CHAT BETWEEN BALD MOUNTAIN AND CARLETON

Heliograph Signalling Very Successful Through Twenty Miles Space—News Notes Flashed

Two parties of local signallers took advantage of the sun's rays yesterday and the result was that Labor Day marked an important epoch in signalling in this province, an interesting aerial conversation being held between St. John and Bald Mountain, a distance of almost twenty miles.

The city party was stationed near Mitchell Tower, under Sgt. A. Leavitt and Q. M. Sgt. Inst. A. Lindsay, while the party of signallers on the mountain consisted of Capt. T. H. E. Flowers and a Times reporter. Interested spectators were the crews of the yachts Windward and Lovyma, numbering in all about 12.

This signalling experiment has been thought of for some time and arrangements were made last week for the execution of plans.

The local party took up their station at 10 a. m. yesterday and, setting up their heliograph, waited for a flash from the responding instrument telling of the arrival of the "mountainers."

The party from the Windward and Lovyma were late getting under way. It was about 9.30 a. m. before they left Victoria wharf in a hay cart and were bumped along the country road leading to their destination. When about three miles from the summit of the mountain side, heavily laden with signalling instruments, lunch baskets and other essential articles, they abandoned their "auto" and climbed the path up the mountain side, reaching the top about noon. It was not long before the "hello" was signalled and communication opened with St. John, visible with the naked eyes far away in the distance.

The somewhat tiresome climb up the mountain proved well worth the efforts put forth. From the top one can command a view for miles on any side, and with the aid of powerful telescope, objects are plainly distinguished. The far distant coast of Nova Scotia can be seen on the south, while on the northern horizon at Belle Isle, Washinook Lake and some of the branches of the Upper St. John. In whichever direction the eye is turned, objects of interest present themselves.

The air yesterday was delightful and invigorating and a very pleasant outing was enjoyed by the sturdy hill-climbers. But undoubtedly the most interesting part of the excursion was the conversation flashed by the "air-line" over peaceful banks, rivers, dale and hill-top. The flashes consisted of a brief message telling of the arrival of the crews of the two vessels after which messages of congratulation were sent from each station with ease and rapidity. A few minutes of interest from the city were gladly welcomed by the party in the station near the clouds, particularly the reply to a query concerning Saturday's championship ball game, which occasioned mingled disappointment and pleasure, according to partisanship.

About 2 o'clock communication ceased and each party deserted its station, much gratified at the success of its labor. Lunch was partaken of by the practical mountaineers before returning to their ships.

Two years ago a similar operation was performed in signing, but yesterday's work is regarded as being more successful.

GETS FIVE YEARS IN DORCHESTER

McElhenney Deal With By Judge Forbes For Old Offence

Joseph McElhenney, who was let out on suspended sentence by Judge Forbes when he was arrested on December 4 last, charged with breaking into the Central Shoe Store, in Mill street, and who was arrested only a few days ago on the charge of breaking the seal of a freight car in the C. E. yard, was brought before Judge Forbes this morning and sentenced to five years in Dorchester.

At the time of his previous escapade the understanding was that he was to keep within the straight and narrow way. He was caught in the Central Store by Patrolman John Merrick between 1 and 2 o'clock in the morning.

WEDDINGS
Moore-Chamberlain.

William F. Moore and Mrs. Bertha Chamberlain, both of St. John, were married yesterday in St. George's church, Moncton, by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Siam. The groom is employed by John E. Wilson, Limited, and is a member of the Artillery and Victoria Rifles bands. The couple left on a wedding trip to St. Stephen.

Abbot-Darret
Harold P. Abbot and Miss Emma A. Darret of Cumberland Bay were married at Chipman by Rev. D. McE. Clarke on August 23. The groom lost $500 by a mining investment, putting in his money a short time before his marriage and receiving word a few days later that the company had become insolvent and he the loser of every dollar.

Mooney-Donovan.
A very pretty wedding took place this morning in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, when Miss Gertrude Georgiana Donovan was united in marriage by Rev. A. W. Mesban, to John Mooney, of Gaspareau Station. The bride looked charming in a suit of cream serge, with white corded silk and hat with ostrich. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Catherine Donovan, of St. John, who wore a very pretty gown of pale blue with hat to match. The groom was supported by John Timmons.

After the ceremony breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Thomas Breen, Brussels street, immediately after which the happy couple left on the Boston train for a two weeks' honeymoon in Boston and New York. The bride's going away suit was of London smoke with hat to match. The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial check to the bride's maid a pearl and emerald ring. The numerous gifts testified to the esteem in which the young couple are held by their many friends.

The funeral of Francis McCarthy was held from his late residence, Spruce Lake, on Sunday at 2 o'clock to St. Rose's church, Fairville. Father Collins officiated and the body was interred in Sand Cove cemetery.
