ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., NOVEMBER 10, 1902.

DOUG SIFTON'S WARDS.

Sifton's Doukhobors have brought the people of the Northwest face to face with a new terror. A preacher in Yorkton has delivered a sermon in which he professes his profound respect for the Doukhobors, compares their pilgrimage to the exodus from Egypt, affirms that they are closer to the mind of God than other folk, and sees in their conduct a "cosmic" significance of vast importance to the world at large. The Rev. Mr. Lewis has no right to be preaching in Yorkton. He ought to be trotting along, barefooted, beside the leader of the Doukhobors, eating rosebuds and begging wheat from the farmers. But since he does preach, and has a congregation, the question will immediately arise: Are all the people in the Northwest lunatics? Is there something in the air of the prairie region that prompts the inhabitants to talk and act as if they had taken leave of their wits? It would perhaps be fair to assume, pending further information, that the Yorkton congregation were as much surprised as anybody to hear an intelligent man preach such a sermon. Nothing more pitiable has been witnessed in our time than the frenzy of the Doukhobors. But there is no more reason for exalting them or permitting them to run about the country, than there is to do the like for the inmates of our asylums. If a careful selection were made from among those suffering from religious mania in the various asylums of the continent, it would doubtless be possible to turn loose as remarkable an aggregation of spirit wrestlers as those who are now advertising Canada as a resort for incapacities. They might not be as tender toward vermin on their own bodies, and they might wear shoes, but every one of them would be absolutely certain that he knew everything worth knowing, and that everybody else was in spiritual darkness.

LIBERALS (?) NOW.

The Telegraph on Friday published an Ottawa interview with Hon. Dr. Pugsley, in which the attorney general, replying to a question about federal party lines in the coming provincial contest, is reported to have said: "In some localities the opposition will get a few labor votes and in other places the government will get conservative votes, but the contest will be fought out largely between the liberals on one side and the conservatives on the other. In other words it will be a fight between the two parties. The government and their supporters are the liberals. That being the case it will be an issue between the two parties." The Telegraph made no comment on this statement, and the Gazette did not even publish it. Dr. Pugsley evidently took the 50th part away from those editors who have been protesting that federal party lines had nothing to do with provincial affairs. If Dr. Pugsley really did say what he is reported to have said, and if he sticks to it a few days before proclaiming some other doctrine the organs must of course earn their pay. The Globe is vastly entertained by the spectacle of Dr. Pugsley and Mr. Tweedie leading the liberal hosts, and it contemplates the coming contentions of the opportunist newspapers. Of the liberals, in their relation to this new deliverance of the attorney general, the Globe makes this laconic and pertinent remark: "Perhaps some of them may vex their minds with an investigation as to whether they are being driven or led."

SIR WILFRID'S TROUBLES.

The Montreal Herald and Witness are both liberal papers, but do not always agree. For example, the Herald had a good opinion of Mr. Tarte, while the Witness distrusted and vigorously assailed him. But there is no disagreement between them regarding Raymond Prefontaine, who is likely to be taken into the cabinet today. They both dislike and distrust him. The Witness openly denounces him, and the Herald booms Mr. Brodeur. As Mr. Prefontaine and Mr. Tarte are not on speaking terms, it follows that the elevation of the former to a seat in the cabinet would be likely to arouse the enmity of Mr. Tarte, as well as the displeasure of the Witness and Herald. And yet Mr. Prefontaine is not a man to be lightly cast aside. He is a very vigorous and resourceful politician, with a considerable following in Quebec province. Troubles thicken around Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He is without the clever brain and forceful personality of the late master of the administration. The Star expressed the opinion when Mr. Tarte resigned that his withdrawal was the best thing for the end of the Laurier era, and later developments tend to strengthen that belief. The process of disintegration may not be rapid, because of a mutual desire to hold on to office; but when Sir Wilfrid Laurier gathered together the various elements which made up his first cabinet he was sowing the wind, and the whirlwind is coming. When trouble threatened in the past there was always Tarte; now that gentleman is fighting for his own hand, with no sympathy at all for his late colleagues. Sir Wilfrid, being essentially a weak man, is all at sea. He haunts between two opinions, uncertain what course to pursue, knowing that in either case there is trouble ahead. And he dislikes trouble. He enjoys the graceful pose, the eloquent speech, the "sunny ways" of politics. The men who are around him are more eager to advance their own interests than to serve the country, and, as they have no fixed principles or policy as a rallying point, there is really no bond of sympathy to hold them together and command the respect and support of the country. When Sir Wilfrid has got his new minister he will still be far from the paths of political peace.

THE BEAR GULCH. John H. Thomson returned Saturday from Montana, where he, along with A. H. Hanington, K. C. and W. H. Barnaby, was looking after the interests of St. John people in the Bear Gulch mine. A Sun reporter applying to Mr. Thomson to find out what had happened there, Mr. Thomson said all the trouble had been amicably settled. Further than that he was unwilling to divulge pending the return of Messrs. Hanington and Barnaby. The two mining companies which were in litigation, the Gold King (formerly the Revenue) of Montana, and the Bear Gulch, had arranged the differences between them and had decided upon a reconstruction of the two under one corporation. A new board of management will be formed, to consist of directors from both companies. Mr. Thomson assured the reporter that the Bear Gulch people were in a better position than ever before.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE. St. George Division, No. 353, S. of T. held its regular weekly meeting in the Market building on Saturday evening. The attendance was very large. The attraction was the programme prepared by a committee, which was a mock trial, conducted by M. N. White and Wm. McGowan. S. P. McCavour of Gordon Division and Bro. Geo. Westmore of Gurney Divisions, acting as judges. After the examination of the witnesses, the judges addressed the meeting and discharged the would-be prisoner. This division is setting a pace that it would pay other divisions to follow. Next Saturday evening St. George Division will hold a pie social and entertainment in the Temperance hall, Market building, to which the public are cordially invited.

THE SIFTON MURDER.

LONDON, Ont., Nov. 9.—The jury in the famous Sifton murder trial last night returned a verdict of not guilty, and the prisoner was discharged from custody. Genaid Sifton was charged with the murder of his own father, Joseph Sifton, two years ago, and this was the third trial, the jury in the former trials disagreeing, and Sifton being remanded each time for a new trial. The judge in discharging the prisoner said the jury had taken a very merciful view of his case. Walter Herbert, who pleaded guilty to being Sifton's accomplice, will not be sentenced at this term of the court.

MACHINE SHOP AT GRAND BAY.

Geo. I. Evans, manager of E. Leonard & Son's machine works, has recently purchased a farm of 120 acres from Mr. Gallagher at Grand Bay, where it is understood that it is his intention to erect a moulding shop and establish a machine making plant on a large scale. Workmen are now there by King road for three large buildings, the erection of which will soon be proceeded with. Mr. Evans' place is admirably situated for either rail or water communication, and those who have some knowledge of his project predict the establishment of a big industry at Grand Bay within a comparatively short time.

THE DOG SHOW.

From present indications the benching accommodation at Saint Andrews rink must be increased for the dog show opening on the 19th inst. For this reason it is necessary that the management should know as soon as possible just how many dogs to expect, so that arrangements may be made accordingly. Persons who intend entering their dogs should write at once to T. McCullough, 142 King street east, for pamphlets and entry blanks.

KING'S BIRTHDAY.

His Majesty's Honors Include Sir Richard Cartwright, Who is Made a Right Honorable.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—With the exception of some possibly significant decorations to Portuguese and Japanese officials, the long list of His Majesty's birthday honors is rather uninteresting. Some promotions in connection with the coronation ceremonies and the South African war, and because of services rendered to commerce and in parliament are announced. No new peerages have been created. R. J. Cartwright, Canadian minister of commerce; Lord Revelstoke and Sir Joseph C. Dimsdale are among the new privy councillors. Among other noteworthy honors recorded in the list is the conferring upon the Japanese Prince Arisigawa, a coronation visitor, the decoration of Knight of the Order of the Crown and Companion of the Bath. Sir James MacKay and Count Matsugata, ex-premier of Japan, were made Knights of the Grand Cross of St. Michael and St. George. Col. Machado and Captain Ferreira, of the Portuguese navy, and Viscount Castro and made Knights Commander of St. Michael and St. George. General Gorgao, governor of Mozambique, is made a Knight Commander of the Bath. Rear Admiral Lambton, R. N., is appointed extra equerry to His Majesty.

SANDRINGHAM, Eng., Nov. 9.—The weather here today was perfect and mild and the bright sunshine brought crowds of visitors to Sandringham on the chance of seeing Emperor William. The approaches to the church were lined with spectators. Queen Alexandra, the Prince of Wales and Mrs. Chamberlain arrived at the place of worship together. Half an hour later King Edward, Emperor William, Prime Minister Balfour, Colonial Secretary Chamberlain and other distinguished persons arrived and stood chatting outside the church. King Edward talked with Mr. Chamberlain for a few minutes, then the Emperor of Germany approached, and for a quarter of an hour the Emperor and Mr. Chamberlain stood apart and conversed earnestly. The service had begun and the anthem had been reached before the royal party entered the church, the King taking the Emperor's arm.

The Bishop of Ripon preached on the possibility of the disappearance of race distinctions and the attaining of the grand brotherhood of man. He referred to King Edward's recovery from his illness, to the visit of his "kinsman monarch," and to the ties which have long united Germany and Great Britain. The bishop said that however these countries were divided by the German ocean, a race blended of both peoples was continuing to grow on the other side of the Atlantic, where Germans and Englishmen were becoming one nationality. The service was closed by the singing of the national anthem. Afterwards the two monarchs walked together through the garden. During the day King Edward received a host of birthday congratulations and gifts. Emperor William gave him a valuable vase.

Yesterday, the King's birthday, was the occasion for the singing of the national Anthem in many city churches. Several pastors made appropriate allusions to the day and its significance, dwelling especially upon the King's successful preservation through his dangerous illness and the events of his coronation. Today a royal salute was fired at noon by a detachment from No. 3 Company of the 3rd R. C. A., from Dorchester battery.

SUDDEN DEATH.

The death occurred very suddenly Saturday evening of Thomas Craig, who for many years was employed at Murray's mill as an engineer, but latterly has worked at Bonny River, and for some short time previous to his death worked about Murray's mill. The deceased resided with his son-in-law, William Oram, who lives near the mill. On Saturday evening, after eating his supper, Mr. Craig went to his room, and inside of ten minutes was found dead. Heart trouble was the cause of death.

Fleming, a gate tender at a crossing of the Boston & Maine railroad in Chelsea, is under arrest, charged with stealing $250 worth of diamonds and jewelry from a trunk belonging to Miss Lydia Killam, daughter of the mayor of Yarmouth, N. S. It is alleged that the articles were removed from Miss Killam's trunk, which was left in the Chelsea freight shed over night. The prisoner will be given a hearing in the Chelsea police court on Monday. His bonds were placed at $500.

MONTREAL, Nov. 9.—A meeting of accountants was held yesterday, when it was decided to form a dominion association.

PREFONTAINE, M. P.

Appointed Minister of Marine and Fisheries.

OTTAWA, Nov. 9.—Raymond Prefontaine, M. P., will be sworn in tomorrow as minister of marine and fisheries, and Hon. Mr. Sutherland will go to the public works department. It has taken the prime minister a long time to make up his mind, but he has reached a conclusion at last and unless there is a change between tonight and tomorrow noon, the programme will be as indicated above. The formal announcement of Prefontaine's appointment cannot be made until his excellency has approved Sir Wilfrid's selection. MONTREAL, Nov. 9.—It is reported tonight on good authority that the appointment of Raymond Prefontaine as minister of marine and fisheries has been decided upon, Mr. Sutherland going to the public works department. It is also stated that Prefontaine's friends have now massed their energies upon having him made minister of public works, so that Quebec will not lose the only great spending department it has that department has more French speaking employees than any other branch of the public service, and it is feared that with an Ontario minister in charge the department will speedily lose that characteristic and become Anglicised, while opportunities for evening up in the marine department are greatly restricted.

DEATHS AT FREDERICTON.

FREDERICTON, Nov. 9.—The body of John Peppers, who disappeared from his home at Lower St. Marys last Tuesday, was found this morning by William Rickard, in the Nashuaak river, about a mile from its mouth. It was found lying face downward in about four feet of water, and from appearances it was evident that death resulted from drowning.

Mr. Peppers had gone out to cut birch bark and the knife which he had been using was found lying on the western bank of the river a quarter of a mile above the spot where the body was discovered, and a rubber worn by him was picked up several hundred yards below.

Where the rubber was found the bank is quite steep and the general supposition is that he accidentally fell into the water and was overcome before he could effect a landing. The deceased was 75 years of age and is survived by his widow, two daughters and three sons, one of the latter being Dr. Hugh Peppers, of Centreville, Carleton county.

Two brothers, James of this city, and Robert, of St. Marys, also survive. The death occurred here this morning of James Dunlap. He was 62 years of age and is survived by his widow, two sons and three daughters. Two brothers live in California, and two unmarried sisters are residents of this city. Deceased carried on a trucking business here for many years.

Lieut. Weldon McLean, who is on furlough from his regiment in England, is expected home tomorrow to visit his father, Lt. Col. H. H. McLean. The steamer on which he is coming is due at Quebec this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Earle leave this afternoon on a business and pleasure trip to South Africa, sailing from an American port. Advice from Milnauke are that Mrs. Charles E. Tilton and daughter, who went there to see Mrs. Tilton's son, Charles Tilton, found him resting comfortably. He is very seriously ill.
