

Bog Spavin

Cure the lameness and remove the bunch without scarring the horse—have the part looking just as it did before the blemish came.

Fleming's Spavin Cure (Liquid) is a special remedy for soft and semi-solid blemishes—Bog Spavin, Thoroughpin, Splint, Curb, Capped Hock, etc. It is neither a liniment nor a simple blister, but a remedy unlike any other—doesn't irritate and can't be imitated. Easy to use, only a little required, and your money back if it ever fails.

Fleming's Vest-Pocket
Veterinary Adviser

describes and illustrates all kinds of blemishes and gives you the information you ought to have before ordering or buying any kind of a remedy. Mailed free if you write.

A practical joker recently made his first trip to Niagara Falls, and a guide that he hired was trying to impress him with their magnitude, says the New York American.

"Grand!" suggested the guide.
The visitor did not seem impressed.
"Millions of gallons a minute," explained the guide.
"How many in a day?" asked the tourist.
"Oh, billions and billions!" said the guide.
The other looked across and down and up, as if gauging the flow, and then turned away disinterestedly.
"Runs all night, too, I suppose," he remarked nonchalantly.
The guide never recovered.

Eating for Strength.

The greatest pleasure to be derived from eating is the pleasure one gets in the knowledge that his food is giving him greater strength and vitality.

Because of this fact there is a constant increase in the consumption of Quaker Oats; every time the strength making qualities of Quaker Oats have been tested by scientific investigation or by experiments in families it has been found to be a food without an equal.

It builds the muscles and brain without taxing the digestive organs; it costs so little anyone can afford it, and it is so carefully prepared and packed that it is absolutely pure and clean. A Quaker Oats eating family is always a healthy family.

GOSSIP.

E. Dymont, Copetown, Ont., who advertises driving horses and ponies, writes: "We have had good sales for driving ponies during the past three months. Have still on hand fourteen head to select from, ranging in height from 10 hands to 13 hands. All guaranteed to be sound and reliable. We have also a few head of choice young driving horses, from 15½ hands to 16½. We can supply matched pairs or single drivers, mostly bays or browns in color, sound and gentle, and reasonable in price. Correspondence is solicited."

At D. Campbell's clearing sale of grade Holstein cattle at Harrietsville, Ont., on October 20th, good prices were realized, Sunshine, No. 2 in the catalogue, bringing $101, going to Norman Charlton, Brownsville. Frank Leeson, of Aylmer, bought a good thing in Daisy, at $72; Wm. Leeson captured the twins at $80 each; Mr. Murdock purchased four choice ones for the London Asylum; James McLaren, of The Grove, secured four grand cows; Annie Laurie and Rose went to Smith Bros., London Township. Other prominent buyers were McVicar Bros., South Dorchester; D. Curry, Yarmouth; A. Charlton, Springfield; A. E. Malpass & Son, Mossley, and I. Carson, Banner. The average for the whole herd was $67.83; the total sale amounted to $3,018.76, a record-breaker for a 50-acre farm sale in that section.

The International Live-stock Exposition, to be held at Chicago, Ill., from Nov. 27th to Dec. 10th, promises to excel, in extent of entries and quality of exhibits, all former exhibitions of the Association. The stock exhibited at the leading fall fairs has been of higher average excellence than that of former years, and the cream of the winners at all these shows will be found in the roundup at Chicago. The removal of the 30 days' quarantine in the case of Canadian sheep going into the United States, clears the way for our breeders to exhibit and to sell their stock untrammelled. There should, therefore, be a good showing of Canadian sheep and other stock at the Exposition, and many sales effected. Reduced railway fares will also be available, making the Exhibition an attraction to those who have not yet visited it, as well as to those who have been there and would go again.

We live in deeds, not years.
In thoughts, not breaths.
In feelings, not in figures on the dial.
We should count time by heart throbs.
He most lives
Who thinks most, feels the noblest, acts the best.

—Bailey.

Rudyard Kipling told this story about Simla: "Simla is in the mountains—the hills, as they say in India—and the ladies go there in the hot weather to escape the heat of the low country. Kipling said, that one lovely cool morning at Simla he was presented to a 'grass widow.' They call those ladies 'grass widows' whose husbands are detained by work in the hot cities of the plains. She was awfully pretty and charming, and, as they talked together in the pleasant coolness, Kipling said, 'I suppose you can't help thinking of your poor husband grilling down below?' The lady gave him a strange look, and he learned afterwards that she was a real widow."

A curious incident in the recent history of the Gray's Inn settlement of rooks is mentioned by a London correspondent.

It appears that a couple of carrion crows settled in the gardens and one day it was discovered that the rookery was deserted. The benchers, who are particularly proud of their rooks, gave orders for the carrion crows to be destroyed, and the gardener prepared pigeon's eggs with good doses of arsenic. The crows swallowed them and seemed to grow fatter and healthier. At last strychnine was used, and the pair were seen pecking at the egg. One of them fell as it flew up to the nest, the other reached the branch, reeled and dropped. Then a curious thing happened. Not a rook had been seen for weeks at Gray's Inn, but the next day they were all back as though advised by telegram.

Below will be found three sets of mixed or jumbled letters. The first set when placed in proper order spells the name of a popular fruit. The second set spells the name of an article in every kitchen. The third set spells the name of an article we all wear.

Here are the sets:
P A P E L [The name of a popular fruit.]
V O T E S [An article in every kitchen.]
A H T [An article we all wear.]

Can you place the above sets of letters in proper order, so as to spell the words wanted? It is not easy, but with patience and perseverance it can be done. It may take a small amount of your time, but as there are cash prizes and valuable premiums given away as an advertisement, it is well worth your time to make an effort.

It is just possible that you may have entered contests before and have not been successful, but please remember that in this instance you are dealing with a reliable firm and that there are over five hundred prizes to be distributed.

Write your answer to the above neatly and plainly on a slip of paper, and mail it to us at once. Both writing and neatness count in this contest. If you do not happen to be a good writer, have some neat writer enter the contest for you, in his or her name, and if you are awarded a prize, agree with the person who does the writing that the prize belongs to you. All this may take up a little time and be a little trouble, but the prizes are handsome and valuable, and worth many times the amount of time that anyone will give to the above.

Should you read this advertisement and yet not desire to enter the contest yourself, please point out the advertisement to some relation or friend who might be interested. This is an opportunity of a lifetime, and should not be missed.

This contest is not open to children under 14 years of age. We propose to hold a contest for young people very shortly, but will not accept entries from children in this one. Below is the prize list for the most correct, best written and neatest solution of the above:
