QUEBEC GRITS HOT ATTACK CONSCRIPTION

Young Liberals of Montreal
Make Heated Statements
at Mass Meeting.

PARTIZANS TALK MUCH TOMMY-ROT

One and All French-Canadian Liberals Rely on Laurier to Save Their Skins.

Montreal, May 21.—"Borden is taking your sons by force and sending them away to be killed. We have done well by sending four hundred thousand soldiers to the front, all of whom have gone of their own good will, but for my part I do not want my sons sent to fight by a partisan government when England has a national government in power," said Mr. Charles Query yesterday afternoon at a meeting at St. Anne de Bellevue, called by the Young Men's Liberal Association of Montreal. The meeting was in the interest of Mr. David Lafortune, M. P. for Montreal, who is the Liberal candidate in the county of Jacques Cartier. The speakers were laboring under disadvantage, owing to the fact that no direction had come from Ottawa, for while Mr. Lafortune, and the other speakers, were against conscription, they took care to say that they were speaking for themselves alone.

It was practically a young men's smothering, each one of whom gave an explanation as to why Quebec had not done better and the audience was anti-conscription from the start. The chair was taken by Mayor Daoust, of the town of Ste. Anne, who introduced the several speakers, the first being Mr. J. S. A. Ashby, M. J. A. for Jacques Cartier, who discussed local issues.

Mr. A. De Bellevue spoke long and earnestly, declaring that just as sure as Joffre was the victor of the Marne, David Lafortune would be the victor of Jacques Cartier. He said the embrace of Sir Wilfrid Laurier was so great that the Conservatives were obliged to admit the fact, but generally speaking, these Tory eulogies of their opponents came after the latter were beaten.

Mr. I. Vautrin, president of the association, said that his dream was to give a good political education to his young compatriots, for had this been done in time, the disaster of 1911 would not have taken place. He scented danger ahead for the minority in the English provinces and repudiated the charge that Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his friends sought to make political capital out of the Lapointe motion. Speaking of conscription, Mr. Vautrin evidently spoke for his club and his young friends, in saying that Sir Robert Borden, without the consent of Parliament, promised to send half a million men and as for his conscription measure this is a free country and the government had no right to bring in a conscription without authority from the people. In fact, Sir Wilfrid Laurier had already told Sir Robert that he was going too far. He did not believe they should support any system of conscription before finding out what system was to be employed. "For one," he declared, "have no confidence in conscription from such a cabinet as the one now in power."

Mr. Charles Query launched into a discussion of conscription, declaring that while he saw with pride four hundred thousand Canadians going freely to the front, he objected to Sir Robert Borden taking their sons by force and sending them away to be killed. He believed that Dr. Pugsley was right in declaring that he did not feel like giving his sons to a partisan government. England, Mr. Query added, had a radical at the head of her ministry. Canada's government had no care for the dying soldiers at the front, their chief ambition was to remain in power. They want, he said, to stay in power to protect their friends, the manufacturers, and the great trusts, while the people of the Dominion bear the load. He also wanted a commission to look into the cost of living and, returning to the great question of the hour, the speaker said the government had no mandate to impose conscription, consequently an election should be held. He, however, advised the people to keep calm. There would be a caucus and in due time the old chieftain would give them the right direction in this matter of conscription, as he had so often wisely advised them in many other matters affecting the party and the country.

Mr. Emilie Mascotte followed in a spirited address and wanted it understood that no one was bound by his words, but personally he was against conscription first, last, and always. A man who tilled the soil and made munitions was just as much of a hero as the one who fought in the trenches, hence he was for the man who remained at home working for the soldiers in the firing line. The people might approve of the sending of half a million men and then they might not. Mr. Mascotte respected those who offered up their lives for their country and he claimed that those who did not want to go were deserving of the same respect. One thing, he said, was certain, the government had no right to take a man by force and send him away to be killed, a sentiment which appeared to meet the views of those present.

Mr. D. A. Lafortune, M. P., the last

London, May 23.—"Last night the enemy again heavily bombarded our positions on the Hindenburg line in today's official statement. 'Our artillery replied vigorously. No hostile attack developed. We made a successful raid early this morning south-east of Gavrelle. A number of Germans were killed without any casualties among our troops.'"

GENERAL DEBILITY

General debility is a term used to describe a weak and run down condition of the system. Debility may come from a number of causes. The after-effects of acute illness, lack of nourishment due to poor digestion, overwork or worry, or anything that makes the blood thin, thereby preventing it from carrying nourishment and health to the tissues of the body. The symptoms of debility vary, but weakness is always present, often a tendency to be easily fatigued, spots passing before the eyes, weak back, dizziness, wakefulness caused by inability to stop thinking, and unrefreshing sleep.

Debility is dangerous because it weakens the body's defence against disease. For instance debilitated people take cold easily and changeable weather is always trying for them. When you are in this condition it is dangerous to neglect yourself. Your system needs building up and no time should be lost in taking the proper treatment.

The treatment of such a run-down condition with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is based on sound medical principles and common sense. These pills actually build up the blood so that it nourishes every part of the body—the nerves as well as the muscles—and brings vigor, strength and health. If you are feeling at all weak, if you do not feel that your health is at its best you should begin curing yourself at once with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You can obtain these pills through any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

speaker, was very cautious, and while expressing himself against conscription before the government was sure that the people would it, he said he had as yet received no intimation as to his leader's decision, which, without doubt, he reached at a party caucus to be held in the near future. He referred to the idea of a national government, expressing the belief that it would be unwise for a partisan government like the one in power at Ottawa imposing enlistment by force. He eloquently described the sending of 400,000 men to fight for liberty on the plains of France and Flanders and believed that patriotism and justice would finally prevail.

WOMEN'S AILMENTS Come From The Heart And Nerves.

Young girls budding into womanhood who suffer with pains and headaches, and whose face is pale and blood watery, will find Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills build them up.

Women, between the ages of 40 and 50, who are nervous, subject to hot flashes, feeling of pins and needles, smothering feelings, shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart, etc., are tired over this trying time of their life by the use of this remedy. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have a wonderful effect on a woman's system, making pains and aches vanish, bringing color to the pale cheek and sparkle to the eye.

The old, worn out, tired out, languid feelings give place to strength and vitality, and life again seems like living. Mrs. Alfred Winter, Castor, Alta., writes: "I would like every woman who is suffering from nerves or heart trouble to know how much Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have helped me. For two years I kept a hired girl, and was doctoring all the time. After having taken four boxes of your pills I am able to do all my own work. I would especially recommend them to women between 40 and 50, as at that time they are more liable to be far from well. One of my neighbors knows how they helped me, and she is now using them."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c, or three boxes for $1.35, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by THE T. MILBURN CO., LIMITED, Toronto, Ont.

CARTER CROWD STRIKES AGAIN AT THE SOLDIER

Carleton County Man with Three Sons at Front Dismissed to Make Room for Carter-Carvell Heeler.

Special to The Standard.

Woodstock, N. B., May 23.—The Carter government which voted down a resolution favoring recognition to returned soldiers in government appointments is certainly running true to form in Carleton county at least. It will be remembered that shortly after the recent provincial election F. B. Carvell approached D. W. Jackson, the provincial bridge superintendent, and, by virtue of the power vested in him by one John Farley, ordered Mr. Jackson to stop certain repairs then being made to the Woodstock highway bridge adding to it the proviso that if he didn't he wouldn't get a cent, or even "a d— cent."

Mr. Jackson, however, refused to be bullied and continued work as if the king had not spoken, but now Mr. Carvell has his sweet revenge and the people of Carleton county are given to understand that he is "king," the "boss of the job," and the great and original "it." Mr. Jackson has been dismissed by the Carter government and great is the rejoicing in the Carvell camp.

It is no doubt an added source of pleasure to the Carter aggregation at Fredericton to know that Mr. Jackson is past the military age but has two sons fighting the battles of the Empire and a third son has already given his life in the great struggle for human freedom.

Under these circumstances it must have been a soul-satisfying performance to the government to dismiss Mr. Jackson and appoint a man of military age, and Mr. Carvell is no doubt preparing another attack on the Canadian militia and that undesirable man called French.

Long live the Carter administration and down with the militia. Hit 'em again, Messrs. Carvell and Carter—they've got no friends.

London, May 23.—A Central News despatch from Amsterdam says that the Hungarian cabinet of which Count Tiza was premier, has resigned.

Count Tiza, the "iron man" of Austria-Hungary, has been for many years the leader of the pro-German party in the Dual Monarchy and was the last survivor of a little group of statesmen who surrounded Emperor Francis Joseph when the European war began. On the accession of Emperor Charles, the majority of the officials of the previous regime were either dismissed or resigned.

New York, May 23.—Hudson Maxim announces that he has invented and perfected a device which will make ships immune from the dangers of the submarine. He said that torpedoes even when fired at close range on striking their target would explode harmlessly against the hulls of the intended victims.

"The invention is practical for every type of vessel," he said. "It can be applied within a few months at a comparatively cheap price to the hulls of ships already constructed. The only
