Ottawa 2nd September, 1913.

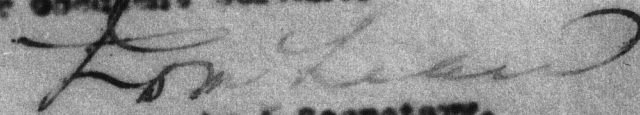

Sir,

Referring to your letter of the 28th August, and the account submitted from the General Hospital, Mattawa, I beg to say that the first two items are allowed. The item for funeral service can not be allowed, as the Department does not pay such charges.

It is considered that the last item of cleaning and repairing room is covered by the maintenance charge paid by the month.

The account is returned for amendment, as indicated. It should be rendered in duplicate, and attached to certified vouchers, forms.

Your obedient servant.

Asst. Deputy & Secretary.

G.P. Cookburn, Esq.,

India Agent,

Sturgeon Falls, Ont.
