

254,014-13 B

Ottawa, 26th July, 1915.

SIR,

I beg to transmit herewith accounts from Messrs. Devillon Freres, which amount respectively to $8.00 and $37.65 for relief supplies furnished to an Indian. If these accounts are correct, kindly attach them to voucher forms, certify, and forward to the Department when the question of payment will be considered. The supplies it is understood were furnished to Thomas Sanders, of Missinabic. Attached to the account is copy of a letter from the Secretary Treasurer of Messrs. Devillon Freres relative to the account.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

A. D. McFabb, Esq.,
Indian Agent,
