Extra Special Notice

Parties desiring to attend Mr. G. A. Brodie's Clydesdale sale at Bethesda on January 8th should remember that conveyances will meet trains at Stouffville (G.T.R.), Gormley (C.N.R.), and Oak Ridge (Yonge street electric line), on the forenoon of day of sale. No conveyance will meet the trains at Richmond Hill, as previously announced, as it means a drive of nine miles. Oak Ridge will be more convenient.

Pine Grove Shorthorn Sale

The third annual sale of Shorthorns from Pine Grove herd, the property of W. C. Edwards & Co., will be the first important sale of the "Red, White and Roans" this year. The catalogue, a copy of which has just come to hand, is well worth a perusal by every Shorthorn breeder. Occasions are very rare when so many richly-bred animals are offered for sale by any one person. For many years there have been gathered into the Pine Grove herd at very great expense the best animals of the best blood lines obtainable. It is stock from this choice line of breeding that will be offered on January 9th, thus furnishing a rare opportunity to breeders to secure the very best kind of foundation stock for their herds. One paragraph from the sale announcement sums up the Shorthorn situation at Rockliff very nicely: "Pine Grove presents a good slice of
