LATE LOCALS

The ferry steamer Ludlow is still in the hands of the painters and no definite announcement as to when she can go on the route can be made. Everything depends on the weather.

A nuptial event of interest to St. John people took place at 48 Davenport Road, Toronto, on Monday last, when Miss Annie Mabel Perry, of this city, was married to John Julian Murphy, of Toronto, Rev. J. D. Fitzpatrick officiating.

Mr. Patten, the manager of the Grand Hotel at Yarmouth, has resigned and will leave on Saturday next to take charge of the Woodland Park hotel, Auburndale, Mass., of which he has become owner. His successor in Yarmouth has not yet been announced.

FISH ARE SCARCE

Because of Unfavorable Weather Conditions the Fish Market Supply is Light.

Owing to the high winds and generally unfavorable weather, the fish market will be but poorly supplied for tomorrow's trade.

A local retail man told the Times that during the present season fish have never been so scarce as they have this week, the weather being such that fishing was out of the question. Prices are quoted as follows: Mackerel, 20 to 25c. halibut, 15 to 18c.; haddock, 5c.; cod, 5c.; cod steak, 10c.; smelt, 12c.; herring, 7c.; herring, 24 to 30c.; bloater, 24c.; salt cod, 6 and boneless cod 12c.

HALIFAX BAKERS WILL ADVANCE BREAD PRICE

Increased Cost of Flour is the Reason Given.

(Halifax Herald)
There is likely to be an advance in the price of bread in a very few days, due to the great advance in the price of flour. The Herald yesterday interviewed several wholesale bakers in reference to the matter. They claim that since yesterday, and May last hour has advanced in price from $4.85 per barrel to $5.35.
On Saturday the price was $5.20. An advance of 15 cents took place yesterday, and private advices received by the bakers predicted another rise.
The price of bread in Halifax is six cents per loaf of 1 1/2 pounds. For months past an increase was warranted, but the bakers were loath to make it until a full cent advance was necessary. This time has now come, and the public may expect the increase at any time. No change has been made for four years and the price of flour has advanced much in that time.

STREET RAILWAY PLANS

Double Tracking of Paradise Row Line—the West End Loop.

The double tracking of the Paradise Row line of the street railway will probably be completed in a couple of weeks. The company has been handicapped by the lack of sufficient laborers, but all who have applied have been put on the work. When this line is ready it will give a more satisfactory service to the patrons of the road in those sections of the city than ever before. Four cars will be placed on the route, two running each way.
The company can do nothing toward utilizing the line down the trestle at Rodsey wharf to the ferry floats until the bulkhead is placed at the head of the wharf and the C. P. R. rails are laid.
Furthermore, the approval of the railway commission will have to be secured for the street car lines cross the C. P. R. tracks. The people on the west side are impatient to see the time when the line can be completed as it will be a great convenience to patrons of the ferry.

ANOTHER LETTER ON MILK QUESTION

To the Editor of the Times:
Sir.—Again we have to crave your pardon for intruding on your valued space and we certainly would not do so were it not for the imputation made in the letter in your issue of the 23rd signed A. E. Macaulay, in which he states that we could not make milk with satisfaction to the dealer in St. John and that the dealer he shipped to told him to say that our milk was not good. We did not say that we could not make it with satisfaction to the dealer, but we said we had proved that we could not make it as a profit to ourselves at the price the dealers then paid. And so far our milk, paid us for per can more than the other dealers were paying and got our milk till we could no longer let him have it on account of his unreasonable trade and we were obliged to let him go altogether. Would this dealer be likely to pay us 5c per can more than he could buy from other producers and would he be likely to come back to us a second time for "unsatisfactory milk"?

Furthermore we might add that we made milk for a time for the largest dealer in St. John and had the satisfaction of hearing him say that ours was among the "best milk he received."
We also made milk for two years for one of the largest and most particular private customers in St. John, and to his entire satisfaction. Nevertheless we do not claim to be infallible and there are many points about milk production for city trade that have to be watched, and we do not doubt but we may have fallen down at times and that our product was not all that it should be.

There is, however, no good that we can see in discussing these sort of personalities in a newspaper, with your space between Mr. Macaulay and ourselves. It is very evident we have got ourselves disliked by the dealers, if one can judge from Mr. Macaulay's letters, and no doubt we have said too much, but we started out to discuss the subject from a broad point of view, and from both sides of the question, and that only after we had waited and waited for some other dairymen to stand up and say something against the various articles that were appearing in the press, making it appear that the agitation in the price was the work of the farmer and was unwarranted. We put forward a few facts and immediately got a reply pitching into us individually, while the main points at issue are ignored entirely.

Mr. Macaulay gave the figures of the milk dealers' side of the business; we took his own figures for it and we gave the figures for producing this product (and for producing it today, not forty years back, as he now refers to). We left those figures open to any producer to criticize, and we still do so, and will gladly correct them for any practical farmer in St. John county or Kings county who will convince us we have over-estimated them.

There are many points in Mr. Macaulay's last letter we might discuss, but there would be no good come from it, until Mr. Macaulay gets busy and produces the figures from a practical farmer, or can make milk, with this year's prices of feed and raw material, at under 31 cents per can, taking the average run of the cows as they stand in the average herd throughout this county today; until that time comes you will hear no more from us.

Again thanking you for your valued space,
We remain, yours faithfully,

GIVEN THIRTY MINUTES TO RAISE SIX MILLIONS

How Jacob H. Schiff Made Thomas F. Ryan Pay up—A Story of High Finance.

(New York American.)

The story of how Jacob H. Schiff shook out of Thomas F. Ryan's pockets the $8,000,000 which Kuhn, Loeb & Company had been tricked into putting there furnishes an illuminating example of the strenuous methods adopted by these High Financiers in dealing with one another.
On the pretext that the Metropolitan Company owed $11,000,000 for the purchase of the Third Avenue Railroad stock, Ryan, it is said, induced the bankers to subscribe for $6,000,000 of Metropolitan securities stock. That was in 1902, but in the following year Kuhn, Loeb & Company learned that the Metropolitan did not owe a dollar for the purchase of the Third Avenue stock, and that the stock had cost only a little more than $8,000,000.

With a promptness that was positively startling, Mr. Schiff, acting for his firm, gave Mr. Ryan just thirty minutes to take up his six million of securities stock and to take it up in cash!
Mr. Schiff got his money. Mr. Ryan got back his worthless stock and the stock was unloaded on the public.
Mr. Schiff is to be congratulated on his campaign of enforced restitution, but what about the victims who had not the power possessed by the energetic and millionaire banker?
