Inquiry Into Death of Three Pole Girls

The inquest to fix responsibility for the accident that caused the death of three Polish girls at Beamsville when a H.G. & B. car collided with a drayload of berry-pickers, was only partly considered at Beamsville the following afternoon. Twenty-five witnesses were heard, and the evidence of all was to the effect that both car and dray were proceeding at a moderate rate of speed when the affair happened. Several witnesses suggested that some shrubbery along the hillside might have prevented the driver of the dray from seeing the approaching car. The inquest will be concluded next Tuesday.

Woman Spy Saved Some Clumsy Errors

Paris, July 29.—At the court martial of Louis J. Malvy, former Minister of Interior, Col. Zopf was called to the stand and said that Madame de Brun, who testified early in the day, had been a loyal and devoted agent and that some clumsy mistakes had been prevented by her being sent to Germany where she might have been shot. He corroborated her testimony in that she expressed regret at not being allowed to return to Germany.

Strikes and the Public.

The strike is the extreme resort of the worker, and no one has a right to take it away from him without leaving him a security of equal value. But it should not be a negotiation. More especially is this so when the strike is a serious inconvenience and loss to the public. Settlement by negotiation may concern the two parties and the public can afford to leave the affair with them. A strike on a public utility or in war service drag in all the people in the most damaging way, and if it is not necessary, in a most unfair way.—Vancouver Province.

Open Quarrel at Peace Conference.

Amsterdam, July 29.—A despatch from Kiev to the Rheinische Westfaelische Zeitung of Essen says "The last sitting of the peace conference culminated in an open quarrel between the Russians and the Ukrainians. Friction also developed between the Ukrainians and the delegates representing the republic of the Don Cossacks owing to territorial claims, but the negotiations will be continued. All relations were broken off with the Crimean republic."

Helped Along.

Cobourg, July 29.—Last week a young lady with a rather sorrowful tale, called on Chief Ruse to unfold her troubles, and, as usual, he played the good samaritan. Her home is in Walkerville, and her intended husband was at Brockville, with the Railway Construction Corps. She went to Brockville to be married, but on arriving there found her intended had gone overseas. She was without money, and has been sent on from town to town by the authorities. Chief Ruse gave her a helping hand here.

Something Like a War Baby.

An infant was lately found upon the veldt a mile from Murraysburg, which had been abandoned by its parents, said to be Europeans. It had lain there newly born and naked, for sixty-four hours, and endured extremities of weather. Between the Wednesday of its desertion and the Saturday when it was discovered, there had passed a night of frost, a day of scorching, and more than a day of drenching rain, yet this specimen of modern infancy had "stuck it" through condition, despite the exposure. The medical men are still puzzling over this sturdy freak of nature, and the only cause for regret is that the reports do not mention the sex of the child. It deserves higher honors than the non-committal "it."—Cape Times.

Showed Kindness to Stranger; Left $8,000.

Kingston, Ont., July 29.—As a result of showing kindness to a strange man who knocked at their door seventeen years ago when he was down and out, the family of the late John McKegg, of this city, have been notified that the man, John Henderson, whom they befriended has died and left them $8,000. The incident had almost been forgotten by the family but they recall that about seventeen years ago a man knocked at their door one morning, while they were at breakfast. Mr. McKegg asked the man to take breakfast with them and he did so, making a note of the family who had given the meal. Later he went into business and a letter just received from New Jersey tells of the money in his will for the Kingston family.

No Answer.

Geneva, July 29.—"How many sons has your Majesty lost? How many have been wounded or mutilated?" These questions, incorporated in a telegram, were sent to the German Emperor on Thursday by new liberal German-American Pastor Dryander, founder of the paper Friedensruf, (Peace Call) of Zurich. "In the event that there have been no casualties in the Imperial family," the telegram continues, "we demand an immediate explanation." Emperor Bill has not replied.

Inquest Over Wm. E. Rankin

Jury's Verdict at Trenton—H. Paquette to Appear Before Magistrate O'Rourke.

At Trenton on Friday evening the coroner's jury upon the body of Wm. E. Rankin, who died at that town as the result of injuries received while in the service of the British Chemical Works, rendered the following verdict: "We, the jurors, find that Wm. E. Rankin came to his death on July 12, 1918, in the Town of Trenton, County of Hastings, as the result of burns received on July 11th whilst at work at the plant of the British Chemical Company, at Trenton. Said burns caused by acid in a certain tank boiling over as the result of a tap being left open by the person in charge."

Prior to the bringing in of the verdict, Henry Paquette, who had been summoned as a witness, claimed protection from giving evidence as a charge had been preferred against him under Section 284 of the Criminal Code for negligently omitting to do an act which was his duty to do, and a warrant was issued for his arrest. The case will come up before Magistrate O'Rourke, of Trenton, on Wednesday, July 31st, at 2 p.m. Mr. Wm. Carnew, County Attorney, for the Crown; A. Abbott for deceased's estate.
