LOCAL NEWS

St. John Exhibition, September 12th to 19th.

The Telegraphers' Club will hold a dance at the Ferns this evening.

Will the exhibitors for the Women's Department kindly send in their exhibits to Mr. Taylor, at the Exhibition Building. Also be careful to put name and address on exhibit.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Seamen's Mission yesterday decorated the graves of seamen who are buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

The A. O. H. members are today moving from King street to their new rooms in the Sutherland building, Union street.

The delegates chosen at the ward meetings last evening will assemble in the second floor rooms of Berryman's hall at 7:30 tomorrow evening to select candidates and in convention in the main hall at 8 p. m. for ratification.

The death occurred this morning at Brookville of Mr. James E. Mills, in his sixty-sixth year. Mr. Mills had been a sufferer for the past eight months. He is survived by four sons, James W., of Portland, Ernest, Walter and Edward at home, and one daughter, Mrs. Hogerson, of Brookville.

A correspondent writing to the Star says that this paper was astray in stating that there are no new houses now under construction in St. John. The Star did not make this assertion on its own authority, nor did it conduct an exhaustive enquiry. A number of persons who were in a position to know were asked and none of them were aware of new buildings being erected. The correspondent says that in the south end several houses are being put up, and adds that cheaper lumber would no doubt be followed by increased activity in building.

COMMITTEE HEARS PLANS FOR CHANGES IN WHARF

The Harbor Improvement Committee met this morning to deal with the request of the C. P. R. for a change in the plans of the new government wharf at West St. John.

As the requirements of the railway were not in a very definite form the committee arranged that Mr. Brown, of the C. P. R., and Engineer Scamell, should meet this afternoon and draw up a plan for the changes. This will be submitted at a later meeting of the committee. If the changes do not interfere with the slip on the north side the committee will recommend that the additional ground be granted to the government and that the changes be made.

As the council meets this afternoon the matter will not be in shape to refer to the aldermen and a further delay will be caused by this.

WEDDINGS

A wedding of considerable interest took place at the residence of J. S. Gibson, 105 Wright street, at 6:30 o'clock this morning. The principals in the event were Leonard J. Hughes, Eastern Manager of Business Systems Limited, of Toronto, and Miss Grace Anna Garrett, head nurse of the St. Stephen Hospital. Rev. R. P. McKim performed the marriage ceremony, which was witnessed by only immediate friends and relatives. The bride was tastefully gowned in a tailor made brown costume with hat to match and carried a white prayer book. The couple were unattended. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, the table decorations being pink and white. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome necklace of pearls, amethysts and emeralds.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents, among which was a charming dish towel, a silver set of the St. Stephen Hospital, Mr. and Mrs. Hughes left on the steamer Prince Rupert for an extended honeymoon trip to Boston, New York, Toronto and Montreal, and after the honeymoon they will reside in Halifax.

BARRETT-SHAW.

A very pretty wedding took place at St. John's Baptist church early this morning, when Miss Sabina Shaw, one of St. John's most popular young ladies, was united in marriage to Mr. Frederick L. Barrett. The bride was given away by her father, and was gowned in a beautiful tailored gown of brown chiffon, broadcloth with a pale blue Gainsborough hat with pale blue and gold trimmings. She was attended by her sister, Miss Nellie A. Shaw, who was beautifully gowned in a cream tailored suit with hat to match. The groom was attended by Mr. Joseph O'Neill, of this city. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents, including cut-glass, silver, etc. The happy couple left, by the L. C. E. R., when they will visit Canadian cities. On their return they will reside at 112 City Road.

A HORSE IN THE SLIP.

There was considerable excitement in the Market Slip this morning. A teamster driving one of J. S. Gibson's coal carts drove his horse into the water for the purpose of soaking the wheels. He, however, went in too far and the wagon floated. The horse got beyond its depth and fell over and the driver was thrown into its water. A number of boats put out from the different vessels and while the work of unhooking the horse and making a rescue was in progress about 500 people assembled along the head of the slip. A half dozen men who were standing on a log slipped and fell into the water. Matters were rather lively for a time. The horse and wagon were rescued without any injury.

THE SUN AND STAR

AT THE EXHIBITION

Will Have a Booth for Business and for the Convenience of Visitors.

For the convenience of visitors to the Exhibition, The Sun and Star are now arranging an attractive booth on the ground floor of the main building. The booth will be fitted with writing tables for the convenience of visitors and there will be in attendance a member of the office staff, who will receive renewals and subscriptions and attend to all matters in connection with circulation. The advertising manager of the Sun and Star will also be present and will be pleased to meet all who desire any space. The booth will be connected with the central telephone exchange and the number of the Sun and Star telephone in the Exhibition building will be Main 1916. All visitors to the Exhibition are cordially invited to make use of this booth when desiring to write cards or letters, and as a meeting place for friends.

A DIFFERENT STORY OF THE PARK ASSAULT CASE

Jackson, the Accused, Charges Ogier With Attempting to Extort Money—A Sixteen Year Old Drunkard.

There were seven drunks on the police court bench this morning. All were dealt with in the usual manner. Albert Elliott, aged 16 years, was one of the drunks. The boy was found in the old burning ground early this morning. When asked where he got the liquor he said a man gave it to him out of a bottle. He was remanded to jail for the present. Thomas Jackson, who was arrested Monday night charged by Edwin Ogier with assault, gave the court a different view of the affair in Rockwood Park. He said that Ogier and McLeod were in his company during the afternoon and Ogier said he was a detective. In the evening he laid down to sleep and found some person going through his pockets. When he put up a fight Ogier then stated that an assault had been made, but if he would give some money everything would be squared up. Jackson said that the place to square anything up was in the police court and he accompanied his charge to the station, where he was locked up. Ogier claimed to be a watchman in the Park, but he holds no such position. It was only recently that he was before the court, having been found drunk in a carriage. Jackson was remanded to jail for the present.

WELL KNOWN NORTH END CITIZEN DROPS DEAD

J. Allan Gallop Died of Heart Trouble as He Was About to Commence Work—Leaves a Large Family.

J. Allan Gallop, a well known and highly respected citizen of the north end, died suddenly this morning of heart disease when about to commence work in Hillyard Bros' mill. The deceased was in his 63rd year and for the past two years has suffered from heart trouble due to over exertion. He has not been well lately, but has continued at work in the mill, where he has his charge of the lathe and pavement block machines. This morning he reached the mill a little before seven and just as the whistle blew he complained of a pain in his heart and sat down. He immediately became unconscious and died shortly afterwards. His two sons and a grandson were with him at the time of his death.

Dr. Roberts and Dr. Gray were summoned, but were unable to do anything, as Mr. Gallop was already beyond help. The remains were taken to Brennan's room for preparation for burial and afterwards removed to the home of the deceased at 135 Victoria street.

Mr. Gallop is a native of Wicklow, Carleton County, and has lived in the city for the last forty-five years. For forty years he has been employed in Hillyard's mill regularly every summer, and has worked as a contracting carpenter during the winter.

He leaves a widow, two sons, Charles H. and Fred P., and eight daughters, Mrs. Chas. White, of Washademoak Lake; Mrs. Fred Miller, Mrs. R. E. Turner, Mrs. R. A. Christie, all of this city, and Misses Annie, Bessie, Emma and Lily residing at home. He is also survived by seven brothers, Alfred and Charles at Robinson, Me.; George, of Boston, and Henry, Stanley, James and Byron of Victoria County.

Owing to the absence of one of his daughters in Boston, the time of the funeral has not been fixed and will be announced later.
