These 'er, guv'nor?" aswered the carter, flicking the horses with his whip, "Oh, these is wot is commonly called 'orses, an' they're sometimes used fer to take motorists to the 'orspital!"

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all itters have to be answered in turn. No letter can be answered privately.]

Dear Miss Grey,—I see where "In-a-Hurry" is asking for crochet patterns for corset covers. I ha m't got the butterfly pattern, but I am sending her two others. So if she don't mind, I would like them back again when she gets through with them, as I haven't had time to take an extra pattern off. Hoping these will be suitable. I guess you think I'm coming pretty often, but whenever I see where I can help, or think I can, I write to the Mail-Box. I remain as before, A MYSTERY. Ans.—None too often, I assure you; especially when you come so helpfully armed. The designs have been sent to "In-a-Hurry," who will return them again I am sure.

Nine Lives, Too.

Dear Miss Grey,—I am going to ask you a few questions.

1. Could you te? me what days April 11, 1902; June 26, 1896; April 9, 1400; April 5, 1898; September 17, 1909, and September 8, 1873, came on?

2. How long should a cat live?

Well, I will ring off, as I have to get to work.

3. What do you think of my writing? Yours truly,
Ans.—I. Friday, Friday, Monday, Tuesday, Friday, Monday.

2. About eight or ten years is an average length, I am told.

3. Your writing is irregular.

She Wouldn't Worry.

Two or three very interesting epistles have been received in answer to "Sweet. heart Girl's" and "Her Dad's" problem as to whether fifty dollars is enough or too much for a wedding outfit. Read what "Lonesome May" says:

Dear Miss Grey.—I read with interest the letters on your Page from "Sweetheart Girl" and "Her Dad." To a certain extent, "Sweetheart Girl's" case is exactly like my own in having to leave a good position to keep house for dad and little sister, with the difference that "my dearest and best" is in France. I would presume that "Sweetheart Girl's" dad is doing something for her in the way of a wedding gift besides giving her money for her clothes, and considering the sacrifice she has made for him, he should, too, "come across" handsomely. for him, he should, too, "come across" handsomely.

In regard to clothes, though, I believe her dad is right. When young people are starting housekeeping in these days the more thrifty they are about their wedding and clothes the more money they have for the little comforts and conveniences so many have to do without when "starting up."

Now while working, I saved $500, which is neatly tucked away in war certificates and in the savings bank until needed, but you may be sure I would

By Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D. (All Rights Reserved.)

The six daily studies for this week constitute the International Sunday School Lesson for next Sunday. Read the Bible Story on which this study is based, as you ponder the following questions:

"Jesus, the Servant of All." John, xiii, 1-17.

"Jesus, the Servant of All." John, xiii., 1-17.

Golden Text—"Whosoever would be first among you, shall be servant of all." Mark, x., 44.

13. Verses 6-8—Should our modesty or our creed, or any other thing, at the clear command of God, stand in our way of doing anything that may bring us either pain or pleasure?

14. Verse 9—When a man sees he is wrong, and acknowledges it, how long is it before God forgives him?

15. Did Peter sin or not in this thing, and does God ever record sin for anything prompted by pure love, even if in an abstract sense, it is wrong?

16. Verses 10-11—Does Jod, or not, and why, blame all because some in the church live in sin? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club).
