George H. Corsan's Book on Swimming

"At Home in the Water,"
An Illustrated Text Book
By a Well-known Authority.

IF YOU ARE LEARNING TO SWIM and dive, or wish to improve yourself in these very practical accomplishments, you will find this little book invaluable. Mr.
Corsan is Instructor at the University of Toronto, and a member of the International Committee of Young Men's Christian Associations. "At Home in the Water" is regarded as one of the most important text books available on the timely arts of swimming, diving and life-saving. The price is 25 cents.
—Book Department, Main Floor.

You were Inquiring?

"A Sandpiper."—Yes, sandals sound much more appropriate for a sandpiper than boots.
And the low white canvas shoe known as a bathing sandal appears to be exactly what you want. It can be had in sizes 3 to 7, at 25 cents to 35 cents a pair. Bathing tights for wear under a bathing suit are, in black cotton jersey, priced 25 cents. Annette, Kellerman tights, in wool jersey, are $2.50 and $3.25. To complete your equipment you had better get a copy of the little book on swimming and diving, "At Home in the Water," by G. H.
Corsan. It is a capital treatise on the subject. Read the notice concerning it in the adjoining column.

"Patriotic."—One can well believe it, Mamselle, in view of your arduous intentions. There are two patriotic tableaux for girl performers, which you might like: "Britannia's Daughters" and "Women's Work in War"—price, 15 cents each.
"The Making of Canada's Flag" is a good thing, too—price 25 cents. Considering the small outlay involved, would it not be wise to procure all three selections and ascertain which one is best adapted to your talent and your audience?

"Saxon."—Contrivances such as you describe do exist. But they are not procurable at the present time, sorry to say.

Belinda.—But what a beautiful chance to work out gay, inconsequent effects without fear of tiring of them; or matter-of-fact persons thinking you mad. It sounds a perfect dream of a cottage, white "rough-cast" and all—more like a bit of Southern France than Ontario, with the woods behind it so green, and the water in front of it so blue, and the flowers around it so pink and red. If I were you I should extend the veranda to the very brink of the cliff —not troubling whether all of it were roofed over or not—paint the willow chairs black, and fill them with cushions of old blue. And I should have pink and white checked gingham as a cover for the black tea-table, and use nothing but blue china. As for the rugs over which you are particularly concerned, one would suggest those Japanese plaid rush mats. They are oval, and can be had in all tan or with blue or green borders. Surely you will find rest for both mind and body in such a very lovely and diverting retreat.

SHIP PRODUCTION
NEED EMPHASIZED

Admiralty Officials Issue Appeal to Iron and Steel Federation of Britain.

ENEMY STAKES ALL

Warships to Hunt Subs., and More Merchantmen, Empire's Greatest Need.

London, July 17.—(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—The Iron and Steel Confederation of Great Britain has received the following message, signed by Sir Edward Carson, first lord of the admiralty, and Admiral Jellicoe, first sea lord:

"The board of admiralty wish to impress on all engaged in the building and repairing of ships, how serious are the times in which we live. A determined enemy has set himself to blockade our islands and destroy merchantmen bringing food to our people and supplies to our armies, using methods contrary to the law of nations. Every day, merchantmen are sunk. We need all our resources to prevent the threatened starvation. The enemy knows this and has succeeded, victory will rest with him; if he fails his defeat is certain.

There are only two weapons we can use, both forged in the shipyards. One is a class of warship that will enable the navy to hunt down and destroy submarines; the other is every new merchantman that will replace a ship sunk.
These weapons must be used together.
Upon the men in the shipyards and engineering shops depends entirely their output. How the latter can be increased concerns everyone, and no measure which will enable the better use of labor and machinery can be neglected. We who are secure in our homes, owe it to the brave men dying every hour for us at sea, on land, and in the air to spare no efforts to give them the weapons with which to win the war.

"We are confident that in this supreme crisis in our history, the men of the shipyards and workshops will see that this appeal does not fall upon deaf ears."

NEW SOUTH WALES' GIVINGS.
Sydney, Australia, July 17.—(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—The recent French fete day collection, which is expected to reach $200,000, including $28,000 of street collections in the City of Sydney, brings the total of New South Wales' public subscriptions for patriotic purposes since the war began to over $2,000,000.
