Where Mr. Flett Stands

T. W. Flett, who has been charged by government soters with having childishly changed his politics because he wasn't nominated, a charge that is libellous, gave the government candidates a bad quarter of an hour at his Nelson meeting.

Dr. Pugsley's Coat-tails

Although two liberals have been placed on the opposition ticket, to meet the demands of the large liberal wing of the party, and although the convention was held at the liberal executive in the name of the liberal party, the hope of getting the election into federal party rails has not been abandoned.

The Central Railway

Time and again Mr. Pugsley told the public that the N. B. Coal and Rail way Company would before long be taken over by the Grand Trunk Pacific and form part of its route.

"I make this statement, knowing its great importance. I say with the utmost confidence from conversations I have had with the premier, the minister of railways, the minister of finance, and with the manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific, that the road will be taken over by the Grand Trunk Pacific."--Official report of budget speech, 1907.

though it was late before the meeting broke up.

W. S. Clawson occupied the chair and spoke, telling of many reasons why the government should be defeated and giving the opposition candidates a strong recommendation as men of weight and integrity who as representatives would reflect honor upon St. John.

John E. Wilson was heartily received. He spoke on the school question and criticized a letter in last night's Star, saying it was merely a defence of the combine written by a friend of the grates' ring.

Dr. McInerney roused enthusiasm by able and searching criticism of the stand of Hon. Mr. Pugsley and his interference in local politics.

Robert Maxwell, M. P., spoke at considerable length. He denied the assertion of Hon. Mr. Pugsley that the opposition had adopted the policy of the government.

On the contrary, the government had acted upon suggestions by Mr. Hazen.

The commissions to inquire into the school book outrage and the financial condition followed criticisms made by Mr. Hazen.

The highway act had been abandoned after Mr. Hazen had attacked it.

Mr. Maxwell also spoke of Senator King's speech at Chatham Saturday night and stated that the prospects for victory increased as the day grew nearer.

Mr. Maxwell left this morning for Chatham, where he will assist the winning forces in their campaign.

the whole season. The longshoremen, as a body, had no use for the Star and Sun at that time, nor have many of them any thought to say of these papers at the present day.

They did not advocate the cause of the laboring man then nor do they now. One thing is certain the longshoremen resent the interference of the federal government in provincial politics, and not the life-sized portraits of Pugsley and Emerson, with a free distribution of copies of the St. John Liberal organs (at the people's expense) can change their views and prevent them from recording their votes against a reckless and corrupt administration.

DAILY FADING AWAY

The Story of a Woman Made Well by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Bad blood means bad health. That is why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills mean good health. They actually make new, rich blood which strengthens every nerve and every organ in the body.

That is why people who use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills feel bright, active and strong. Mrs. Arthur Hannigan, Marquette, Ont., is a witness to the truth of these statements.

Mrs. Hannigan says: "For nearly three years I suffered from anemia (bloodlessness) and during that time I was unable to take medicine from several doctors, without beneficial results. My complexion was a waxy appearance, my hair turned gray, my head ached, my eyes were sore, my stomach was weak, and I grew so weak, and was so much reduced in flesh that my friends thought I was in consumption. As I have said I doctored without benefit, until the last doctor whom I consulted advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I followed his advice and less than a dozen boxes have made me the well woman I am today. All the symptoms of my trouble have vanished and I enjoy the very best of health. I know there are hundreds of women who are drifting into the same condition I was, and so to all such I would strongly urge the immediate use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do not act upon the bowels, they do not induce a habit of mere symptoms; they go right to the root of the trouble in the blood. That is why they are so effective. They cure all kinds of anemia, neuritis, kidney trouble, headaches and backaches, St. Vitus dance, and the special ailments that afflict so many women and growing girls. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

BY SPECIAL TRAIN TO ANNUAL DINNER

Emploves of Waterbury & Rising Dined by Firm at Torryburn---A Pleasant Function.

Following a custom established some twenty years ago Waterbury & Rising entertained their employes to the number of forty-six at a dinner in the claimant House, Torryburn, last evening.

The original intention was to have a sleigh drive in connection but the want of snow prevented this. With their characteristic determination, however, communication was had with I. C. R. authorities in Moncton and a special train known as the Waterbury & Rising "Special," in charge of Driver G. B. Storey and Conductor A. E. Brown, was secured.

At 8:30 the party, as merry as one as ever left the city, took passage and in a few moments "all aboard" was shouted and the trip to Torryburn commenced. A few miles from the city a sudden slackening of speed was noticeable and soon the intelligence was whispered through the train that the Waterbury & Rising "special" on its maiden trip was about to rescue from discomfort the passengers on the Hampton suburban train which had left the city some minutes in advance of the "special." A stop was made and in a few moments the "foot filters" and "knights of the grip" were busily engaged in assisting on board their train the passengers of a disabled one.

It appears that the suburban train which was the motor train, on nearing Gilbert's Island suddenly came to a standstill. A hasty examination showed that the machinery was decidedly out of order with no immediate prospect of repair. The passengers when invited to partake of the hospitality of the Waterbury & Rising "special" gladly acquiesced and many expressed themselves as firmly convinced that the W. & R. "special" could not be improved upon for ease, comfort and general appearance.

A few minutes before 7 o'clock "Newcombe" was reached and no time was lost in gathering around the festive board. Mr. Newcombe had determined upon doing all previous efforts and the usual
