APPLIES SAYINGS OF LUTHER AT RANDOM TO PRESENT DAY EVENTS

Amsterdam, Oct. 30.—On the occa-sion of the 100th anniversary of the for-mation of the German Evangelic League, it launches from Wittenberg a manifes-to in which the militant sayings of Martin Luther are applied at random to present-day events. The manifesto rejects pacifists, and thunders against the Pope's peace proposals as being in-vested with no religious authority.

TO ALL HIGHWAY USERS

Why should the Maritime Provinces and British Columbia be the only places in America that Pass to the Left?

Are you in favor of changing the Road Law at the next Session of the Legislature to read "Pass to the Right," and thus put our province in line with the rest of the continent? Nova Scotia will change if we do.

Please write me as to whether you favor the change or not.

STOCKS DOWN AGAIN IN WALL STREET MARKET

New York, Oct. 30.—(Wall Street)—Stocks suffered further impairment at the active opening of today's market, leaders recording additional recessions of one to almost three points. The movement bore the familiar marks of liquidation, with a sprinkling of short selling. Investment rails reflected their recent pressure, notably the Pacific, Canadian being the weakest of that group. Equipments, including United States Steel, were increasingly heavy, with shipping, coppers, oils and motors. New York Air Brake featured the spec-ialities, losing five points.

PLAN FURLOUGH FOR FIRST CONTINGENT

Ottawa, Oct. 30.—If arrangements can be carried out without unduly in-terfering with military organization and efficiency at the front the 8,000 or so Canadians who have survived the dan-gers and withstood the hardships of three years of war will be given a long fur-lough this winter with permission to come back to Canada.

"Every man and woman in Canada can help win this war by practising self-denial" - - -

—From an Address by Sir Thomas White, Minister of Finance.

FOUR HUNDRED THOUSAND of the finest and bravest of Canada's young men have swept aside their home ties and friendships, their private interests, their own pleasures, their own inclinations, and volunteered to serve for Canada and the Empire.

MORE THAN thirty thousand of them have made the supreme sacrifice. Many more thousands have been maimed, crippled, blinded, incapacitated in a hundred ways.

Tens of thousands of fathers and mothers in Canada bear, with a proud spirit of sacrifice, aching hearts for cross-marked graves in France. Only those who are living through it can know the full measure of these sacrifices.

Through these sacrifices Canada is rising to the stature of enobled nationhood—a nation that is finding its conscience, its spirit of courage and humility, its national soul.

And before the war is won every man and woman in Canada must and will learn the lessons of sacrifice.

THE WAR can be won only by the unselfish, personal self-denial and patriotic devotion of every man and woman and boy and girl in Canada.

And what self-denial can you make to equal the sacrifice of one mother whose only son lies beneath a wooden cross "somewhere in France"?

And if you worked sixteen hours a day, slept on a pallet of straw and lived on a crust, would that measure up to the sacrifice made by one soldier who comes back to Canada blind?

Would it even approximate the hardships which are the everyday commonplaces of the lives of our men in the trenches?

NOW HOW can you and each of us by self-denial help to win the war? Every man and woman who is true in spirit to this Canada of ours, wants to be of service, wants to help win the war.

Then how can each of us help?

BY TAKING thought of what we spend, what we eat and wear, where we go, what we do to save our money —by giving serious, dutiful con-sideration to the needs of our country and our country's gallant defenders in the trenches,

—by avoiding every unnecessary expenditure so that we can buy Canada's Victory Bonds,

—by remembering that every time we reduce our own individual ability to buy a bond by spending money needlessly, or by self-indulgence, ex-travagance or thoughtlessness, we by that much reduce the efficiency of Canada in helping to win the war,

—when we save our money and lend it to Canada we help just that much. And Canada needs every ounce of help from every man and woman.

Buying Canada's Victory Bonds is a service to our country, but if we buy these bonds as a result of our own self-denial we render to our-selves a still greater service, because we shall have learned to discipline ourselves and,

"He that ruleth his spirit is better than he that taketh a city"

Issued by Canada's Victory Loan Committee in co-operation
