

LAND VALUES.—Napier's New Land Taxes
Practical Application.—Second Edition. 19

LANDLORD AND TENANT.—Woodfall's Law
lord and Tenant. Twentieth Edition. 1920.
(ready.)

"Woodfall is really indispensable to the practice of whatever degree he may be."—Law Journal.

LAW LIST, 1920.

LEADING CASES. Petrides' Student's Case
tive of all branches of the Law. 1910.

"The cases appear to be well chosen and correct."
Solicitors' Journal.

Randall's Selection of Leading Cases in 1912.

"One of the foremost, if not the best, of Equity cases."
Law Students' Journal.

Shirley's Selection of Leading Cases in the Law.—Ninth Edition. By R. WATSON. 19

"The selection is very large, though all are distinguished Cases,' and the notes are by no means the least meritorious of the work."—Law Journal.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS.—Pollock on the Nations.—By Rt. Hon. Sir FREDERICK POLLOCK.
1920.

LEGAL HISTORY.—Deans' Student's Legal
Third Edition. 1913.

"There is no better or short introduction to the study of —Law Notes.

LIBEL AND SLANDER.—Ball's Law of Libel
Newspapers and Journalists.—1912.

"A well-arranged and well-executed work."—Law

Odgers' Digest of the Law of Libel and Fifth Edition. 1911.

"Should be found on the shelves of every practitioner."
Students' Journal.

LUNACY.—Heywood and Massey's Lunacy
Fifth Edition. 1920.

MAGISTRATES' PRACTICE, 1916.—By C. M.
Stipendiary Magistrate for Leeds.

MENTAL DEFICIENCY.—Davey's Law relating to Mentally Defective.—Second Edition.

"This admirably arranged and handy book."—