ROME CHURCH PACKED

Preacher Declares Issue is

Faith Versus
Atheism

ROME, Feb. 27.—The American Methodist Church was crowded this morning, the congregation including many English and Scotch Presbyterians.
The Rev. Dr. Tipler, who is at present in Rome, declared the issue to be "Faith versus Atheism." He said that the Catholic Church was the only one which had not been destroyed by the Reformation, and that it was the only one which had not been destroyed by the French Revolution.

The Rev. Dr. Tipler said that the Catholic Church was the only one

WHAT THE WORKERS THINK OF THE CAMPAIGN NOW ENDING

REV. DR. WINCHESTER.

DR. SMITH.
Dr. Smith, of the Main Street group, said that he was surprised to find that John, a city of church goers.
Large numbers of young people and little folks attend church, which is not the case in most cities. I think I have been associated with Dr. Chapman in many of his campaigns and have run many of my own and I can safely say this has been the most harmonious I have ever taken part in.

I was more than impressed with the unity of the ministers. I noticed no desire on the part of any to build up especially their own church, but all seemed actuated by only one desire to build up the Kingdom of God, their individual church being an after consideration. The services in the North End have been splendid and many, I believe, have been led to saving knowledge of Christ.

Dr. Smith is the superintendent of the evangelist committee of New York City, which is doing a wonderful work among the foreigners and outcasts. Last summer the committee held 200 meetings, speaking to something over 300,000 people. The meetings are addressed in six different languages. An Italian church was started four years ago and now has over 200 members.

EVANGELISTS AND
SINGERS ENTERTAINED

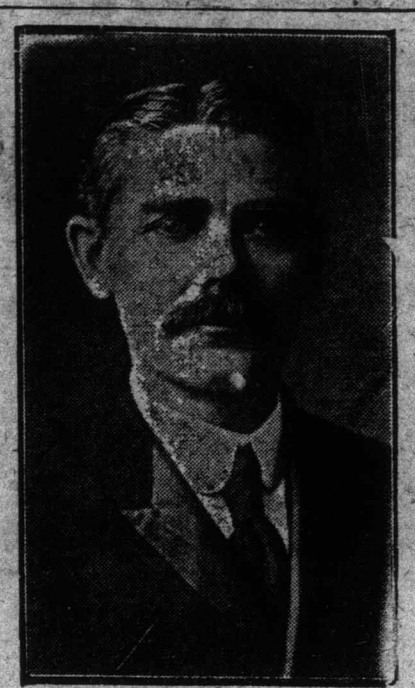

Pleasant Function in Their Honor at Noon Today—Mutual Appreciation Expressed.

An informal banquet was tendered the evangelists at the Nickel assembly rooms today. The idea originated with the laymen and in co-operation with the ministers it was carried out.
It was felt that some such honor should be accorded the men who have done such valiant work during the campaign and would also give a chance for people to meet them.

The tables were very tastefully arranged for the occasion. Rev. Charles R. Flanders, of the Centenary group, was the chairman and with him at the tables as guests of honor were the evangelists and singers.
After the lunch had been done full justice, the chairman called upon the chairman of each group, who spoke briefly in appreciation of the work of the guests and the permanent effect they felt their work would have on the churches and the city at large. A number of the evangelists replied, thanking the committee for their kindnesses and the church people of the city who had done so much to make their stay here pleasant. They would always cherish pleasant memories of the St.
John's Campaign in St. John. An improvised programme of singing was carried out.

FRANKLIN A. BOWDOIN.

I have been impressed in this great campaign with the power of prayer. I believe that the day of prayer held at the three large centres was a great blessing to all the churches and the city. In addition to this the power of song was an important factor in the campaign. I have never heard people sing as heartily as they have in St.
John.

DR. A. D. MCPHIE.

It is very difficult at such short range to tell just what results may follow from this campaign in this of any other group. Sometimes the most obvious results are not the most lasting, while on the other hand those that are slow in maturing are more permanent. It is quite safe, however, to say that all the churches in this group have received an immense spiritual impetus which will not soon be dispatched. This was particularly noticeable during the closing days of Mr. Winchester's visit, and had been able to remain until the close of the campaign it would have been even more apparent. The spiritual was made to the heart, as well as the heart, interest in spiritual things has been quickened both among those who have been professing Christians already and among those who have perhaps have not thought of them previously.

As Mr. Winchester had not the methods of the ordinary revivalist, the number of those testifying or signing cards was not so large as in many of the other groups. Yet thus far I have heard no word of dissatisfaction from the work and how eager his desire for a successful issue.

Another fact which characterized the work of this group and, I believe, of all the others as well, was the complete harmony between the congregations concerned. No jar or friction of any kind took place and I confess that it was while writing this, the thought of friction first crossed my mind. I am firmly of the conviction that this unanimity of opinion will be one of the great objects lessons of the campaign both to outsiders and to those responsible for its inauguration. St. John has set the example amongst Canadian cities in uniting her Christian people in the service of the Lord and it is to be hoped that the inspiration which is so apparent amongst us today may be productive of good works and prove to be of lasting value to our city.

MR. F. M. LAMB.
The ministry of song is as old as the heavens. It began when "the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy." It is a ministry of soul to soul. While pleasing to the ear, quickening to the mind, stimulating to thought, it chiefly appeals to the emotions, which when the song is sung to its need, are stirred with unspeakable delight. Under the influence of music the mind becomes keener in

FINAL NOONDAY MEETINGS
DREW THE USUAL CROWDS

Dr. Smith and Mr. Matheson Heard Today —The Latter Talked on "Sam-son's Barber Shop."

The noon meetings today at the Nickel and Unique theatres were crowded. The farewell good-bye meeting at the Nickel was led by Rev.
Dr. Smith of the Main Street group.
Mr. William Matheson delivered an eloquent and stirring address to men at the Unique.

At the Nickel the singing was led in a very efficient manner by Evangelist Lawrence Greenwood of the Fairville group. These on the platform were Messrs. Lamb, Peters, Smith, Hutchinson and Miss Conrad.
Messrs. Peters and Greenwood sang a duet, "How Wonderful" a duet was also sung by Messrs. Peters and Lamb, "In Jesus." Mr. Greenwood proved himself an able musical leader.
In his witty way he soon got the sympathy of the audience and had them singing with a will.

Dr. Smith delivered a stirring address. He referred to the good he had received from the meetings and the benefit he believed they would be to the people. Many testified to having received visions of the higher life by reason of the meetings of the campaign.

Evangelist Matheson addressed a crowded house at the Unique. Mr. C.
H. Allen of the St. Andrew's group led the singing. The speaker spoke on the subject, "Samson's barber shop." He took his text from Psalm 118: 137:
"Open thou mine eyes that I may see wonderful things out of Thy law."

Men's eyes shall open only as he obeys the laws of God, and as such as he is in obedience to the laws of Jesus Christ, loving Jesus with all his heart.
The commandment is a lamp and the law a light, that will cause a man to discern right from wrong. That is the reason why so many people fall into sin because they do not consent to the laws of God. If "Samson" had obeyed the laws of the Almighty he would have had his eyes and strength, but because he disobeyed, and went into sin he was shorn of his strength in the lap of pleasure, but his eyes were opened and he found out his mistake. He who had been a terror to men was now the laughing stock of women.

He closed with an urgent appeal to the men of St. John to profit by Sam-son's life and get in touch with God before it is too late.

REV. MR. GREENWOOD.
Rev. Mr. Greenwood of the Fairville group: I have enjoyed my stay here in St. John, though the group to which I was assigned was small, yet I feel my work was blessed. The work in the campaign was well received owing to the leadership of skilled directors been well demonstrated. There is always the danger of church choirs becoming merely professional, not so much by choice as by necessity, the necessity created by a congregation that is content to listen rather than to sing. The potential power of song in the people of our churches, young and old, has been called forth by an unusual measure. It has been conveniently shown that the function of a church choir is not to do the singing for the congregation, but to inspire the congregation to whole-hearted singing.

I would like to have seen a fair trial given in this campaign to our best church hymns, the hymns our people will be singing after the campaign is over. I am not yet prepared to admit that a campaign of evangelism could not be made really more effective if associated with the great hymns of the centuries. The value of any evangelistic campaign must be gauged by the permanent results. Spiritual results cannot be weighed or measured in mathematical terms. The three-week campaign in this city has been a source of spiritual uplift, and has been of real value because it has given a new vantage ground for future advance.

REV. L. A. McLEAN.
"As chairman of the Music Committee, I have been impressed with the great power of the song-service in the Evangelistic Campaign. The forming of great choruses under the leadership of a musical director in each group is a new idea, and this is the first time it has been tried in an evangelistic campaign in the Maritime Provinces, and the experiment has been a very successful one. The St. John people have been captivated by the song service in the various groups and these services have been a great success in attracting people who might not otherwise attend. The popular hymns sung at the meetings will be remembered by many for years to come. The great song services held on Saturday night under the leadership of Mr. Chas. F.
Allen assisted by the other musical directors and the combined choruses of the various groups, have been a presented evangelistic power in the City of St. John."

DOUBLE DROWNING
AT CHARLOTTETOWN

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Feb.
28.—Last night a double drowning occurred in Charlottetown harbor, the victims being Mrs. John Mc-Intyre, aged 45, who lived on a farm at Rosedale, on the opposite side of the harbor, and the married man, Daniel Plaisant, aged 28. They had attended service in St. Dunstan's R.
C. Cathedral and afterwards started to drive across the harbor on the ice to their home, about a mile away. A watchman on the wharf heard cries of distress, and he ran to the Labor Union hall, two blocks away, securing a number of young men, who hailed a boat on the ice and began searching for the missing couple. It was upheld by her cap and hair frozen into the ice at the edge of open water, where the winter steamer Earl Grey berthed. The body was submerged up to the forehead. It is supposed that she and Plaisant were walking alongside of the sleigh when it broke through. She ran for help towards the light of the marine wharf and fell into the open water. There is no trace yet of Plaisant or the horses. Mrs. Mc-Intyre leaves a husband and three children. Further details show that just as the young men were launching the boat from the wharf the woman, who had been calling, "Come to me quick," ceased her cries. The body was only twenty-five feet away and the rescuers have been able to locate it at first she might have been saved.
