Up -News and Gossip.

The Hustlers made errors, and Buffa profited by them.

Poor Connie Mack! The Naps made it four in a row, by downing the Athletics yesterday. Turner cleaned the bases in the third with a triple.

The Leafs play their last home game for two weeks today. They move on to Montreal tonight.

Ed Walsh tried his annual come-back at 'Chicago yesterday, but Washington pounced on him in the third and drove him from the box.

Shocker relieved Manning and again gave a creditable performance. He is the best pitcher in the league, and they looked every bit of a ball team. These ten hits netted six runs. The Montreal paid artists got six "blows" and four runs.

Pfeffer let St. Louis dewn with two hits, and Daubert's good batting gave Brooklyn a victory.

Two of our men have arrived. Red Jack Murray showed that he learned something in the big league by stealing second and third in one round, besides scoring two runs and getting two raps. Another sorrel-top, in Red McKee, had a big day with the willow. The ex-Detroiter supplied a homer and two singles.

We had to call on our best bet to set the victory across. The Howleyites were getting altogether too familiar with Manning's bafflers, and Manager Birmingham wisely benched him and let Shocker finish the game. Shocker allowed one scratch hit and struck out six men in two and a third innings. Manning held Montreal hitless for four innings, and then weakened.

It was a game for the day. The crowd was comfortable, and the hitting of the long order and much to the point. Two four-base smashes, two triples and a flock of singles, with a couple of double-plays thrown in for good measure, kept everybody in good-humor.

Manning ambled along in style for four innings, not a safety being registered against him. A triple and a single gave Montreal a run in the fifth. The sixth saw Manning's finish. With two down, he let Cather on free, and then Wagner singled. Slattery hoisted one into the right-field bleachers to make the count four. When Damreu followed with a triple Manning had enough. Shocker struck out Fullerton. This was the visitors' afternoon's work.

Out end of it was a bit more cheering. We scratched a couple of hits in the first round, but nothing came of it, despite the fact that Blackburne and Thompson pulled off a double-steal. Our boys opened up in the fourth. With Thompson out of the way, Murray poled a hit into right and stole second and third. Graham walked and McKee's infield hit let Murray in. Trout forced Graham at third, but Hogan supplied the needed hit to score McKee.

The fifth was refreshing. Truesdale singled, and Blackburne neatly sacrificed. Thompson beat out one to

At Chicago—Ed Walsh attempted a 1916 "come-back." but Washington drove him from the slab in the third innings, and made enough runs off him to win from Chicago, 3 to 2. The big pitcher made a gallant start, fanning Judge and Milan in the first, but Morgan's walk and Foster's double gave Washington a run in the second, and Harper's two-bagger, two singles and a wild throw by Ness gave the Senators two more in the third, whereupon Russell succeeded Walsh. Both had been in the varsity boat for three years until the upset last week, which made the junior eight the varsity and relegated the erstwhile first crew to the rank of the junior.

It was apparent that both had studied over just such a contingency, for, without a moment's hesitation, they turned to Wright and said they would prefer to stay with the crew they were in.

"Breitinger is needed where he is," said Chickering, "and to make a shift now might spoil both crews." Foster was just as loyal, and refused to desert his mates.

The wisdom of Wright's decision to make the junior shell the varsity boat was shown both this morning and this afternoon, when, in a series of one-mile sprints, the varsity walked away from the new junior boat.

In a tight race over the first mile of the regatta course late in the afternoon the varsity defeated the freshmen by three lengths and the one-time varsity by five. The varsity was using the new Ward shell and found that it suited them to perfection.

Once more will the sturdy soldiers battle for individual supremacy in running and, walking races, boxing competitions, pick-a-back wrestling and tug-of-war pulls. The bomb throwers will be in evidence, while baseball, lacrosse and soccer football games take place in various parts of the grounds. The running events include the 100, 150, 220 and 440-yard dashes, and the half and one-mile runs, with a half-mile walk by way of change. Both the standing broad jump and the running high jump will be in evidence, as well as the 12-ib. shot-put. All classes will be represented in the boxing events, and the khakl-clad battlers are worth going far to see if such exhibitions of the manly art will be produced for the benefit of the spectators as on former occasions.

The 198th Battalion play the 180th Battalion baseball at 2 o'clock hext Thursday afternoon at Bayside Park, which will be followed at 4 o'clock by a game between the 204th Battalion and the Toronto Recruiting staff. It is designed to play off the winners of these two games next Saturday at the camp. All four are known to be first-class organizations of ball players, and a speedy final game should result. Jas, J. McCaffrey of the Toronto Ball Club, has consented to appoint an umpire and to look after the competition generally.

One announcement sure to please the audience, whether it be composed of those who were fortunate enough to be present at the last soldiers' meet or those who may have had the opportunity of witnessing it in years past at the grand stand performance in the Embilition, was that the Royal Canadian Dragoons would again present their marvelous exhibition of horsemanship in such feats as wreetling on horseback, tent-pegging and so on.
