

REV. DR. HOWARD SPRAGUE IS DEAD AT SACKVILLE

Dean of Theological Faculty at Mount Allison, and Former Pastor of Centenary Church, Passed Away Yesterday—One of Leading Methodists of Maritime Province.

One of the ablest theologians of Canada passed away yesterday at Sackville (N. B.) in the person of Rev. Dr. Howard Sprague, Dean of the theological faculty of Mount Allison University.

He then entered Mount Allison University and secured his B. A. degree in 1882, his M. A. degree in 1886 and his Ph. D. in 1888. He was a most profound scholar and early in life was marked for a brilliant career in the church.

He has filled many important pastorates in the maritime provinces, including Centenary and Queen's square churches, St. John, and held many responsible offices in connection with the church, including that of president of the St. John conference and delegate to the general conference. He declined the appointment to the theological professorship of Mount Allison University in 1908 and has been dean of the theological faculty there since March, 1908.

He is survived by his wife, four daughters and one son. The daughters are Miss Annie, vice-principal of the Mount Allison Ladies' College; Miss Lillian, at home; Mrs. Nichols, of New Bedford (Mass.); and Miss Alice, also of New Bedford. His son, Allen, is a bank manager now residing in Roseland (B. C.), who is now en route home.

The funeral will be held on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock in the Methodist church, Sackville, and interment will be made at Hampton. Rev. Thos. Hicks, president of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island conference, will conduct the funeral service.

OBITUARY

Councillor J. W. S. Black.

Sackville, Oct. 26.—The death of Coun. J. W. S. Black occurred at his home in Sackville, at an early hour on Wednesday morning. Coun. Black had been in failing health for some time past and his death, while being deeply regretted by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances throughout the country and provinces, was not entirely unexpected.

Mrs. Warren Carter. Sackville, Oct. 26.—The many friends of Mrs. Warren Carter were deeply grieved to learn of her death, which occurred at her late residence, Wedon street, Sackville, at an early hour Saturday morning. Though suffering for six weeks past from a very serious illness her death came as a great shock to the community.

Frederick N. Knorr. Sackville, Oct. 26.—John Knorr, of Blissett, died yesterday, aged seventy-one. He is survived by his wife, three sons and three daughters. He was a respected citizen and will be missed by numerous friends.

Rev. Dr. William Bayard Craig. Sackville, Oct. 27.—A short service was held at the house, conducted by Rev. Dr. Wiggins, assisted by Rev. Mr. Stebbings, after which a large number of friends and acquaintances escorted the body to St. Paul's church, where before a large congregation, Dr. Wiggins read the burial service. Appropriate music was rendered both at the house and church by the choir of St. Paul's with Miss Dot Johnson and Thos. Murray as soloists.

Richard D. Damery. The death of Richard D. Damery occurred Thursday in the General Public Hospital. Mr. Damery, who was in his seventy-first year, is survived by his wife, one daughter, and brother, John Damery, also of this city. For many years he was caretaker of the Martello Tower and while there he established a most interesting museum of objects of historic and general interest. Unfortunely this valuable collection was destroyed by fire after its removal from the tower. Mr. Damery was well known throughout the city and enjoyed the respect and esteem of a large circle of friends. He was a member of Elgin No. 2 L. O. A. The funeral will take place from 144 Paradise row this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

Mrs. Mary H. Craft. Friday, Oct. 27. Many friends will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Mary H. Craft, which occurred yesterday at her home, corner of Duke and Champlain streets, after a lengthy illness. Mrs. Craft was 45 years old and is survived by her husband, two sons and three daughters. The sons are George, who is in France, with a signalling corps of the first contingent, and Andrew on home service in Halifax. The daughters are Mrs. George Weaver of Carleton and Misses Marion and Agnes. He is regarded as the ablest preacher afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Rev. H. E. Thomson will conduct the service and interment will take place in the Upper Sackville cemetery.

H. L. Cullinan. Monday, Oct. 30. Many will be sorry to learn of the death of Henry L. Cullinan, which occurred in Toronto, after an illness extending over some time. He was the son of Mrs. Sarah Cullinan of Stanley street and the late James Cullinan. He was formerly with the L. C. R. here, later with his father in extensive trucking business, and then removed to upper Canada. After the war broke out he went to England and was in the munition works at Barrow-on-Furness. He also sought to go across the channel as a soldier, but was not able to accomplish his patriotic purpose.

Mr. Cullinan returned to Canada some time ago and had been very ill in Toronto. He is survived by his wife and one child, his mother-in-law, Miss Nellie Cullinan, and one brother, James, in St. John. Burial will be in Toronto.

Mrs. Mary McDonald. The death of Mrs. Mary McDonald, widow of Alexander McDonald, occurred Friday at the home of Mrs. Mary Jones, at home, Mrs. McDonald was a native of St. John and for fourteen years had been employed as a housemaid in the Bishop's Palace. The funeral took place at 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from 44 Thorne avenue.

W. H. Rourke. Monday, Oct. 30. The death of W. H. Rourke, for many years a prominent resident of St. Martins and a leading figure in the shipping and lumbering industry of the province, occurred yesterday at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. E. W. MacLennan, of Paddock street, after an illness of three weeks. Mr. Rourke was, for a long period, a well known and leading resident of St. John county and with his brother married on a business venture under the firm name of W. H. and J. Rourke. He was active in politics for many years. Mr. Rourke was born at St. George (N. B.), February 8, 1846, but resided for many years at St. Martins. He married Miss Rachel E. Vaughan, of St. Martins, sister of the late David Vaughan of that place who was actively identified with the lumber and shipping business. Mrs. Rourke died four years ago. Two sons and one daughter survive. The sons are C. Oswald, of New York, and W. Rupert, of Kaleden (B. C.). Mrs. F. W. MacLennan, with whom Mr. Rourke was residing at the time of his death, is the daughter.

Mrs. Margaret Dwyer. Monday, Oct. 30. Many friends will regret with regard to the death of Mrs. Margaret Dwyer which occurred yesterday very suddenly at her late residence, Milford. She was the only daughter of Mary and the late Alexander Dwyer and was in her 28th year. Mrs. Dwyer had been suffering for some time with a very serious illness, but the end came most unexpectedly. She is survived by two brothers, Joseph and John, the bakers, of Milford. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 9.30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. St. Rose's church for requiem high mass.

Edmundston, Oct. 26.—The death of Frank R. Tighe, occurred on Saturday last from cerebral palsy. He was aged 38 years and leaves one sister, Mrs. Perron, a niece, Miss Winnie Tighe, and two nephews, Michael and William Tighe. He was a respected citizen and will be missed by numerous friends.

Mrs. Albert Collins. The death occurred at the General Public Hospital on Saturday, October 28, of Mrs. Albert Collins, wife of Albert Collins, of 277 Prince street, West End. She was in her twenty-third year and succumbed after a short illness. She is survived by her husband and two small children; also five sisters, Mrs. Thomas Hodgins, Bloomfield; Mrs. Henry Fordge, St. Croix; and Misses Violet, Catherine and Gertrude at home. The funeral will be held at home.

H. L. Cullinan. Monday, Oct. 30. The death of Henry L. Cullinan, son of Mrs. Sarah Cullinan of Stanley street and the late James Cullinan, occurred in Toronto recently. The death was sudden and he crossed to England and was in the munition works and later tried to cross the channel as a soldier, but was not able to accomplish his patriotic purpose.

WEDDINGS. Jewett-Lawrence. The home of Lieut. and Mrs. Beverly Lawrence, Burt's Corner, was the scene of a brilliant wedding on Wednesday, October 19, when their only daughter, A. Myrtle, was united in marriage to Mr. Jewett, M.D., of Millville (N. B.). The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. A. Fenwick, of Jacksonville, Carleton county, assisted by Rev. E. J. Thompson, Warwick Ridge. The guests who received by Mrs. J. M. McKenzie, of Warwick Ridge, and at exactly 5 o'clock the bridal party entered the spacious parlors to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Eva Brewer, of Fredericton, and took their places under a floral arch. Mrs. Frank White, of Sussex, ushered in the little ribbon girls who looked very dainty dressed in pink tulle. The bride wore the room leaning on the arm of the groom, who was a burman who gave her away. The bridesmaid was Miss Ruth Yerxa, and Miss Pearl Lawrence acted as maid of honor, while the groom was ably supported by Dr. A. MacLennan. The bride looked charmingly attired in a beautiful gown of white duchess satin, with an overskirt of tulle and silk lace. The long train which was suspended from the waist was caught up with satin ribbons. The tulle train was trimmed with the orange blossoms that were worn by the bride's mother on her wedding day. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and maiden hair.

WEDDINGS. The bridesmaid and maid of honor were dressed in yellow silk and nixon and carried bouquets of pink carnations and maiden hair fern.

Hayter-Gibb. A wedding of much interest took place on Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hayter, 64 Winter street, when their son, Frederick E. Hayter, was united in marriage to Miss Isabel Wilson Gibb. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. MacLennan, assisted by Rev. Mr. Stebbings, after which a large number of friends and acquaintances escorted the body to St. Paul's church, where before a large congregation, Dr. Wiggins read the burial service. Appropriate music was rendered both at the house and church by the choir of St. Paul's with Miss Dot Johnson and Thos. Murray as soloists.

WEDDINGS. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. MacLennan, assisted by Rev. Mr. Stebbings, after which a large number of friends and acquaintances escorted the body to St. Paul's church, where before a large congregation, Dr. Wiggins read the burial service. Appropriate music was rendered both at the house and church by the choir of St. Paul's with Miss Dot Johnson and Thos. Murray as soloists.

WEDDINGS. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. MacLennan, assisted by Rev. Mr. Stebbings, after which a large number of friends and acquaintances escorted the body to St. Paul's church, where before a large congregation, Dr. Wiggins read the burial service. Appropriate music was rendered both at the house and church by the choir of St. Paul's with Miss Dot Johnson and Thos. Murray as soloists.

There was a large number of out of town guests present, including the Countess of Arundell, Miss Lucy Anderson, Mrs. J. B. Dugget and Judge Wilson, all of Fredericton; and Dr. MacIntosh, of Andover.

The presents were numerous and costly, including cut glass, silverware and checks. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

Arthur-Shillingford. A happy event took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shillingford at Silver Falls on the afternoon of Wednesday, October 25, when their second daughter, Miss Amy S., was united in marriage to William Arthur, of Fredericton, by Rev. Mr. Stebbings.

Irving-Hartin. A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hartin, Canterbury, on Monday afternoon, Thanksgiving Day, when their eldest daughter, Miss Nellie, was united in marriage to William T. Irving, of St. Stephen. At 3 o'clock the bridal party entered the parlor. The bride looked very attractive in a stylish travelling costume of many shades of green with a pink lining. She wore a large picture hat of black velvet with jet and rose-trimmings, which was very becoming. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Edna Hartin, who looked pretty in a gown of green and white. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. J. H. Hartin, who was in a suit of black and white. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. MacLennan.

Hatfield-Campbell. A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at 8.30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Campbell, 153 Water street, West St. John, when their eldest daughter, Cora, was united in matrimony to Harold Austin Hatfield, formerly of Port Greville (N. S.), now of West St. John. Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiated in the presence of friends and relatives of both the principals. The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of ivory silk crepe, trimmed with pearl beads and white satin roses, and wore a bridal veil of white flowered net. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and wisteria and maiden-hair ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Hatfield left yesterday for their home in West St. John.

Springer-Davis. A very pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Davis, Queenstown, Queens county, when their daughter Helen B. became the bride of Bruce O. Springer, of Jemseg. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Stebbings, who officiated in the presence of friends and relatives of both the principals. The bride looked charming in a dress of ivory silk crepe, trimmed with pearl beads and white satin roses, and wore a bridal veil of white flowered net. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and wisteria and maiden-hair ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Springer left yesterday for their home in Jemseg.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

There was a large number of out of town guests present, including the Countess of Arundell, Miss Lucy Anderson, Mrs. J. B. Dugget and Judge Wilson, all of Fredericton; and Dr. MacIntosh, of Andover.

The presents were numerous and costly, including cut glass, silverware and checks. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

Arthur-Shillingford. A happy event took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shillingford at Silver Falls on the afternoon of Wednesday, October 25, when their second daughter, Miss Amy S., was united in marriage to William Arthur, of Fredericton, by Rev. Mr. Stebbings.

Irving-Hartin. A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hartin, Canterbury, on Monday afternoon, Thanksgiving Day, when their eldest daughter, Miss Nellie, was united in marriage to William T. Irving, of St. Stephen. At 3 o'clock the bridal party entered the parlor. The bride looked very attractive in a stylish travelling costume of many shades of green with a pink lining. She wore a large picture hat of black velvet with jet and rose-trimmings, which was very becoming. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Edna Hartin, who looked pretty in a gown of green and white. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. J. H. Hartin, who was in a suit of black and white. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. MacLennan.

Hatfield-Campbell. A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at 8.30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Campbell, 153 Water street, West St. John, when their eldest daughter, Cora, was united in matrimony to Harold Austin Hatfield, formerly of Port Greville (N. S.), now of West St. John. Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiated in the presence of friends and relatives of both the principals. The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of ivory silk crepe, trimmed with pearl beads and white satin roses, and wore a bridal veil of white flowered net. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and wisteria and maiden-hair ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Hatfield left yesterday for their home in West St. John.

Springer-Davis. A very pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Davis, Queenstown, Queens county, when their daughter Helen B. became the bride of Bruce O. Springer, of Jemseg. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Stebbings, who officiated in the presence of friends and relatives of both the principals. The bride looked charming in a dress of ivory silk crepe, trimmed with pearl beads and white satin roses, and wore a bridal veil of white flowered net. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and wisteria and maiden-hair ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Springer left yesterday for their home in Jemseg.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

There was a large number of out of town guests present, including the Countess of Arundell, Miss Lucy Anderson, Mrs. J. B. Dugget and Judge Wilson, all of Fredericton; and Dr. MacIntosh, of Andover.

The presents were numerous and costly, including cut glass, silverware and checks. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

Arthur-Shillingford. A happy event took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shillingford at Silver Falls on the afternoon of Wednesday, October 25, when their second daughter, Miss Amy S., was united in marriage to William Arthur, of Fredericton, by Rev. Mr. Stebbings.

Irving-Hartin. A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hartin, Canterbury, on Monday afternoon, Thanksgiving Day, when their eldest daughter, Miss Nellie, was united in marriage to William T. Irving, of St. Stephen. At 3 o'clock the bridal party entered the parlor. The bride looked very attractive in a stylish travelling costume of many shades of green with a pink lining. She wore a large picture hat of black velvet with jet and rose-trimmings, which was very becoming. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Edna Hartin, who looked pretty in a gown of green and white. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. J. H. Hartin, who was in a suit of black and white. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. MacLennan.

Hatfield-Campbell. A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at 8.30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Campbell, 153 Water street, West St. John, when their eldest daughter, Cora, was united in matrimony to Harold Austin Hatfield, formerly of Port Greville (N. S.), now of West St. John. Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiated in the presence of friends and relatives of both the principals. The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of ivory silk crepe, trimmed with pearl beads and white satin roses, and wore a bridal veil of white flowered net. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and wisteria and maiden-hair ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Hatfield left yesterday for their home in West St. John.

Springer-Davis. A very pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Davis, Queenstown, Queens county, when their daughter Helen B. became the bride of Bruce O. Springer, of Jemseg. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Stebbings, who officiated in the presence of friends and relatives of both the principals. The bride looked charming in a dress of ivory silk crepe, trimmed with pearl beads and white satin roses, and wore a bridal veil of white flowered net. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and wisteria and maiden-hair ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Springer left yesterday for their home in Jemseg.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organist he gave gold bar pins and to the maid of honor a pair of diamond earrings.

MacDonald-Scott. Welsford, Oct. 26.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. May Scott, when her only daughter, Emma Edith, was united in marriage to James MacDonald, Rev. Mr. Stebbings officiating. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of the Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin received by Mrs. Jenkins. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and looked charming in a costly blue-tailored suit, black picture hat with pink crown and pink plume. The young couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Speight, Jr. At the conclusion of the ceremony and during congratulations, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, after which a very dainty luncheon was served. The bride's presents included a handsome set of black fox fur, while to the bridesmaid and organ