CHICAGO, May 4.—Canadian Government restriction of exports had a bullish effect today on the wheat market here. Gains in price, however, were not all held, the close being weak at ½c to %c above last, night. Corn finished %c to ½c un, bats at a shade off to %c advance, and provisions with a rise of 10c to 20c.

to 20c.

Corn developed strength largely as a result of Argentine advices, telling of severe crop damage. Assertions, tho, that European demand had turned to the U.S. were not confirmed. Shorts in oats took to cover owing to the bulge in other grain. There was also gossip that cash demand had much improved.

Enlarged export trade tended to lift provisions. Besides hog receipts today were not so plentiful as had been looked for.

By Special Wire to the Courier. London, May 6-The Petrograd newspapers to-day seem to indicate that little news has been allowed to leak out in the Russian capital concerning the latest Austro-German attack on the Russian forces in the east. The Times' Petrograd correspondent, in a despatch dated Wednesday, says that while the German movement in Baltic provinces is fizzling out the WINNIPEG, Man., May 4.—The pressure of the Austro-German forces east of Cracow may be regarded as

The nature of the hostile grouping in the strictly defined Wheat: May 164%, Sept. 162%, Sept. 113½.

The undertone was firm, with a fair advance established. There were moments of weakness when wheat was lower, with local professionals selling, but prices came right back. Seaboard reported further export inquiry without defining actual sales and there was a better demand here for fresh shelled corn, with some business accomplished. Car lots were unchanged to ½c lower.

The action in this market was similar to that in corn, final prices being a shade to the carrathians." sections rather indicates that strong foe whose object is apparently to turn our position in the Carpathians." The Daily Mail's Petrograd correspondent says:

"It is not yet clear where the enemy's main blow will be directed. All the Germans and Austrians have done up to the present is to attack at many places in the hope of confusing the Russians as to their real objective. "Hitherto the most vigorous initiative has been shown in the Cracow region. The whole aim of German strategy is to keep the Russian army out of Hungary. Wheat there is sprouting, and on it the Germans and
