Ottawa, May 3, 1920.

Sir,-

I am in receipt of your letter of the 28th ultimo in which you refer to Mrs. David King of the Christian Island band having been deserted by her husband and you suggest that the Department act under Section 92a of the Indian Act in this matter.

In reply I have to inform you that under the provisions of the said Section Mrs. King is drawing five interest shares - her own and those of her four unmarried children.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

Mr. Henry Jackson,
Christian Island, Ont.
