Rumor has it that several women will be in the running for school treasurers in various sections next January.
And why not? The mothers of the land surely should have a voice in the education of their children. Too often the fathers don't seem to care and leave the running of the schools to those who cannot appreciate what it is to be called "Daddy."

all other friends who were so kind during his recent bereavement.

TOWN AND VICINITY

John Barleycorn was properly XXX'd.
Prohibition has fairly taken some people's breath away.
Anthony Gilroy of Alvinston died on Thursday, aged 80 years.
Metairie council will meet on Monday, Nov. 3rd, at 10 a. m.
Even royalty recognizes the fact that Glencoe is "some town." The work of enlarging and remodeling the ice rink has been commenced.
None of us need fear the cold of the coming winter. Ontario will be so dry we won't feel it.
Never did the starting of the furnace seem as much like burning money as it does just now.

The young people of Glencoe are giving an informal dance at the town hall on Monday evening.
Charles Dean has sold his residence in Glencoe to James Tait of Tait's Corners, who will retire to town.
Peter McArthur will address the Reform Club at Montreal Saturday evening, Nov. 8, on political matters.
Mrs. James Fraser of Biddulph, aged 102 years, walked to the poll and cast her vote in the recent election.
Mr. Lloyd conducted anniversary services in the Presbyterian church at Cairo on Sunday afternoon and evening.

Linemen for the hydro-electric power were in Glencoe last week completing plans for installing the power here.

Andrew Gardiner has sold his residence on Concession street to George Shelgrove, who is moving to Glencoe from Rodney.

J. G. Lethbridge was at Toronto yesterday, being one of the committee of nine from the U. F. O. party to select a cabinet.

A Pennsylvania hermit says the coming winter 'll be a darn mild one.
And his old neighbors say his predictions never fail.

Henry Murray has sold his farm near Appin to John Faw of Wallace-town and purposes moving to London East next month.

Alex. Duncanson has sold his garage and automobile business to George W.
Shelgrove and Thomas Pauls, who take possession January 1st next.

Henry Murray, lot 10, con. 3, Ekfrid, is having a clearing sale today of his entire chattels, consisting of farm stock, implements and machinery and household effects.

The marriage took place in St.
Thomas on October 23rd of Arthur R.
Sanders to Miss Cora Spackman, eldest daughter of George Spackman, formerly of Glencoe.

Subscription lists for the Victory Loan opened on Monday and secured a good start-off in Glencoe. The canvassers for the town are James Poole and W. A. Hagerty.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Allsbrook and daughter Thelma have arrived from Birmingham and will make their home near Glencoe, where Mr. Alls-brook formerly resided.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McGugan of Mount Brydges announce the marriage of their daughter, Annie, to Dr. R. S.
Murray of Mitchell, on Oct. 21, at the home of the bride's parents.

Just when some one rises to assure us that the price of shoes will come down next spring, a dozen pop up to say that prices will do no such thing.
This is a heartless old world.

The death occurred at her home in Napier on Monday morning of Mrs. C.
Sutherland, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed residents of that village. She was 81 years of age.

It was noticed in London and Glencoe that the Prince of Wales used his left member while shaking hands. The right hand of His Royal Highness is said to be suffering from Canadian grip.

Rev. A. E. Jones of Blenheim will conduct anniversary services in Appin Methodist church Sunday afternoon and evening, November 9. An old-fashioned tea meeting will be held on the following evening.

Glencoe is in receipt of the county treasurer's cheque for $575, which is the county's proportion of the expenditure made this year for oil and gravel on our streets connecting up with the county roads system.

We were all so occupied with the Prince's visit and the elections that we quite forgot the proximity of Venus, which has stolen up to a point of only 26,000,000 miles from the earth, or practically no distance at all.

Arrangements are being made for a big concert by local talent in Glencoe on the evening of November 11th to celebrate the anniversary of Armistice Day. The proceeds will go to the funds of the Soldiers' Aid Commission.

Neil McKellar has bought from Dan McEachren the residence on Victoria street which he owned when a resident of Glencoe some years ago. Mr.
McEachren prefers the farm and is looking for a few acres near town where he can resume the pastoral life on a small scale.

Don't forget the Halloween party to be held in the Presbyterian church on Friday night under the auspices of the Ross Mission Band. Amusing games will be a part of the evening's program, and there will be songs and addresses. Come and enjoy yourself.
Lunch will be served. Admission 15c.

The big potatoes are growing bigger. R. L. McAlpine of Shields is the latest to come forward with a monster, which tops all hitherto handed up for inspection and sampling this season. Weight, 2 pounds 6 ounces; circumference, 19 inches by 13 1/2; variety, Red Rose; flavor, superb. Who's next?

complete than ever and nearly all bought before the last big raise in price, so that we can save you dollars in shoes.—Charles George.

Owing to the increased pressure of the automobile business we have been forced to relinquish the Massey-Harris contract. We wish to thank the people of Glencoe and vicinity for the generous share of their patronage they have always given us in this deservedly popular line of farm machinery. We bespeak for our successors the same liberal patronage that we have received.—N. & A. M. Graham.
