George Foster Confident After His Tour Abroad.

TRADE WAR TO FOLLOW

Minister Declares Allies Able to Wage Commercial Conflict.

After a visit to England and the western battle front, Sir George Foster arrived in Toronto yesterday and his views regarding the war are optimistic. The minister of trade and commerce, after referring to the Canadians at the front and the splendid work they are doing, spoke of Rouma-nia's entry into the great struggle. As nia's entry into the great struggle. As a result of the action taken by the Balkan country, Sir George was confident that an earlier victory will result. He pointed out that a pathway had now been opened for Russia, and the allied forces would be strengthened by an additional 600,000 men, this at a time when the enemy are at a loss to an additional 600,000 men, this at a time when the enemy are at a loss to find troops to face them in the field.
"To meet the Roumanians Austria must take men from and weaken other parts of her line or call on Germany for further help," he said.

Sir George apparents.

Sir George announced a plan under way to meet the German trade cam-paign which will be started after the war. A complete collection of German war. A complete collection of German and Austrian products, which had been largely exported before the war, has been made by the British Government and will be brought to Canada and displayed in the various cities. Manufac turers in this country should profit by the exhibition of these products.

Charged with doing bodily harm to a little boy named Billy Yackzimer, by knocking him down and running over him with the horse and wagon he was driving along Draper street re-cently, Ben Segul was sent to a jury when he appeared in the police court yesterday. Magistrate Denison ex-pressed the opinion that as hundreds of children were compelled to play on the street drivers of vehicles should be more careful and so avoid accidents.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS SCARE WITHOUT CAUSE

Medical Officer of Health Issues Report Declaring Alarm is Useless Now.

In his monthly report, issued at the city hall yesterday, the medical officer of health assures the public that so far as infantile paralysis is concerned, there is no occasion for alarm. Since May 9, one case has been reported and that was outside of the city limits.
Physicians, he states, are keeping a watch out for cases that may appear.
Two cases have been reported so far this year, in 1915, five were recorded in 1914, seventeen, in 1913, two, and in 1912 eleven.
