TORONTO LABOR'S CHOICE. Of Candidates in the Next Immicipal Campaign.

Oct. 31. - That the local labor party will play an important part in the approaching municipal elections was the general expression of opinion amongst the delegates who attended the second session held under the direction of the Building Trades Council and the District Labor Council last night in the Temple building to nominate the candidates on the labor ticket. Mr. Isaac Sanderthe labor ticket. Mr. Isaac Sanderson, business representative of the 'Longshoremen's Union, was voted to the chair. The first business was the formation of the Labor Municipal League, which was launched with a membership of 250, composed of delegates from the various local unions. A list of candidates were nominated at a meeting of the Labor party a few weeks ago, but no explanation was made last night why they were wiped off the calendar before they reached the various unions for a referendum vote. Last night a new ticket was vote. Last night a new ticket was formed, and, although the leaders of the party refused to divulge the names of the proposed candidates, it was learned from a reliable source that the

CABLED/TO CHAMBERLAIN.

Toronto Board of Trade Resolution on His Policy.

Toronto, Oct. 31. - The Board of Trade held a special meet-ing last night, and, after a discussion upon the Chamberlain policy, decided unanimously upon the following resolution, which was cabled to the Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain:-

"Whereas it is generally recognized that an advantageous commercial bond is the strongest link in national unity is the strongest link in national unity, and that the maintenance and strengthening of trade is the keystone of a nation's successful development; and whereas the existence of an empire is largely dependent upon the material prosperity of its people;

"It is resolved that in the opinion of this meeting the bonds of the British Empire would be materially strengthened and the union of the various parts of his Maiesty's dominions greatly con-of his Majesty's dominions greatly con-solidated by the adoption of a commer-cial policy such as was outlined by the Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain at Glasgow on the 6th day of October inst., and that the Board of Trade of the city of Toronto supports that policy."

As at first introduced the resolution As at first introduced the resolution ended with the words "due consideration being given to the meaning of the term 'secondary industries.'".

The unanimous opinion was that Canadians should put nothing in the way of Mr. Chamberlain's policy.

Every opportunity was being greedily seized by Mr. Chamberlain's enemies, and it was claimed by them that the Canadian manufacturers would never submit to any scheme which could possibly injure their trade.

HAMILTON IS SCARED.

A Burglar Alarm on Jackson Street Last Night.

Hamilton, Oct. 31.—Since the murder of Police Constable Barron, and the more recent shooting and wounding of Harold Case on the mountain, many residents particularly the female portion of the population, have been gradually working themselves into a state of nervous timidity. Besides the shooting there have been several burglaries or attempted burglaries, and as no arrests have been made in connection with any of these things the fears of the people have been increasing rather than abating. This was exemplified at 6 o'clock yesterday at 13 Jackson street west. Miss Ruth Mack-lem, daughter of Mr. Oscar Macklem, was in her bedroom upstairs dressing Jackson street west. Miss Ruth Macklem. daughter of Mr. Oscar Macklem.
was in her bedroom upstairs dressing for supper, when she fancied she heard a strange step just outside the door. She turned out the light and started downstairs, when she was struck in the face and knocked down by a supposed intruder. She screamed, and a sister ran upstairs to her. The sister lost a slipper on the way up, and she thought she felt a tug at her skirts as she was running upstairs. The stairway was dark. In a few minutes the entire neighborhood was aroused and the police were notified. No person had seen the marauder leave the house, and a search failed to locate him.
About an hour later the police were telen seen on the roof of 87 Jackson street.
Again the police failed to find anyone.
Still another alarm was sent in at 9 o'clock, when it was said the mysterious individual was seen sticking his head out of the attic window at 79 Jackson street.
This time the police found that the face

This time the police found that the face in the attic window belonged to Miss West, daughter of the lady of the house.
The young lady was indignant at the police having been called to her home, and she admitted that it was she who had been at the window. At the same time the police made what they regarded as a still more important discovery. This was that Miss Macklem, the heroine of the first alarm, hore such marks on her face from the alleged assault as to Indicate that histend of them having been caused by the supposed intruder they was ground to pulp up to the elbow, Louis Dornton, a well-to-do farmer, 35 years of age, will probably die. Dornton was showing one of his employees how to feed a corn shredder when his hand caught in the steel feeders and was gradually drawn in. The injury resulted before the machinery could be stopped, and, although the limb was amputated, it is feared the shock will

The Hon. A. S. Murray, Secretary for Scotland, in an address last night, declared that the policy of Mr. Chamberlain and Premier Balfour as to fiscal changes would not take place un cal changes would not take place until after the general elections. If the Liberals came into power there would be a revival of the policy of harassed each trade and interest. He thought the Government would be sustained. The Somerset Chamber of Commerce at a largely-attended meeting yesterday carried a resolution to the effect that the time had arrived for consideration of the fiscal policy of the empire with a view to strengthening the bond of union with the colonies and providing means of resisting hostile foreign tariffs.

Mr. Chamberlain has revised his Glasgow speech of October 6 for The National Review. The speech, which was imperfectly reported by the press owing to the telegraphic breakdown, is summarized by The London Mail as one which will be ranked by posterity as amongst the finest examples of British eloquence. The only alteration in the speech is where Mr Chamberlain originally stated that a duty averaging 10 per cent; would give duty averaging to per cent. would give the Exchequer £0,000,000 a year addi-tional. The revised version reads: "I
