

MONDAY, 19th of OCTOBER, 1789.

The order of the day being read.

House attended his Excellency with their addresses.

The House attended the Speaker with their address in answer to his Excellency's Speech—to which his Excellency was pleased to return the following answer :

“ Gentlemen,

His Excellency's answer.

“ I RETURN you my thanks for your address, and I shall, with particular satisfaction, transmit to his Majesty, your expressions of dutiful and loyal attachment on this happy occasion.”

Read the third time as engrossed.

Bills read the third time—and

“ A bill for erecting a parish in the city of Saint John and incorporating the Rectors, Church Wardens and Vestries of the Church of England in the several parishes in this province.”

“ A bill in amendment of an act, entitled An act for assessing, collecting and levying county rates.”—and

“ A bill to repeal an act entitled An act to empower the Foreman of the grand juries to administer the usual oaths to such witnesses as are to be examined before them.”

Ordered to be sent up for concurrence.

Ordered, That the said bills pass—and be sent up for concurrence.

Motion by Mr.
Chipman.

Mr. Chipman moved for leave to withdraw the bill “ to enable the proprietors of a Peninsula of interval land lying at the entrance of the river Oromocto to erect a temporary gate and fence across the road laid out there,” and to substitute in the room thereof “ A bill to authorise the erection of temporary gates across certain roads in the several counties in this province where the same shall be found necessary and for other purposes therein mentioned.”

Leave was granted.

Bill read first and second time
—and ordered to be committed.

And the said bill, being brought in accordingly, was read the first and second time, and—Ordered to be committed.

House in committee.

The Attorney General in the chair.

House in committee.

Took into consideration “ A bill in amendment to an act entitled An act for regulating the fisheries in the different rivers, coves and creeks of this province.”

The