Ottawa, 11th March, 1909.

Dear Sir,-

I enclose a letter addressed to the Rev. John McDougall. The last advice from him he was at Vernon, but it is supposed that he may have left there by this time, and I think the safest way of having this letter reach him would be to send it in your care. Will you endeavour to forward it to him. If you do not know his whereabouts hold the letter and wire the Department for advice as to what to do with it.

Yours truly,

Secretary.

A. Irwin, Esq.,
