POOR DOCUMENT

MC 2033

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, April 9.—Senator Domville came home from Ottawa on Saturday.

Miss Nan Fairweather reached home last Thursday, after an absence of about six months, the greater part of that time having been spent with Mr. and Mrs. Mowat and family at Enderby, B. C.

Mr. C. H. Lee, of St. John, spent Sunday in Rothesay, dining at the Kennedy House.

Miss Ada Bayard spent part of this week with the Misses Robertson, "The Cottage."

Mr. Blanchette, of Edmundston, has rented a cottage in the park for the coming summer.

Mr. John Guest, who spent ten days here a guest of Mr. W. E. Thomson, left on Saturday for his home in Vermont.

Miss Louise Fairweather and Miss H. Thomson have been appointed delegates to the W. A. convention to be held in St. John on the 28th, 29th and 30th ult.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Allison drove out from the city on Sunday and had dinner at the Kennedy House with Mrs. and Miss Puddington.

The sewing society were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Wilrich last Friday afternoon.

Miss Nan Brock is expected home from New York shortly, and in May expects to take a trip to England.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Earle were guests of Senator and Mrs. Domville over Sunday.

Miss Grace Robertson is home from a visit to Halifax.

Mr. George Trites leaves here on Friday for New York to meet Mrs. Trites, who has spent the winter with her sister, Mrs. John A. Calhoun in Savannah. Mr. and Mrs. Trites are expected home in about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Eustace Barnes, of St. John, and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnes, of Boston, made a short visit to Rothesay friends yesterday.

Miss Hilda Wilrich is planning to entertain some of her young friends on Saturday evening.

Miss Edith Gilbert left this week on a visit to friends in Boston.

Miss Paddock, of Kingston, is guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Robertson.

Mrs. H. C. Tilley is spending today with Mrs. Rupert Turnbull.

Mrs. Wetmore Merritt and Mrs. Fred Peters were guests yesterday of Mrs. Thomas Bell.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, April 8.—Mrs. B. H. Torrens was on Friday afternoon the hostess at a pleasant five o'clock tea and was assisted in receiving her friends by Mrs. Wascott Torrens. In the tea room, Mrs. Edwards and Mrs. Harold Babbitt presided at table, Miss Weddall, Miss Bridget Sampson, Miss Coulthard, Miss Kitty Edwards and Miss Kathleen Hatt assisted.

Mrs. J. W. Bridges returned last week from a visit of six weeks at Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Slipp were among the visitors to St. John this week.

Miss Helen Randolph is home from Toronto for the Easter holidays.

Mrs. John Black has returned from a visit to Boston.

Dr. and Mrs. Steeves and Miss Valerie Steeves have returned from St. John, where they went to attend the marriage of Mrs. Steeves' sister, Mrs. Scovil, to Mr. W. E. Raymond.

SACKVILLE.

Sackville, April 8—Mrs. W. J. Wry has returned to her home in Middle Sackville after an extended visit in the United States.

The Sophomore class of Mount Allison University gave a supper in the residence on Friday evening in honor of Messrs. R. W. Adrian, R. E. McAfee, F. S. Small, A. W. Smith, and Ira T. Davis, the graduates of the engineering class and Messrs. A. R. Reynolds and J. S. Astbury, who were on the debating team which recently defeated King's College team here.

The first graduating recital of the year was held in Beethoven Hall last Friday evening, when Miss Ella W. James, of Sackville, and Miss Georgina E. Melanson, of Joggins, pianists, gave a very successful concert. They were assisted by Miss Elizabeth Anderson, vocalist, and Miss Florence Robb, violinist. A large audience was present and applause was hearty and appreciative.

The entertainment on Tuesday night, under the auspices of the Mission Circle, was a very enjoyable affair. The president of the Circle, Miss Violet Knapp, occupied the chair. Papers on the Life and Work of Mary Reed, the missionary to the lepers of India, were read by Miss Lucas, Miss Crane, Miss Fillmore and Miss Mabel Dixon. The musical part of the programme was very acceptably rendered and consisted of a solo by Miss Wright, also a duet by Miss Tingley and Miss Lucas. A social hour in which refreshments were served brought the pleasant evening to a close.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Tower are attending the funeral today of Mrs. Willard Tower, West Sackville.

Mr. George Fullerton, of Half-Way River (N. S.), spent Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Bliss Fawcett, Upper Sackville.

Mrs. C. W. Robinson, Moncton, spent Sunday in Point de Bute, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McLeod. On Monday Mrs. Robinson was the guest here of Mr. and Mrs. William Ogden.

Mrs. William Wood of Nappan formerly Miss Lila Barnes of Upper Sackville, presented her husband recently with a baby boy.

Mr. Walter Fowler, who has been very ill, is convalescent.

Mrs. Andrews entertained her friends at a tea party on Tuesday evening.

Miss Ethel Barnes of Upper Sackville, returned this week from a pleasant visit to Nappan.

Miss Lily Crane of Boston, who came to Sackville a few months ago to recuperate, and who is a guest of her sister, Mrs. F. Bell, is at present in very poor health.

The marriage of Miss Eva Card, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Card, Pringle street, and Mr. Fletcher Cousins, both of Sackville, was solemnized on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Baptist Parsonage, Rev. Mr. McNeill officiating. The happy couple will reside in Sackville.

Mrs. Willard Tower died at her home in West Sackville on Sunday morning of measles. Deceased leaves a husband and five children to mourn their loss.

Miss Greta Ogden is in Moncton, the guest of Mrs. C. W. Robinson.

Miss Alice McHaffey of Boston is visiting her parents Capt. and Mrs. McHaffey, York street.

Mrs. Chisley Wells left on Saturday for Riverside, Albert Co., where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Trueman.

The annual missionary mite box opening was held at the home of Mrs. H. Pickard, Squire street, on Tuesday afternoon. Afternoon tea was served.

Mr. Wesley Wheaton of Upper Sackville returned from the Royal Victoria hospital Montreal, last week, after about three months' absence from home. Mr. Wheaton's many friends are pleased to know of the great improvement in his health.

Mrs. Bedford Harper of Middle Sackville, left on Saturday for Baie Verte to visit her father, Mr. E. C. Goodwin, who is very critically ill. Mrs. Goodwin is also confined to her bed through illness.

JUSTINA.

CHATHAM

Chatham, N. B., April 9—Bishop Richardson and Rev. G. Fred Scovil conducted a very successful mission at St. Mary's chapel-of-ease last week. All the services were largely attended and much interest was taken in the mission.

Mr. Richard Hocken is seriously ill at his home here, and his son, Dick, has been called home from Fredericton on that account.

The curling club held its final meeting of the season Thursday evening, when the trophies were presented to the successful curlers.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Logie was visited by the stork on Saturday; a son.

Mr. J. J. McGaffigan, of St. John, was among those from outside points who were present at Fr. Morrisey's funeral on Thursday.

Favorable news has been received as to the condition of Mr. Thomas Flanagan, who is ill in Montreal.

Mrs. Geoffery Stead leaves on Friday for Toronto, where she will visit her mother, Mrs. Joyce, for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Knight have moved into Mrs. M. S. Salter's house on upper Water street.

Very general regret was expressed at the death of Mrs. Donald MacLachlan, which occurred Monday morning. Mrs. MacLachlan was 77 years of age and leaves three children—Mrs. A. H. Marquis, Mr. D. P. MacLachlan, mayor of Chatham, and Mr. William MacLachlan. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon from her late residence, at 3 o'clock, and was very largely attended. Rev. George Wood and Rev. Duncan Henderson officiated.

Miss Charlotte Shorey is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. H. Wing, Wellington street.

Mr. Frank Harrison, of England, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Neale, Bilstone.

Mrs. George E. Day went to St. John last week.

A very enjoyable skating party was held on Monday evening, when a number of young people prevailed on the management to open the rink for one more night.

THE BORDER TOWNS.

St. Stephen, April 8.—Society has been rather quiet this week except among the younger set. On Monday evening Mrs. William F. Todd gave a bridge party for the pleasure of her daughter, Miss Mildred Todd, who is spending a short holiday at her home in St. Stephen. Miss Todd leaves tonight for Andover, Mass., to resume her studies at Abbot Academy.

A leap year ball was given in Red Men's Hall, Calais, last Friday evening by the young ladies of the Thirteenth club, which was greatly enjoyed by all who were guests.

Mrs. W. McK. Deinstadt and Miss Edith Deinstadt have been visiting St. John during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Marks Mills arrived home from Ottawa on Saturday.

The Thistle Athletic club are arranging to give a three days' entertainment to begin on Tuesday evening, April 21st, with a play entitled "Bar Haven." The following ladies and gentlemen take part in the play:

Captain Hopper.....Mr. Herbert Maxwell
Gideon Graham ....Mr. J. S. Lord
Leo Bradley ....Mr. Harry Patterson
Hardy Stone ....Mr. Earle Hyslop
Rev. John Wesley Wiggins
Mr. Frank Fraser
Cyrus Brackett .... Mr. Fred Botz
Mrs. Wardell ....Miss Ceila Clarke
Kate Wardell ....Miss Lelia McVey
Florence Wardell ....Miss Edith Stevens
Spray Hopper ....Miss Agnes Dustan
Arbella Wortendyke
Miss Florence Newnham

On Wednesday evening, April 22nd, there will be a Musicale in which the best talent on the St. Croix will take part, and on Thursday evening the entertainments will finish with a mock trial.

The T. A. A. club are making great exertions that the affair will be successful.

Mrs. Harry Budd gave a German whist party at her home last Friday evening for the pleasure of her sister Elsie and twelve young lady friends. The prizes were won by Misses Phyllis Waterson and Marion Murray.

Miss Jennie Kennedy, of St. Andrews, returned to her home this morning after a pleasant visit with her friends, the Misses Mary and Eleanor Short.

Mrs. Albert E. Neill is in New York city, the guest of Mrs. Bradley Eaton.

Mrs. Frank Tucker, of Boston, is in Calais visiting her sister, Mrs. Ralph T. Horton.

Mrs. Frank P. Woods came from Boston to spend a few days in Calais with Mrs. Wilfred L. Eaton, and is most cordially welcomed by hosts of friends in the border towns.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving R. Todd have been visiting Boston.

Mrs. Augustus Cameron left this evening for Boston to spend a few days with friends.

Mrs. W. A. Pike is visiting friends in Bangor for a few weeks.

Mr. Laurence Woods is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Woods in Calais.

Miss Marion Curran, who has spent the winter in Boston, is again at home.

Ven. Archdeacon Newnham went to St. John yesterday for a brief visit.

A very happy idea suggested itself to a number of ladies a few days ago. When at a party the conversation touched on wedding anniversaries, it was remembered that Mr. and Mrs. Josephus Murchie, who now reside in an isolated gold mining district, in a mountainous region in Colorado, would, on April nineteenth, celebrate their fortieth anniversary of their wedding day. It was suggested that a box, containing forty gifts, from forty friends should be sent to give them a happy surprise on that day. Mrs. W. F. Todd and Mrs. Seth T. Whitney, took the idea in hand, and with their usual energy soon collected a host of pretty trifles, that on Tuesday were hastened on their way that they might arrive in Colorado on the 19th to brighten the day and bring to their remembrance in their far off home memories of many friends and relatives on the St. Croix.

Miss McLaughlan, who has been Miss Edith Steven's guest, has returned to her home in St. John.

Miss Jessie Dyer, of Elmsville, is visiting in town this week.

Mrs. Howard McAllister is expected to arrive from England at an early date, and will spend the summer with friends in Milltown. Mrs. McAllister has hosts of friends who will give her a most cordial welcome on her return to the St. Groix.

ST. ANDREWS.

St. Andrews, April 9.—Mrs. C. S. Field is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Welsh, at Leonardville, Deer Island.

Miss Alice O'Halloran has been with her parents for some weeks and returned to Boston (Mass.) on Thursday to take up her work again as a private nurse.

Mr. Arthur Gove, who has been doing telegraph duty at Presque Isle (Me.) since Christmas, is enjoying a two weeks' vacation at present with Dr. and Mrs. Harry Gove.

Mrs. Fred G. Andrews returned from Woodstock on Thursday, where she has been visiting friends for a few weeks.

Mrs. Frank P. Barnard returned from St. John (N. B.) on Saturday, where she has been enjoying a visit with Mrs. George Cooper, Duke street.

Mrs. M. B. Drew, who has been visiting Mrs. Harry Maloney, has returned to her home in New Hampshire.

Mrs. John P. Treadwell is still confined to her bed, but there is noticeable improvement in her condition.

Mrs. John S. Maloney has returned from a visit to friends in Fort Fairfield (Me.), also in Woodstock.

Mr. Allerton, manager of the Algonquin hotel, has returned, which makes one really think summer is coming, although we have an occasional snow storm.

Mrs. Moses Greenlaw of Rox Road is visiting with Mrs. T. A. Hartt and other relatives in town.

Mr. Babbitt, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, has rented the new house owned by Mr. John Fryer, and will occupy it very shortly.

Miss Bertha Toal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Toal, was married this morning at 11:30 to Mr. Gladstone Smith of Deer Island, the Rev. W. Wilson Lodge performing the ceremony at the Methodist parsonage. Miss Toal is one of St. Andrews most popular young ladies, and the good wishes of her many friends go out to her in her married life and trust it will be a very happy life.

Mrs. Atwood Richardson of New York City is the guest of Mrs. N. M. Clarke for a few days this week.

Mrs. Jennie Clarke entertained a number of her friends at bridge on Tuesday evening last.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Donahue have a baby boy in their home today, and congratulations are pouring in as a natural consequence.

Mrs. R. E. Armstrong entertained the members of the Presbyterian Sewing Society on Monday evening.

Miss Laura Shaw contributed a piano solo to the musical part of the programme for the Canadian Literature Club on Tuesday evening last. Mrs. Augustus Rigby accompanied the singers on the piano in the rendering of their selections.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wood of Winnipeg, Man., are expected to arrive here on Saturday and will be the guests of Mrs. C. M. Gove.

Miss Nettie Miller has finished a course of commercial training at a St. John, N. B., business college, and returned on Tuesday for a vacation before entering on work.

Miss Lotty Hartt was hostess to a few friends on Tuesday evening. Dancing was indulged in.

Mrs. Goodwill Douglas gave a very pleasant party on Wednesday evening to a number of friends. Needless to say the party was a success in every way, as Mrs. Douglas is an admirable hostess.

Miss Jennie Horswell has accepted a position in St. John, N. B. Miss Horswell is to be congratulated on securing a position so soon after finishing a course at business college in the city.

An entertainment was held in Stevenson's hall for the enjoyment of a very large number of persons on Wednesday evening of this week. Captain O. Clarke kindly gave a number of selections from his phonograph, (which is one of the best manufactured), and Mr. Tenna of Chamcook, assisted him. The music was very pleasant to listen to. Miss Winifred Maloney sang "Little Doris," and Miss Eva L. Stoop gave a recitation, "Kentucky Philosophy." The friends assembled sang choruses in a hearty manner, accompanied by Mrs. N. M. Clarke on piano. The young people remained for a time after the entertainment, and enjoyed a jolly dance. Miss Lotty Hartt and Miss Minerva Hibbard, on piano, with Dr. Fred. Worrel, on violin, gave excellent music for dancing. The evening was much enjoyed by all who braved the prevailing snowstorm to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gardiner are being congratulated on the arrival of a baby grand-daughter in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Nesbit in Montreal.

The Canadian Literature Club held its last meeting for the season at the residence of Mrs. Kerr. The meeting was largely attended and was very interesting. Those taking part in the way of papers concerning the subject, "Literary products of Canada's Great West," were, Mrs. A. W. Mahon, Miss Margaret Kerr, Miss Laura Shaw, Rev. A. W. Mahon, Mr. R. E. Armstrong. The musical part of the programme was very good and very enjoyable. Miss Johnson contributed a solo, Miss Gardiner and Mrs. Bert Rigby a duet, Mrs. C. S. Everitt and Mrs. Angus Rigby a duet, a quartette by Messrs. Bert and Augustus Rigby, and Mrs. C. S. Everitt and Mrs. A. Rigby. Mr. Thomas Armstrong gave some fine violin selections, accompanied by Mrs. Frank P. Barnard on the piano. Refreshments of the most dainty kinds were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

HAMPTON

Hampton, Kings Co., April 9—Miss Mabel Scovil entertained a thimble party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Scovil, on Saturday afternoon. It was greatly enjoyed.

Mr. Geo. N. McIntyre, of Springfield, spent Monday at the shire town of Kings.

Miss Lizzie McManus, of Hampton Station, was taken very ill last week at the home of Mrs. E. S. Campbell, Main street. She has improved somewhat.

Mr. James W. Smith has sufficiently recovered from his recent illness to be about the house again.

Miss Minnie Travis, professional nurse, left on Saturday for St. John, to leave on the steamer Calvin Austin for Boston, to take a much needed rest for a few weeks. She was accompanied to the city by Mrs. F. A. Young.

Mr. F. A. Young arrived home from Sydney on Tuesday evening, and left again for Fredericton and other up-river places on Wednesday.

Mr. Ormond W. Wetmore, of Kingston, spent Monday at Hampton station, on county business.

Messrs. C. H. McDonald and E. H. Bowman, of St. John, were guests of Miss Annie Cochrane, on Tuesday.

Mrs. N. M. Barnes has returned to her home at Linden Heights, from St. John, where she spent the past week.

Miss Hattie L. Barnes, professional nurse, has gone to Sussex for a season.

Mrs. W. O. Stewart is gradually improving after her recent illness, much to the pleasure of her relatives and friends.

Miss Mona McMann, of Brookville, is a guest of Miss Mabel Scovil.

Miss Peabody has returned to her home at Princeton, Me., after a very enjoyable visit of a few weeks with friends here.

The Literary Club met at the home of Mrs. F. M. Humphrey, on Tuesday evening. The attendance was large. The leader, Rev. G. A. Ross, put the class through a drill on past studies, and then read Browning's "Saul," with critical notes on the two characters represented. Other readings were "Evelyn Hope," and "The Boy and the Angel." Miss Travis' paper on "Browning's Relations with Shelley" was read by Mrs. R. A. March, in the absence of the writer.

MONCTON.

Moncton, April 9.—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Hutchinson, of Richibucto, spent Sunday with friends in town.

Mr. W. B. McKenzie is spending a few days in New York.

Mr. A. J. Perks, of the Royal Bank staff, has been transferred to Montreal, and left for that city on Monday evening. Before his departure he was entertained at supper by a number of his friends.

Miss Winnie Craig is in Newcastle, the guest of Mrs. Christopher Craig.

Mr. and Mrs. H. McDougall have returned from the southern states, where they were spending the winter. Mr. McDougall's health is much improved.

Mrs. Edgar McKie is spending a few days with relatives in Salisbury.

Miss Maud Daley, of St. John, is the guest of Miss Bertie Berry.

Miss Kathleen McLatchy spent Sunday with friends in Hillsboro.

Mrs. H. A. Taylor spent part of the week in St. John.

Mr. Frank Bezanson of Sydney is in town for a few days.

Mrs. F. Keith and Mrs. Brown are visiting in Hillsboro, the guests of Mrs. Robert Slater.

Rev. D. MacOdrum spent the early part of the week in St. John.

Mrs. Z. Fash and daughter have returned to Hillsboro after a pleasant visit with friends in town.

Mrs. A. D. Richard of Dorchester is the guest of friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Ward of Sackville spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Sumner.

Mrs. E. A. Harris entertained at a small bridge on Tuesday afternoon. Among those present were: Mrs. David Pottinger, Mrs. Shannon, Mrs. Somers, Mrs. F. A. Jones, Miss A. White, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Green.

SUSSEX.

Sussex, N. B., B., April 9.—Miss Carrie Roach entertained the Whist Club on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Joseph Howe entertained the Art Club on Thursday last. Mrs. G. W. Sherwood entertained them this afternoon.

Mrs. Arthur Keith entertained a number of her friends on Saturday evening. The evening was very pleasantly spent.

Mrs. H. H. Dryden is spending a few days in St. John this week.

Mrs. T. H. Carvell is visiting her mother in St. John.

Mayor and Mrs. Mills are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son.

Dr. Jasper and Mrs. Sproul of Chatham, Dr. Heber and Mrs. Sproul of Newcastle, Dr. Beverley and Mrs. Sproul of Campbellton, and Dr. Jack and Mrs. McNichol, of Bathurst, were in Sussex Friday and Saturday attending the golden wedding of their parents, Conductor John and Mrs. Sproul. The celebration was a quiet one. All members of the family were present, and presented to Mr. and Mrs. Sproul a purse of gold. Many friends sent remembrances and congratulations. In the evening the party and a number of friends met at the home of Mrs. Geo. H. Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sproul, where a very pleasant evening was spent. The Sussex orchestra, of which Mr. Warren is leader, played an excellent programme. Refreshments were served. All wished Mr. and Mrs. Sproul many more years of happiness and prosperity.

Mr. Gunn of St. John is spending the week here with his son, Percy P. Gunn

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Osgood entertained the E. E. E. Club on Tuesday evening This was the last meeting of the club for the season.

Mr. A. B. Maggs returned to Moncton on Monday, to resume his duties as teacher in the public school, which was closed on account of smallpox.

The Ladies' United Reading Circle met at the home of Mrs. J. E. Keith on Thursday evening.

Walter A. Sherwood left on Tuesday for Saskatoon, after spending his vacation with his parents here. Mr. Sherwood is connected with the Bank of Nova Scotia, and has been with the Saskatoon branch for more than a year.

Dr. and Mrs. Sutherland and young son, of Edmonton, Alta., are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. McAlister.

Rev. Frank Baird was in St. John this week attending a meeting of the presbytery.

Mrs. Crowell of Halifax is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Rogers.

WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, April 8.—Mrs. John McLauchlan entertained a few friends at a thimble party on last Tuesday from five to seven o'clock. Those who enjoyed the occasion were: Mrs. G. A. White, Mrs. H. D. Marr, Mrs. R. G. Fulton, Mrs. Wilmot Hay, Mrs. Fred McLean, Mrs. Benjamin Griffiths, Mrs. Alexander Henderson, Mrs. R. B. Porter, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. William Skillen, Miss Hester Hume, Mrs. C. J. Tabor, Miss B. G. Walker, Miss Kilburn.

Mrs. H. D. Marr was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. White until Wednesday when she accompanied Mr. Marr to St. John.

Mr. J. T. G. Carr, of Hartland, was in town last week.

Dr. N. R. Colter, postoffice inspector, was in town on Monday.

Mrs. J. S. Maloney returned this week to her home in St. Andrews after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Garden.

Rev. S. A. Baker visited Fredericton on Monday.

Mr. Victor Bedell, of Little Rock, Ark., arrived home this week, called by the illness of his father.

Mr. William Dibblee is convalescing after a severe attack of grippe.

Mr. Allan Bradley, of Hartland, was in town last week.

Miss Inez Burtt returned last week after a visit of two weeks with friends at Centreville and Bridgewater.

Mr. W. B. Jewett, of Houlton, was in town on Wednesday.

Dr. Ernest S. Kirkpatrick reached home last week after spending several weeks in Bermuda.

Mr. J. C. Hartley spent part of last week in Fredericton.

Mrs. William Langstroth and Master Cecil Langstroth left on Wednesday for their home in Hampton, having spent several months in town. They were accompanied by Miss Florence Langstroth who arrived from Newport a few days previously.

Mrs. L. P. Fisher and Mrs. Tompkins, who spent the winter in the south, arrived home yesterday.

Rev. G. D. Ireland left on Monday for St. John to attend the presbytery.

Dr. Green, of Centreville, was in town on Monday.

Mrs. David St. John left last week for her home in Hackensack, N. J., after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Connell.

Mrs. Fred Andrews, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Dickinson, left last week for her home in St. Andrews.

Miss Clara Carson left today for Melita, Man.

Mrs. Donald McKendrick is recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, of Florenceville, was a recent visitor in town.

Mrs. Harry Watt returned to McAdam last week after a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Watt.

ST. GEORGE.

St. George, April 8.—The choir of the Baptist church intend holding an Easter concert in the church on Easter Tuesday evening, April 21.

Mrs. J. Sutton Clark and Miss Clark were in St. John last week attending the Raymond-Scovil wedding.

The ladies of St. Mark's congregation held a meeting on Monday evening to make arrangements for their supper to be held Easter Monday evening in Coutts hall.

Mr. Frank Gillmor of Virginia, Minn., who has been spending several weeks visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eldorado Gillmor, left on Monday afternoon, accompanied by his mother, who will spend a month at his home and visiting other relatives before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Craig have returned from Northfield, Vt.

Mrs. Lawrence Murray is spending the week in St. Stephen.

Mr. Frank Hibbard left on Tuesday for Buffalo.

Pres. Belyea of the Charlotte County Weir Owners' and Weir Fishermen's Union, and Mr. George Clarke M. P. P., were in town attending a meeting of the executive this week. The annual picnic is to be held in St. George during August.

The ladies of the Baptist Sewing Club will meet this week with Mrs. Andrew Kennedy.

Dr. H. I. Taylor, M. P. P., returned from St. John on Thursday.

Mrs. A. H. Lavers of Milltown is the guest of Mrs. Edward O'Brien.

SHEDIAC.

Shediac, N. B., April 10.—Mr. W. R. Williams, who has been seriously ill, is now much improved and left on Tuesday to visit his parents, Conductor and Mrs. H. Williams of Moncton.

Miss Mabel McGowan returned to her home in Moncton on Tuesday after spending some days in town the guest of Mrs. H. W. Murray, Main street East.

Miss Lulu Pierce, of Florenceville, who has been visiting Miss Laura Dickie for some weeks past, is at present visiting her friend, Miss Minnie Tait, Elmbank.

Mrs. W. Edgett, of Moncton, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. R. Williams, for a few days last week.

Mrs. F. Smith, of Moncton, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Chas. Harper, Main street East.

Miss Nellie Henderson, of Moncton, spent Sunday in town the guest of Mrs. W. B. Deacon, Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dickie, who recently disposed of their residence and property, Main street East, to Mr. W. R. Williams, left on Wednesday of this week for Middleton, N. S., where they intend in future residing. Mr. and Mrs. Dickie and family had a very extensive circle of friends in town who very much regret their departure and wish them every success in their new home.

On Friday afternoon of last week, in honor of Mrs. Dickie, Mrs. Charles Harper entertained a number of her lady friends from 3 to 6 at her home, Main street East. Mrs. Harper was assisted in entertaining and serving during the afternoon by her daughters, the Misses Grace and Gretchen, and niece, Mrs. H. B. Steeves. An "observation table" formed a very leading feature in the afternoon's enjoyment, Mrs. James Inglis being the fortunate lady in the contest. The guests present were: Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. W. B. Deacon, Mrs. D. S. Harper, Mrs. R. C. Tait, Mrs. Inglis, Mrs. McDougall, Mrs. H. B. Steeves.

On Saturday afternoon Miss Minnie Tait entertained at her home, "Elmbank," in honor of Miss Laura Dickie, at a very enjoyable fancy work party. Miss Gertrude Evans and Miss Alice Burnyeat were among the aides. The young ladies present were: Miss Laura Dickie, Miss Lulu Pierce, Miss Bertie Murray, Miss Hazel Palmer, Miss Annie Roberts, Miss Evangeline Melanson, Miss Mabel Frier, Miss Gretchen Harper, Miss Nina Dickie.

Mrs. Dunfield, of Moncton, is spending the week with friends in town.

Miss Marie Larkin, who has been spending some months in Boston and Toronto, is at present the guest of her friend, Miss Eva Melanson, Main street East, en route to her home in Richmond, P. E. Island.

Miss Jessie Likely, of St. John, who has been visiting friends in Sackville, spent Sunday at Point du Chene, the guest of her friend, Miss Joy Charters.

Miss E. Vale, of Bathurst, arrived in Shediac on Wednesday of this week to be at the home of Mrs. E. A. Smith, "Bellevue," for some time.

Dr. C. A. Murray, of Moncton, was the guest on Sunday last of Dr. and Mrs. Harley Murray, Main street East.

Mrs. A. J. Webster, who some weeks ago met with a painful accident in the skating rink, is still confined to her home, Main street East.

Miss Joy Charters quite recently returned from spending a few days with Sackville friends.

The Misses Lena and Hilda Tait also recently were in Sackville, the guests of their sister, Miss Hazel Tait, Mt. Allison college.

Master Dean Smith, of Moncton, is spending a few weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harper.

Miss Webster, who has been spending the past winter with her sister, Mrs. F. J. White of Moncton, spent a few days in Shediac last week at the home of Mrs. A. J. Webster, Main street East.

Mrs. H. A. Scovil recently returned home from St. John, where she had been spending a month with relatives.

Mrs. Corey and Mrs. Ayer, of Petitcodiac, visited friends in town quite recently for a few days.

Mr. Garnet Newman, who spent the winter with his friends, Capt. and Mrs. J. Newman, Shediac Cape, left some time ago for Moncton to take a position in that city.

Miss Nora Allen, who returned a few weeks ago from the Moncton hospital, where she had been undergoing treatment for some time, is now much improved in health, to the great pleasure of her many town friends.

On Thursday evening of last week a very enjoyable sociable was held in the vestry of the Presbyterian church by the members of the I. O. G. T., of this town, in honor of Mrs. C. A. Dickie and her daughter, Miss Laura, members of the order. A programme consisting of reading and music, and concluding with the serving of hot refreshments was carried out during the evening and greatly enjoyed by all present.

Miss Mabel Frier recently entertained a number of her young lady friends at an enjoyable afternoon fancy work party at her home, Shediac East, in honor of Miss Laura Dickie, and her guest, Miss Lulu Pierce of Florenceville.

The Misses Grace and Gretchen Harper also recently entertained at an afternoon fancy work at their home, Main street East, in honor of Miss Laura Dickie.

Another pleasant little party was also given quite recently for Miss Dickie, previous to her departure for her new home in Nova Scotia, by Mrs. G. Cooper, when a number of Miss Dickie's young lady friends were again present.

Week before last a series of particularly delightful parties were given by Mrs. W. B. Deacon at her home, Main street, of the order of whist and fancy work, when a very large number of the ladies of the town were present.

Among other social functions taking place within the past fortnight was the enjoyable "at home" given by the Misses Evans to a large number of their lady friends at their home, Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Moore, of this town, who left in December last to spend the winter months in Dakota and other points west, have for the past few weeks been residing in the delightful city of Pasadena, Cal.

Mrs. G. R. Kinnear, who, owing to ill health, left in February for Hot Springs, N. C., is at present spending some time with friends in Valdosta, Georgia.

NEWCASTLE.

Newcastle, April 9.—Mr. and Mrs. William G. Thurber of Harcourt, were the guests on Thursday and Friday of Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Miller.

Mrs. Guptil and little daughter Maude, of Newburyport, Mass., returned home Saturday after a visit to Mrs. Guptil's mother, Mrs. Benj. Stewart.

Rev. S. H. and Mrs. Rice, of Moncton, who, for the last two months had been visiting their son, Rev. H. C. Rice here, went home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Robertson returned on Thursday from a three months' visit to their children in Everett, Mass.

Mrs. James M. Troy spent last week in Campbellton, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. E. G. McKenzie.

Mrs. Howard Williston returned on Thursday from a month's visit to Amherst, N. S.

Arthur and Miss Lennie Stewart of Maine, are visiting their father, Wm. Stewart.

G. Godin of Montreal, spent several days recently with his sister, Mrs. J. D. Paulin.

Mrs. McCullam of Tabusintac is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Stewart.

Dr. Heber Sproul was in Sussex on Friday attending the golden wedding of his parents, Conductor and Mrs. John Sproul.

Tuesday evening, some twenty of the Presbyterian ladies gave a Spinsters' Convention in the opera house, in aid of the Sunday school hall building fund, of which the proceeds were about $170.00. The entertainment was novel and very interesting, and was well patronized. Among those who took part were: Mesdames Hubbard, Shaw, Troy, John Robinson, Jr., John Russell, H. H. Pallen, D. K. Cool, Marshall Anderson, J. D. McNutt, G. G. Stothart, and J. M. Falconer; and Misses Olive Anderson, Minnie Stothart, Minnie Sweezey, Addie Stables, Jean Aitken, and Jessie Fleming. The committee in charge were Miss Davidson and Mesdames D. Morrison, Jas. A. Rundle and Wm. Watt.

A Women's Guild has been organized in connection with St. Peters church, Derby, with following officers: Mrs. Allan Barron, pres.; Miss Annie Yeo, V. P.; Miss Weldon, Sec.; Miss Ethel Flett, Treas.

Miss Maude VanBuskirk returned to Harcourt on Monday, after a few days' visit to her friend, Miss Dora B. Humphrey.

Mrs. J. Leslie McWilliam of Rexton, is spending this week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac B. Humphrey, who on Tuesday next will remove to Apohaqui, Mr. Humphrey having after nearly thirty-seven years active service on the I. C. R. been superannuated.

HARTLAND.

Hartland, N. B., April 9.—W. W. Estey of Keswick Ridge, has sold his farm and has come to Hartland to reside. He will live in the house now occupied by his father-in-law, Judson Currie.

T. J. Hurley, who sold out his store and stock of general merchandise soon after the fire last July, has again gone into business. He now keeps a grocery in Main street.

D. H. Keswick was on a business trip to St. Leonard's this week. Returning he was accompanied by Charles Cyr, M. P. P., for Madawaska, who spent a couple of days here.

The United Baptist Mission Band are preparing a concert to be given in the church on the evening of April 22.

Miss Clara Matheson, who recently returned from the New England Conservatory of Music, has decided to open a music room and take a class in piano and vocal culture.

Dudley Day, who is about to give up the management of the Exchange Hotel, has decided to remain in town and will conduct a livery stable. He had been considering going to another town to re-enter the hotel business.

After a few days' illness from pneumonia, Isaiah Sharp of Pembroke died on Tuesday, aged seventy-eight years. He was a prominent farmer.

AMHERST.

Amherst, N. S., April 9.—Mrs. W. H. Tennant is visiting friends in St. John.

Miss Cassie Lane of Mt. Allison spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss Gladys Montrose.

Miss Lizzie T. Delahunt left on Monday for Montague, P. E. I., where she has accepted a position as head milliner for J. P. Crockett & Co. Ltd.

Rev. George A. Lawson returned to his home in Halifax on Monday.

Miss Matilda Trueman of Truemanville, is spending a few days in town.

Lewis Ripley of River Herbert, spent Monday in town.

Miss Lillian Bligh of Halifax is the guest of Miss Louise Black, Rupert street.

Rev. Mr. Stewart of Pugwash was the guest of A. A. Jones on Sunday.

Rev. A. B. Dickie, moderator of the Presbyterian synod, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McLeod last week.

A very successful church social was held in St. Stephen's Presbyterian church on Friday evening. A large number were present to welcome their new pastor, Rev. A. Rogers. Rev. Mr. Bearisto opened the proceedings with prayer. He was followed by Elders Barr and Fisher, in addresses of welcome, which were suitably responded to by Mr. Rogers. There was an excellent musical programme, and during the intervals Mr. Rogers was introduced to a large number of those present. Refreshments were served.

John C. Reeves of Rhodes Curry & Co., left on Saturday for Richmond, Va., on business in connection with the firm. He will be absent about a month.

Miss Marguerite Atkinson of the Ladies' College, Sackville, was the guest of Mrs. James Reid, Robie street, last week.

Miss J. Brundage is visiting friends in Oxford.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Copp of Oxford, were visitors in town last week.

Miss Dora Norton of Moncton, and Miss Alice Phinney of Sackville, were guests of Miss Elsie Lawson on Sunday.

George C. Boss, who has been visiting in Hamilton, Toronto, and other upper Canadian cities, returned home on Saturday.

I. Scheffer has returned from Montreal.

Mr. Hayward of the Bank of Montreal staff, who has been absent on sick leave, returned to his duties on Tuesday.

Mrs. D. R. Pridham and Miss Lena Pridham left on Monday for a three months' trip to Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Cain and Miss Leita Lawson visited friends in Sackville on Sunday.

Miss Janet M. Estabrooks spent Sunday with her parents in Upper Sackville.

Miss Desbrisay of Chatham is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. B. Stevens.

Robert Lamont of Prince Edward Island, formerly a resident of this town, spent Wednesday in town, en route to Calgary.

Messrs. Robert Pugsley, W. H. Tennant, N. A. Rhodes and A. G. Robb, were in Halifax this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Howe Keith were guests of friends in Sackville on Sunday.

Prof. Max M. Sterne, and daughter, Marian, are spending the week in Chatham.

Miss Alice Sleep, is spending a few weeks visiting her mother, Mrs. W. Sleep, Victoria street.

Harry Pride of Halifax, is in town, called here by the death of his father, M. D. Pride.

W. A. Christie is in Montreal on business.

Rev. S. W. Cummings returned home from Wolfville on Monday.

TRURO.

Truro, April 8.—Mr. Frank Hamilton Baker, nephew of Mr. E. W. Hamilton, of Truro, was recently married, in British Columbia, to Miss Ella Jean Brown.

Miss Annie Main, of Port Elgin, has been visiting Truro friends.

Mrs. William Hutchinson has been visiting in Moncton.

Mr. J. Ramsden, of Leeds, England, who has been in Truro for some time, has gone to St. John. He will be missed, especially in musical circles, and social affairs.

On Thursday afternoon Miss Maud Boomer, of Great Village, well known in Truro, was married to Mr. George Shepherdson, Moncton. The bride wore a traveling suit of green broadcloth and silk, and carried white carnations and ferns. The groom is principal of the Empire Business College, in Moncton.

Mrs. Gordon Crowe has the sympathy of her many friends in the loss of her mother, Mrs. R. R. Page, whose death occurred on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Hunter have gone to St. John to visit with the latter's mother, Mrs. John Thomas.

PARRSBORO.

Parrsboro, April 9.—Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Tucker were in Truro last week.

Mr. H. C. Jenks has returned from Boston.

Miss Elizabeth Morrison of Five Islands is visiting Mrs. A. R. McDonald.

Mrs. F. A. Rand and Miss Sadie Cook were in St. John for a few days last week.

Miss Gertrude Smith has returned to Amherst.

Mrs. Stuart Salter has been visiting her father, Mr. Charles Smith, in Amherst.

Mrs. H. C. Jenks entertained at a very pleasant leap year party on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Henry Tucker, who has been very ill, is improving. Her sisters, Mrs. M. Doyle and Miss Hillgrove, came from Halifax on Thursday.

CAMPBELLTON.

Campbellton, April 9.—Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Anderson left last week on a three months' trip to Quebec, Ottawa, and Deseronto.

Mrs. Troy who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. E. G. MacKenzie, went to her home in Newcastle on Friday.

Mrs. Percy Baker of Metapedia, was the guest of Mrs. George MacKenzie last week.

Mr. P. B. M. Hope of Perth, Scotland, is spending a few weeks with his brother, Mr. R. M. Hope.

Mrs. Malcolm Patterson is the guest of Mrs. Percy Baker, Metapedia, this week.

Mrs. Thomas Malcolm returned from a visit to Montreal on Friday.

Mrs. James W. Morton entertained the Lang Syne Whist Club on Friday evening. The head prizes went to Judge and Mrs. MacLatchey.

Miss Jellett has issued invitations for a dance on Friday evening of this week.

RICHIBUCTO

Richibucto, April 9.—Snow commenced to fall last evening, and today we have had the wildest snow storm of 1908. Fully a foot of snow has fallen.

Four caravans of Mexican gypsies passed through here on Sunday, and made a short stay before going north.

James Flanagan and son, Robert, have gone to Bar Harbor, Maine. Mrs. Flanagan, her younger son, and daughter, Sadie, will not leave until later in the season.

Milligan Curwin, south side, Richibucto, has recovered from his recent illness.

Miss Isabel Jardine is visiting her cousin, Miss Carol Jardine, Kouchibouguac.

Miss Sarah Flanagan, who on account of the smallpox in Moncton, was spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Flanagan, has returned to Moncton, to resume her duties on the staff of the Wesley street school.

Jasper Haines has returned to Moncton to resume his studies.

Mrs. Bert. Haines, of Chatham, is visiting relatives in town.

The gaol committee of the county council have had a telephone placed in the registry office. This is something which has long been needed.

Mrs. R. Patterson has returned to her home in Kouchibouguac, after spending some weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Henderson, Moncton.

The following officers have been el[ect]ed by Bass River Division of the Son[s of] Temperance, for the ensuing qua[rter]: Isaac Howell, W. P.; Miss Chr[...] Rogers, W. A.; Miss Minnie Cail, [...] Isaac Ward, A. R. S.; Miss Kat[h...] Ward, F. S.; Charles Wheten, Tr[...] Mason Wilson, Chaplain; Ross Murph[...]