

19th, Sab. morning, preached at Hyndman's Church, Mountain; good congregation; large settlement, people generally in very comfortable circumstances. Church of Scotland Sabbath-school organized, but for a long time was much neglected, it is now more prosperous; there should be a Sabbath-school there of 120 pupils. In the evening preached again, and organized a Union Sabbath-school at Brown's Settlement. Children numerous, three years without Sabbath-school. Many careless about the matter Mr. D. McIntyre, Superintendent.

20th, Rode with J. McIntyre, Esq., to Osgood, and North Mountain, to learn the state of the field. Found several openings for Sabbath-school effort, but owing to the spring thaw coming on, it was with difficulty we returned next day to Mountain, with plans laid for that field in the summer season.

23rd, Mr. J. McIntyre kindly brought me to Oxford station in the worst of roads.

Re-visited Drummond Settlement, and supplied them with a library and other aids.

26th, At Spencerville addressed the Presbyterian and Wesleyan Methodist schools, preached in the Court House. In the afternoon preached, and organized a Union Sabbath-school at Grant's Mills, which has resisted every attempt to render it less Union in character. It has been well sustained and productive of much good. My time will not admit of a continued report in detail, I consider it my duty to labor on in this work, interested in duty for its own sake, even while there seems in the present much of sameness, and little that is encouraging; our motto must be,

To doubt and fear give thou no heed,
 "Broadcast it o'er the land," assured
 Thou canst not toil in vain.
 Cold, heat, moist and dry,
 Shall foster and mature the grain
 For garnerers in the sky.

During the month of April when the snow was not yet gone, and the state of the roads prevented my returning with my summer conveyance to C. W., I visited 19 schools, chiefly in districts which had been visited previously, in a similar and least favourable season. Three of these are in Melbourne, small, but rendering good service, containing 14 teachers and 114 scholars. Two are in Shipton, one in Brompton (new settlement) and another worthy of notice is the Mission school at South Ely. I have there seen over fifty present, and the greater number of whom were French converts from Popery, and their children uniting with the Protestants in Sabbath-school worship, under the ministry of a devoted man, the Rev. Mr. Smith, once a pupil of the Feller Institute. The remaining eight are in the township of Durham with 44 teachers and 315 scholars.

Four others encouraged, containing 17 teachers and 109 scholars. The Pinnacle school, under Mr. J. L. Goodhue, is admirably conducted. House crowded every day with much serious attention manifested. Mr. Goodhue
