OCTOBER WEDDINGS

Roy-Berton.
St. John's (Stone) church was the scene of a wedding yesterday afternoon. The bride was Miss Robina Eileen Berton daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. K. Berton, 20 Summer street, and the bridegroom George Cunningham Roy, lately of Perth, Scotland, but now manager of the Bank of New Brunswick branch in Sussex. The decorations were of berries and cedar, and most effective were the D. Arnold Fox presided at the organ. The full choir was present and Arthur Duncan sang a solo.

The bride was given away by her father, was handsomely gowned in a golden brown velvet suit with hat to match trimmed with champagne colored willow plumes. She carried a white kid prayer book, a bou-quet of white heather and a single white rose. Miss Marguerite Berton, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and wore a yellow marquisette dress over yellow silk and a cream plush hat with black velvet facing. She carried yellow chrysanthemums. Little Miss Florence Warwick, a niece of the bride made a dainty flower girl in pale blue marquisette over silk. She wore a lace Normandy cap and carried a basket of marguerites.

John Young, manager of the branch of the Bank of New Brunswick in St.
Stephen was groomsmen. The ushers were Lewis Berton, brother of the bride, and Alexander Turner, manager of the branch of the Bank of New Brunswick in Chipman. A number of guests were present and the ceremony was a most successful one and the guests were most numerous.

After the ceremony the wedding party drove to the home of the bride's parents where a tempting wedding supper was served, the dining room being decorated with rosy berries and cedar. Mr. and Mrs. Roy took the Boston train last evening for trip to American city before going to their future home in Sussex. The presents received by the young couple were of a big variety, including the eastern in which they are held.
These included all sorts of useful and beautiful articles as well as several checks for substantial amounts from the relatives of the groom in Scotland.
There was also a handsome chest full of cutlery and silverware from the friends of Mr. Roy, whose former home was in Scotland.

Oliver-McBride.
Montreal, Oct. 15.—The marriage of Miss Irene McBride, daughter of Major and Mrs. John T. McBride, to Mr. Fredrick Oliver is taking place at past five o'clock this afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, West-mount. Rev. Dr. Young officiated at the ceremony. The bride, who will be given away by her father, will wear a gown of white satin with trimmings of hand-made lace and an antique lace veil which will be fastened with a wreath of orange blossoms.
She will wear also the bridegroom's gift, a gold wrist watch and will carry a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Grace Bell will be bridesmaid and will be gowned in peach colored chiffon over satin, with purple velvet and trimmings of plumes and will carry a shower bou-quet of violets. Her gift from the bridegroom is a hand brooch. The bride will be escorted by her brother, Major McBride, cousin of the bride, and Master Jack McBride, the bride's brother. The best man will be Hugh Vallance. A reception will be held after the ceremony, and later Mr. Oliver and his bride will leave for a wedding trip to New York and Toronto. The bride will go away in dark blue cloth suit and blue velvet hat with white wings. Among out of town guests are Mr. and Mrs. James S. Harding of St.
John, an uncle and aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Peters, of St.
John.

Riley-Irvine.
St. Stephen's Presbyterian church was the scene of a happy wedding day morning when at 6:45 o'clock Miss Beatrice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.
Irvine, 12 Stanley street, was married to James N. Riley, the bride who was given away by her father, who was dressed in a travelling suit of grey, and the bridegroom, who was dressed in a suit of blue, performed the ceremony. The young couple were unattended and left by Mr. Riley, a brother of the bride, Nova Scotia, and on their return they will reside in the city. The bride, who was until recently soloist in the Male Heath Chorus of P. B. I. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H.
Sampson, of St. George's church, Carleton. The bride looked charming in a gown of cream lace over silk.
She was given away by her brother, the groom was escorted by his brother, who was dressed in a suit of blue. The ceremony was most successful and the guests were most numerous.

Carmony-Redd.
A very pretty wedding took place on Monday evening last at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Redd of Lancaster, St.
John, when the third daughter, Miss Georgia, was united in marriage with Heath Carmony of P. B. I. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H.
Sampson, of St. George's church,
in a gown of cream lace over silk.
brother, who was dressed in a suit of
blue. The ceremony was most suc-
numerous.

Walker-Anderson.
A pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at the residence of S. B. Polking, 125 Duke street, when Dorothy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Rietta E. Anderson, both of Waterford, Kings county, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. McKelgan, pastor of St. David's church. The couple were unattended. They will take up their residence in Sussex.

Hartt-Wheaton.
Presque Isle, Oct. 15.—Miss Bertha Wheaton, of St. John, N. B., was united in marriage to David B. Hartt, of New Brunswick, Monday, Oct. 14.
The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. A. D. Paul at the Free Baptist parsonage at 10 o'clock in the forenoon. The bride was dressed in a handsome travelling suit. They left on the noon train for a trip through the provinces, and will return to live

Until I Used "Fruit-a-Lives" World's Greatest Kidney Cure

Practically everybody in Toronto knows Prof. J. F. Davis. For years, the allo of that city has taken lessons from Prof. Davis in the art of Dancing and Deportment.
His constant activity gradually weakened his kidneys, which calamity threatened to make him an invalid.
But read Prof. Davis' letter—543 Church St., Toronto, Ont.
December 29th, 1911.
"I want to say that 'Fruit-a-lives' is my only medicine, and has been for the past five years. Previous to that I had been troubled with Rheumatism and Kidney trouble, and had taken many remedies without satisfactory results. Noticing the advertisements of 'Fruit-a-lives' I adopted this treatment, and in a very short time, as everyone knows, I am now—and have been since taking 'Fruit-a-lives'—enjoying the best of health."

J. F. DAVIS.
If Rheumatism or Kidney Trouble is making you miserable, take 'Fruit-
