A second-hand Studebaker can be sold after a year, two years, or after many years of service at a price which is very high in relation to its first cost.

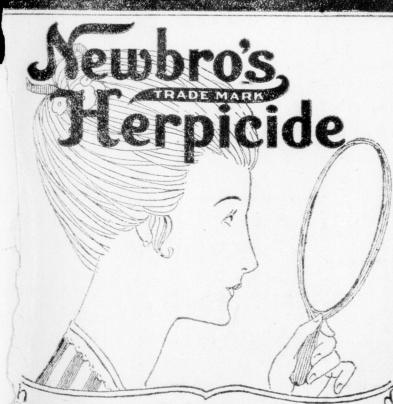

Why?-because Studebaker has won the confidence of the public on the character and quality of its cars. It is a standard of value, like a piece of gold, and if you wish to sell it, your car becomes an investment, which has a definite marketable value.

The buyer knows that the name Studebaker for over 64 years has stood for honesty and fairness. He knows that Studebaker heat treated steels, Studebaker standards of accuracy, and Studebaker efficiency of manuacturing methods make Studebaker cars the highest quality cars on the market for the

Must Sink Them Faster. The German underseas boats, it was ointed out, would have to destroy beundred ships daily to stop traffic to British shores if vessels continue to traverse the seas as before the unrestricted warfare was declared. But as nany vessels make quick trips to the continent this number would have to discounted, for every ship sunk ould have to be taken from the list. here are under the British flag about Sinking of one hundred essels daily would destroy the fleet within 120 days.

For a time at least, it is pointed out, neutral vessels will venture into the barred zone with extreme caution, but high rates the British Government is willing to pay, it is declared, will send them in later despite the hazard. So far nothing has come through to indicate how many vessels are getting through the blockade, but it is be
