A ST. JOHN MAN

Dr. Oscar Watson's Picture
Has Place in Service Bulletin of Associated Press.

The November service bulletin of the Associated Press, issued in New York, includes a page of photographs of outstanding men of the service who have been in the A. P. employ for a quarter of a century or more. Among them is Dr. Oscar Watson of St. John. In brief summaries of the careers of the men, the bulletin says of Doctor Watson: "For fourteen years night cable editor in the New York office, entered the service in 1894, served as reporter and night editor for several years, also as news editor, assistant night manager and night manager."

This is, of course, putting into a very few words a record of service that is known to have been outstanding and to have gained for Doctor Watson recognition as one of the most valued men on the lengthy roster of the A. P. He is a son of the late Alexander A. Watson, so well remembered as proprietor of a book and stationery business at the corner of Charlotte and Union streets, where the Wilcox firm now is located. The doctor himself is held in kindly memory here by many friends and those entering middle age recall with pleasure his sterling sportsmanship in athletics here. Doctor Watson has never allowed to weaken the link that connects him with St. John, and he makes an annual visit here to the mutual pleasure of himself and friends of other days.

PROTEST AGAINST KING SQUARE SITE

Members of Engineering Institute Bring West Side School Matter Before Common Council.

A delegation from the local branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada appeared before the mayor and commissioners in committee this morning to protest against the erection of a school on the proposed site in King square, West St. John. The council decided to take their protest into consideration when the matter was brought before them for decision. The delegation consisted of George Waring, H. H. Gaudin, Guy Tapley and Charles Archibald.

Mr. Waring asked on behalf of the institute that the site for a school in West St. John be changed so that the public square would not be built upon. He said that there was a place on the west side better adapted for a school.

Mr. Cushing said a public square should not be used for that purpose. The property adjoining the Albert school property could be purchased for $10,000 and the lot mentioned by Mr. Waring, he thought, would cost less. He was of the opinion that the square could not be used under the city charter. He understood that the square site was suggested by the common council.

The mayor said the council had no authority to change the site.

Com. Frink said that under the charter the city could not use the square to build upon except by obtaining legislation for the purpose.

Mr. Archibald said that the site referred to by Mr. Waring was at the head of Rodney street and was 720 x 200, he thought it belonged to the Fen-ton property.

Commissioner Thornton said that the Victoria square in the North End was only a dump until a school was built there. Since that it was greatly improved.

Mr. Tapley said that on the site suggested by the delegation the fire risk was practically eliminated.

Commissioner Jones asked if it were possible to remodel the public building in Market place and if the area would afford sufficient room for playgrounds etc.

Mr. Cushing said the location was not suitable and it would cost much to remodel it.

Mr. Waring said that one of the school trustees had informed him that, had the council not suggested the King square site, the board might have had one of the other sites purchased.

The delegation withdrew after being assured that their statement of the case would be considered.

WATER SHUT OFF IN SOME HOUSES

Action in West End as Owners do Not Make Plumbing Repairs.

Commissioner J. B. Jones of the Water and Sewerage department said today:—"The water supply in several homes on the West side of the harbor has been shut off during the last few days because of refusal of owners of the properties to make the necessary repairs to the plumbing fixtures. Why should landlords permit their tenants to be inconvenienced in this way when by the expenditure of a small sum of money this trouble could readily be overcome? The officials of the water department have their duties to perform and are obliged to see that the regulations relative to leaking fixtures are respected and obeyed even though the carrying out of these regulations some persons may have to suffer the deprivation of their water supply."

"Last winter, it will be recalled, was a severe one, and the resultant experience was that many homes, through freezing of service pipes, were without water for days and weeks at a time. To provide against similar experiences during the approaching winter season is the duty of the inspectors who are visiting all places where water is being used. In a matter of so vital importance to the public as this is everyone should co-operate with the inspectors in the performance of their irksome and at times unpleasant duties."

TRAFFIC MATTER

Dr. J. C. Doore was in the police court this morning charged with running through the C. N. R. gates at Mill street to the extent of $7.26.

The gateman, Michael Corbett, and crashed through the gates and stopped just on the inside. He said at the times according to the witness, that his typewriter did not work. The doctor, on the stand, said he was driving from the direction of Main street and did not see the gates until he was within sight of them, too late to stop before hitting them. He applied his brakes, he said, but could not stop the car until he was through the gates. He said the gates had apparently been broken before judging by the way they bent when he struck them. He also said the lights over the gates were rather confusing and in the dark the black and white strips on the gates act as a camouflage so that one can hardly see them. Joseph Grey corroborated the evidence of the doctor. A fine of $10 was paid. L. McC. Ritchie acted for the defence.
