Soap That is Best for the Baby's Bath Baby's skin is very sensitive to soap; some-sooths and nourish, while others inflame and ir-itate. It is of the utmost importance that you know what soap to use, and to do this you must know what is the soap.
 So let us explain how we make Infants' Delight.
 We first go for pure vegetable oil to France. There pay often double what we might pay. But the oil get is pure enough to use on your table.
 Then we go more than 12,000 miles to the isle Ceylon for pure coconut oil. Both oils are carefully tested by chemists and doubly boiled.
 Next they go through our own special milling process and fall like flakes of snow into enormous tubs. Then they are crushed under a weight of 30 tons press out the moisture.
 Finally they pass through granite rollers and come in miles of silky ribbons. Then they are dried times and stamped into oval cakes that just fit the baby. Isn't it worth while to have soap like this for baby? Why risk using common soap when this excellent kind costs no more than others.
 This lovely soap leaves the baby's skin as soft as velvet and as smooth as silk. Even the knows the difference in this delightful soap—so we call it Infants' Delight.
 Baby will like the perfume too. It is so dainty and fragrant—only the exquisite scent of the rose.
 If this soap is pure enough for the baby's skin it surely is best for your own. Try one cake—you owe it to baby and yourself.

Circular Issued by Association Calling Upon Chinamen to Fight the Insulting Aggression of Japan.

SENSATION CREATED
AMONG JAPANESE

Tokio, Oct. 11.—Copies of circulars issued in North China by a body of Chinese calling themselves the Popular Association of the Three Eastern Provinces have been received in Japan, after having been spread broadcast among Chinese of the lower classes. The circulars contain inflamatory statements against the Japanese.
 They bear upon what is called the weakness of poor China and "the insulting aggression of Japan." Assertions are made that Japan has devastated the arable lands of North China and has enslaved laborers along the line of the Antung-Mukden Railroad, and that Japanese officials have beaten the men, insulted the women and terrorized the people. The circulars point out that the weakness of China in a military sense makes it impossible for her to resist this treatment except by a boycott, and call upon the people of China generally to refuse all dealings with the Japanese.
 Students and persons who value freedom are called upon to propagate the doctrines of the association. Falling in this they are threatened with vengeance and even death.

Refuse To Carry Goods.

The document concludes with the request that Chinese vehicles, vessels and railroads refuse to carry Japanese goods. An endless chain is sought in the request that patriotic citizens into whose hands the circular may fall will have them reprinted and scattered broadcast until Japan is completely shut out from all commercial communication with China.
 These circulars have created something of a sensation in Japan. Efforts are being made to prevent the spread of their contents among Japanese of the ignorant class because danger of arousing feeling is recognized. Meanwhile there is reason to believe that Japan has called or will immediately call the attention of the Chinese authorities to the illegality of the boycott propaganda demanding that the circulars be outlawed as illegal documents and "that the Popular Association of the Three Eastern Provinces be disciplined."

Speculation on these points and interest in the "constitutional crisis"

have put the budget itself, free trade tariff reforms and other planks in political platforms into the background. But the Chinese evidently intend to play unemployment, which is expected to be greater than ever during the coming winter, as their chief card against the budget.

Lloyd George's defiant utterances were contained in a speech which he made at Newcastle Saturday afternoon. He made a vigorous defence of the budget and a bitter attack on the House of Lords. He declared that the bill was now practically in form in which it was going to become an act of Parliament.

 He said that instead of the measure being an attack on industry and property it was a fact that since its introduction in the House of Commons trade and industry had improved.
 The only stock which had gone down since the introduction of the bill, said the Chancellor, was that in dukes, in which there had been a great slump. A fully equipped ducal cost as much to keep up as a couple of Dreadnoughts.

All Went Well.

So long as the duke content to be mere idols and preserved that kind of stately silence which became their rank and intelligence, said the Chancellor, all went well. When the budget came, however, they stepped down from their perches because the measure knocked a little gift off their stagecoaches.

"The Lords would do with the budget, declared the Chancellor, concerned themselves more than it did the Government. The more irresponsible and feather headed among them wanted it thrown out. What the others would do depended in the first place on reports from the country. The Chancellor went on dramatically.

"What our fathers obtained through centuries of struggle, strife and bloodshed we will not lightly give up.
 We are not going to let traitors (Lords cheer). The Constitution is to be torn to pieces. Let them realize what they are doing. They are forcing a revolution!"

"The Lords may declare a revolution, but it is the people who direct it." (Loud cheers.) Issues will be raised that they little dream of.
 The Chancellor concluded by declaring that the Government was going to have all the taxes in the budget or none.

POLITICAL POT BOILS
MERRILY IN ENGLAND

London, Oct. 11.—Last week has been one of great political excitement, culminating in Prime Minister Asquith's sudden visit to the King and the announcement that the House of Commons would adjourn for a week.
 There is no longer any seriousness in the efforts to keep up the pretence that the visits of Lord Rosebery, the Earl of Crawford and Mr. Asquith to Balmoral were not connected with the political crisis. The official and reasonable enough explanation of the week's adjournment is that fully a week is required for drafting alterations to the budget, but there is no doubt that these visits to the King and the week's adjournment have one object, viz: that of affording an opportunity to ascertain whether the constitutional crisis involved in the rejection of the budget by the House of Lords cannot be averted.

A Peacemaker.

It is not suggested that the King is giving the weight of his personal aid to either side; the idea is rather that he is acting in home politics as he has so consistently done in international matters in his favorite role of peacemaker.

In the meantime nothing is said or done to throw the slightest light on the situation. What finally will be the result of the King's visit and the Government remains a mystery.

Mr. Lloyd George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, declares today that it stands, but despite assurances such as this from responsible Ministers there is a strong tendency to revert to the first idea that a general election will come in November.

It seems almost impossible that the point of dissolution can be reached in such a short time, but the Spectator says that the Outlook warns the Unionists against a sudden dissolution.
 The Saturday Review admits that it appears absurd, but says that if the Government thinks the psychological moment has come, then dissolution will occur in November.

In the Background.

Speculation on these points and in-

SMUGGLING SCHEME

Berlin, Oct. 11.—The Lokalanzeiger reports the sensational arrest of a German engineer and the confiscation of his bank books and of a quantity of uncut diamonds found in his possession.
 It is alleged that the engineer a long time ago leased extensive lands in Southwest Africa to farm them with four or five comrades. On part of the land it is said he discovered diamonds of a size varying up to three carats.

Quitted Operations.

Without informing the authorities the party worked diamond deposits for several weeks, and then quitted operations, removing all traces, while the engineer went to Europe to sell the stones. He sold the greater part of the diamonds in the principal European diamond centres, and finally reached Germany to sell the remainder. When the Colonial Office heard of the affair by chance, the engineer had a deposit of 200,000 marks in German banks, the result of the sale of the stones, and about a thousand uncut diamonds, worth 60,000 marks in his possession.

After tracing the engineer from town to town, the German police arrested him in Berlin a few days ago.
 Large telegraphic and mail correspondence with his partners was seiz- ed, from which it appeared that he intended to form a company to exploit his finds.

The Government have telegraphed to the Windhoek authorities to locate the deposits in question.

A Diamond Expert.

The arrested engineer, says another report, is a young Berliner named George Heim, who in October, 1908, was engaged as a diamond expert by the "Kolonial Bergbau Gesellschaft," and sent to Leuderitzbucht to act as prospector and valuer of the company's diamond fields. During the eight months that he acted for the company Heim, with the aid of accomplices, is alleged to have smuggled 200,000 marks worth of diamonds to Germany, mixing the stones in soft cement, which was afterwards allowed to harden, thereby deceiving the customs.

Heim returned to Germany last May, and sold the stones at Dresden, Leipzig, Hamburg and Breslau, where he did much good business that he contracted for future purchases. When the original supply of stones was exhausted Heim sent his accomplices money for more, which were also smuggled to Germany in cement.

Planning Another Coup.

The Morgenpost says that the correspondence seized shows that Heim was planning another big coup. He is said to have discovered large diamond fields in the southern part of Southwest Africa, near Cape Colony, which, however, Heim agreed with his accomplices should not be worked until his (Heim's) return from Germany. Heim intended to conduct the operations and erect a secret polishing plant on the fields, so as to avoid all possible chance of detection.

By cable orders from the Colonial Office Heim's accomplices in Southwest Africa were arrested, but the authorities are much embarrassed, as they do not know the location of these rich new diamond fields. Heim's correspondence reveals nothing regarding their whereabouts, and the prisoner refuses to betray his secret. The colonial authorities are making every effort to trace the spot.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 11.—M. Lopuk-hine, the ex-convict chief, now in exile in Siberia, is being treated with consideration by the authorities, and engaged in business which, when the Assef affair shall have been forgotten, may bring him back to St.
 Petersburg a wealthy man.
 He is said to have acquired platinum mines, and to be planning the organization of a banking concern, being allowed all the freedom of a military prisoner on parole.
 M. Lopukhine has the active and practical support of a powerful Moscow financier, who owes to him the life of his son. When M. Lopukhine directed the department of police the young man in question, who was then a student, was discovered to be mixed up with the revolutionaries, and a warrant for his arrest was issued. Had the arrest been effected, there is little doubt that a court martial would have pronounced sentence of death, but the police chief sent the father a warning, and the son was able to escape from the country.
 The financier in his gratitude, promised to help M. Lopukhine in whatever way might be able to do so, and is now fulfilling his word.

More Toes.

Moncton, Oct. 11.—The find of two toes adds more to the foot mystery at Gorge near Moncton. Chief Rideout visited the place where the foot was found and after searching for a few moments found two toes. It is thought that these members fell from the foot when it was picked up. There were about fifteen residents of Gorge searching for other parts of the body on Saturday afternoon but with no success.
