KING'S CO, MEN WHO HAVE JOINED 88TH

Whitehead, Kings Co., Oct. 11.—On Friday night at the home of Mr. Wm. J. Haslett, Hazel Brook Farm, took place a very agreeable surprise party and dance, there being present upwards of 150 people. Mr. Wm. J. Haslett called on Mr. John T. Nuttall to make the presentation of wrist watches and fountain pens to Ernest H. Haslett and Roland A. Haslett, who enlisted in the 88th Battalion for overseas service. Hagersville, Ont., Aug. 26th, 1913.

"About two years ago I found my health in a very bad state. My Kidneys were not doing their work and I was all run down in condition. Having seen Fruits-tives' advertised I decided to try them. Their action was mild, and the result all that could be expected.

My Kidneys resumed their normal action after I had taken upwards of a dozen boxes and I regained my old-time vitality. Today, I am as well as ever."

J. W. Andrews, employed by Robertson, Foster & Smith, was fined $10 in the Police Court yesterday for selling a revolver to Victor Cobham, a boy, who had been sent by the police for the purpose of making the purchase. H. F. Puddington, who appeared for the firm, protested that they were ignorant of the law, and he would undertake to see that no firearms of this description were sold in the fure.  Commissioner McLellan demanded that the maximum penalty be imposed not on the young man who made the sale, but on the firm who employed him.	As many of the boys and girls who read the Children's Corner each week are continually asking for a contest in which they may be allowed to write an essay, or story, I have decided to let you have same.  Write an essay or story about any subject you wish, such as "A trip in a submarine," "How I spent my holidays," or any other subject you think of.  Use only one side of the paper, and enclose with your attempt ONE coupon only. All essays must reach this office by Wednesday, October 20th.  To the boy or girl who sends me in what i think is the best writen essay. I shall award a BEAUTIFUL WATCH, or any other prize of a similar nature you may prefer. I shall also publish the winner's story. The magistrate stated that under the old law the fine had been $50 for selling to a minor, but the new law provides for a fine of $100 for the sale of a revolver to any person without such person having a proper permit. Commissioner McLellan said the department had gone to a good deal of trouble and expense in working up a case and their efforts went for nought if a fine was not imposed, and he was in favor of the maximum penalty being imposed.  The magistrate differed from the commissioner, and fined Andrews $10. He wished it to be distinctly understood, however, that this did not establish a precedent, and any per-	STANDARD COMPETITION.
