OPEN EMPLOYMENT OFFICE TOMORROW

Local Branch of Federal Service will be Ready at Nine o'clock—List of Unemployed One of First Requirements.

The St. John branch of the federal employment service will be opened for business tomorrow morning at nine o'clock, so W. J. Ryan, the superintendent, announced this morning. Mr. Ryan will be assisted by W. A. Dougherty as assistant superintendent in the men's department and Miss Agnes Sutherland in the women's section. Finishing touches are being effected today in the arrangement of the offices in the Kennedy building in Prince William street.

The employment office will occupy one half of the second floor. The space has been divided into two sections by a partition, the front half being laid out for the men's section and the rear portion for the women. Separate entrances from the main hall open into each section. Mr. Ryan will have his office in the front of the building, opening off the men's division. The furniture for the bureau, which has been supplied by the provincial government, has arrived and everything will be in readiness for tomorrow morning.

Mr. Ryan said this morning that the intention was first to start the compilation of a list of unemployed in the city as the individuals reported to the office and the operation of the service would be materially assisted if those in need of men or women would submit their requirements to the office.

K. A. Christie, clearance officer for the maritime provinces, is in the city and will remain in the local office tomorrow to help get its operation under way.
As the demands for help are received, it is planned to have bulletin boards placed outside the building so that unemployed may be kept advised of what work is offering.

CHANCERY COURT

Bridge Case Struck Off With
Right to Re-enter—The W.
E. McIntyre Co. vs. Hawthorne Case Dismissed.

The July sitting of the Chancery Court opened this morning with Mr.
Justice White presiding. Very few matters were brought before the court.
A case which had been standing for months on motion dismissed, that of W. E. McIntyre Co. vs. Hawthorne, an action relating to an injunction taken out some time ago against the chief liquor inspector of the province. It had come up for trial several times but had not proceeded to a hearing. Dr. Wallace, K.C., for the defendant, this morning moved for dismissal which was consented to by J. D. P. Lewin for the plaintiff.

The case of the Province of New Brunswick vs. the C. P. R. falls bridge case, was struck off with the right to re-enter. The application was made by M. G. Teed, K.C., and consented to by H. H. McLean, Jr., for Dr.
Taylor, defendant's solicitor.

The case of the Canada Fertilizer Co.
vs. Burney, was struck off.
An order for foreclosure under a mortgage was granted in the case of Lionel Glenn vs. Alexander Hopkins.
The amount was assessed at $694.99.
The property is in Queens county.
In the case of Richardson vs. Wilby, a Charlotte county case arising through a sale of land and the abandonment of a property, notice of trial was given by the defendant. The case was set for next term. Dr. Wallace, K.C., appeared for the plaintiff and K. A. Wilson for the defendant.

N. B. DENTAL SOCIETY IS IN SESSION HERE

The annual meeting of the New Brunswick Dental Society was begun this morning in the Pyralis Casino Hall, and was continued this afternoon. The vice-president, Dr. F. S. Sawya, presided at the meeting, with Dr. F. A. Goddard, as secretary. Only routine business was transacted this morning, but this afternoon the important business was to come up, including the election of officers for the ensuing year. Some research work was also to be carried out this afternoon. Those in attendance at the meeting were as follows:—Dr. F. S. Sawya, F. A. Goddard, J. M. Magee, W. P.
Broderick, W. P. Bonnell, F. C. Bonnell,

I. K. Farren, J. C. Doore, B. M. Mac-Gibbon, F. L. Boyaner, A. W. Turner, H.

LeBlanc, R. H. Irving and F. E. Gaudet.

STREET PAVING.

The entire length of German street will be permanently paved by the end of this year, according to the plans of Commissioner Frink. He said this morning that he hoped to lay a permanent surface on the block between St. James and British streets before the summer was over. Last year the block from Queen to St. James was completed. This piece of work and that planned for this year are under terms of the local improvement act, half the cost to be borne by the abutments.
Tenders for the pavement of both sides of Haymarket Square will likely be opened at a committee meeting of the council on Thursday morning. Dr. Frink said that he planned to go ahead with this work as soon as possible. If the tenders are lower than the city's estimate, he will likely recommend that this means of carrying out the work be adopted.

PROSECUTION'S EVIDENCE IN

Samuel A. Sewell Case Over Till Thursday.

Mayor McLellan, Ex-Commissioner Jones and Chamberlain Lingley Testify—Many in Court to Follow the Proceedings.

The case against Samuel A. Sewell, charged with obtaining money under false pretences from the city of St. John between May 1 and June 28, was resumed this morning before the sitting magistrate and the evidence for the prosecution was finished. Mayor McLellan, ex-commissioner Jones, and the chamberlain were the witnesses examined today.

The mayor told of being present at a meeting where the accused admitted that he had added names to the payroll but said that he received nothing personally from this having paid out the money for extra time work by the men.
John B. Jones told of the system of overtime work and the change he had made in this respect.

When the accused was asked the usual question as to whether or not he wished to say anything in answer to the charge he pleaded not guilty.

The court room was crowded with spectators. There were a few lively tilts between the opposing counsel and some of the witnesses. The lawyers appearing were Daniel Mullin, K. C., for the city, and H. W. Powell, K. C., for the defence.

The matter of bail was again brought up and the sitting magistrate allowed the prisoner to go on the same recognitance as previously, namely $1,000, to appear on Thursday.

The payrolls of May and June, which were referred to by witnesses at the last hearing, were put in evidence by Mr.
Mullin.

Mayor Testifies.
His Worship Mayor McLellan was the first witness called this morning. The chamberlain, he said, called his attention to the presence of the names of Harry Smith, William Hawkins, Daniel McLaughlin and John Carroll on the payrolls. He made an investigation later and saw Messrs. Hawkins and Smith.
He was present at a meeting when Commissioner Wignmore, the chamberlain, and the accused were present at which the accused made a statement.

Sewell, he said, made a personal statement to him, and said he knew about only one ticket which he had given to Kincaid. The accused said he cashed this ticket for Hawkins who went away in a hurry, hanging over the ticket. He said he was in the habit of doing this.
This was in June 28. He said he had only once received any money from the chamberlain for tickets. There was nothing said at that time about men working overtime.

His worship said that the meeting at which the accused made his statement was on June 29. On the 26th he had seen Hawkins. At the meeting the accused admitted that he had put these names on the payroll, but said he had never got one cent of the money, having paid it out for overtime work to the men. He repeated this story several times.

The mayor interviewed Arbo, James and Stewart Kincaid and Harry Smith in connection with this matter.
J. B. Jones.

John B. Jones, commissioner of water and sewerage for three and one-half years, was called. He said he knew the accused, who was superintendent of the department of water and sewerage when he was made commissioner. He spoke to the accused on several occasions and said that there was too much overtime pay and he thought the expenses were becoming too heavy, and the men were being tired out by doing night time work, which could be done the next day. He said he thought that the men should do a little overtime work gratuitously in view of the two weeks holidays they received. In case of emergency he told the accused the men would be paid. The accused seemed to think this was fair.

On cross-examination he said that Sewell would have about seventy or eighty men on the regular force. The practise of charging up extra work continued for about a year after he took office. He said he gave instructions to Sewell that this overtime work had to be stopped. He said there were a certain crew of men whom Sewell favored in some kind of work.

Mr. Jones said he left office about the last of April and did not know that there were men claiming pay for extra work.
Asked if extra work was claimed for as extra work, he said "Yes." A lot of technical evidence was taken as to the system of paying and recording the extra work.

The Chamberlain.

Duncan G. Lingley, the city chamberlain, was recalled. He said that he looked up the record of James Kincaid for one year to June 5, 1922, and found that he had been paid for every day in the year except Sundays. He thought this was an extraordinary circumstance for a man working out of doors. There were quite a few others to whom the same thing might apply, he said. He read names of men who had received full pay for the year.

Mr. Mullin said this closed the case for the prosecution.
Sewell, when asked the usual statutory question as to whether or not he wished to say anything, said: "If not guilty, I have nothing further to say at present."

A delay was caused by the fact that the mayor had left the court room without entering into a recognizance for his appearance at the trial of the accused, if committed, and the case had to be set over until Thursday.
Mr. Powell asked whether the bail furnished at the last sitting would hold until the matter of a commitment for trial was settled, and Sewell was allowed to go on the same bail of $1,000 to appear on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.
