Doubles—W. Drake and W. Bagnell vs C. D'Arcy and C. Ryan, won by Drake and Bagnell, 6-4; G. Dishart and E. Thomas vs W. Nilsson and T. Drummie, won by Nilsson and Drummie, 6-2; J. E. Arrowsmith and T. Simpson vs L. H. Sandall and Shane, 10-6; K. Colwell and W. Stewart vs A. H. Wetmore and H. W. Wilson, won by Colwell and Stewart, 11-9; A. Harding and C. Weimore vs B. Ryan and W. Thomas, 7-5.

Semi-finals—Bagnall and Drake defeated Nilsson and Drummie, 7-5; Sandall and Shane defeated Stewart and Colwell, 6-4; Sandall and Shane defeated Stewart and Ryan.

In the evening, on the invitation of Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Peters, the residents enjoyed a dance at their cottage in the cove, at which event the prizes won during the day were presented by the president of the club, George Dishart. The members of the club and their families weed doubles in tennis will take place this week.

The chief centre of interest was the baseball game between teams represent-ing the married and single men of the cove. The game was ably umpired by C. B. D'Arcy, whose deeds deserve to be recorded, and Frank Lewis, whose life was in danger several times. Owing to the superior slugging and base running of the married men, they won the game by 16 to 12. The batteries for the married men were Stewart, Sandall and Drake defeated Ryan and W. Thomas, 6-1.
