

CHRISTIAN BROTHERS' TRAINING COLLEGE

The training college of the Ontario Province of the Christian Brothers, known as the De La Salle Training College, Toronto, offers a splendid opportunity to boys and young men who desire to devote their lives to the great work of Catholic education in Ontario.

The object of the De La Salle Training College is to train boys and young men to become qualified teachers and worthy members of the Institute of the Brothers of the Christian Schools.

The Junior Novitiate is for boys from thirteen to seventeen years of age. The course of studies is that of the High Schools of Ontario and the students are prepared for the academic examinations required of teachers by the Department of Education.

The Senior Novitiate is for those who have completed their Junior Novitiate, and for young men who enter from the age of seventeen to twenty-five years.

The Scholasticate is for those who have completed their Senior Novitiate. They continue their academic training and, having passed the examinations required by the Education Department, follow the course of professional training at the Provincial Normal School or the Faculty of Education.

Qualifications for admission: The qualities required in those who apply for admission to the De La Salle Training College are: good health, ability to make the required studies a suitable disposition, and a desire for one's spiritual advancement.

A NON-CATHOLIC TRIBUTE

In a recent number of the Saturday Evening Post, Mary Roberts Rinehart pays a worthy tribute to the French and Belgian priests whom she had seen in the war zone.

"No article on the work of the Red Cross in France can be complete without a reference to the work of these priests, not perhaps affiliated with the society, but doing yeoman work of service among the wounded. They are everywhere, in the trenches or at the outposts, in the hospitals and hospital trains, in hundreds of small villages, where the entire community plus its burden of wounded turns to the curé for everything, from advice to the Sacrament.

"In prostrate Belgium the demands on the priests have been extremely heavy. Subjected to insult, injury and even death during the German invasion, where in one diocese alone thirteen were put to death—their churches destroyed, or used as barracks by the enemy—that which was their world has turned to chaos about them. Those who remained with their conquered people have done their best to keep their small communities together and to look after their material needs—which has, indeed, been the lot of the priests of battle-scarred Flanders for many generations.

"Others have attached themselves to the hospital service. All the Belgian trains of wounded are cared for solely by these priests, who perform every necessary service for their men."

Mrs. Rinehart is not a Catholic, but she can appreciate heroic unselfishness, and devotion to duty. Will the governments that outlawed priests who were religious, and then welcomed them back in the shock of war, make their home-coming permanent?—America.

the City Hospital by the genius, love-liness of character and the great humanity of Sister Regina, long time the head and the inspiration of the City Hospital, and also in behalf of themselves, the Commissioners of Mobile now here make a permanent record upon the minutes of the board of their appreciation of the supreme excellency of Sister Regina Kenny as a devoted friend to the afflicted and servant to the poor, and splendid organizer and administrator of the city's chief charity, in which she gave us cause to feel great pride, and of her beautiful and amiable character.

Her passing is a personal grief to each member of this community, and is experienced as a loss to the community as well as to the devoted Sisterhood of which she was a member.—Philadelphia Standard and Times.

A man would not go very far wrong if he could learn to treat his case as if it were his neighbor's and then take the advice he would give to his neighbor. The tendency to preserve, to persist in spite of hindrances, discouragements, and impossibilities; it is this that in all things distinguished the strong soul from the weak.—Caryl.

"SAFETY FIRST" "Safety First" Consists in Avoiding Risks. There is the Risk of your death and the resulting stoppage of your income. You can provide against that by the ordinary forms of life insurance. But there is the risk of your income being cut off or reduced through old age. And there is also the further risk that insurance moneys paid at your death to inexperienced dependants will be lost. The ordinary insurance policy will not protect you against these. The Insurance and Income Policy of the Capital Life meets all these requirements. It will provide:— For your Beneficiary at your death—a fixed Annual or Monthly income over a term of years. For yourself if you live to age 65—a fixed Income over a term of years or for life. And the premium is often lower than for ordinary policies and always moderate. Write Us for information. All We Need Is Date of Birth.
