

- I: The Pre-War Years (1941), by F.H. Soward,
J.F. Parkinson, N.A.M. MacKenzie, & T.W.L. MacDermot
- II: Two Years of War, 1939-1941 (1943), by R.M. Dawson
- III: September 1941 to May 1944 (1950), by C. Cecil Lingard
& Reginald G. Trotter
- IV: From Normandy to Paris, 1944-46 (1950), by F.H. Soward
- V: From UN to NATO, 1946-1949 (1959; repr. 1967) by R.A. Spencer
- VI: 1949-50 (1959; repr. 1967), by W.E.C. Harrison
- VII: September 1951 to October 1953 (1956; repr. 1966), by Burton S. Keirstead
- VIII: 1953-1955 (1959; repr. 1965), by Donald C. Masters
- IX: October 1955 to June 1957 (1959; repr. 1965), by James Eayrs
- X: 1957-1959 (1968), by Trevor Lloyd
- XI: 1959-1961 (1965), Richard A. Preston
- XII: 1961-1963 (1968), by Peyton V. Lyon

Toronto/Oxford University Press; published under the auspices of The Canadian Institute of International Affairs.

Behind the Headlines, Toronto, Canadian Institute of International Affairs, 1940 -

A series of pamphlets, normally six in a year, treating contemporary international issues and their relationship to Canada. Serious but not heavily scholarly.

Historical and Biographic Works Relating to pre-1945 Period

Dawson, R. MacGregor (ed.)

The Development of Dominion Status, 1900-1936, Toronto Oxford University Press, 1937; repr. London, Frank Cass Ltd., 1965

A collection of documents, with a long introduction, providing a classic account of Canada's attainment of legal equality within the Commonwealth and international status outside.