

SCENE

Mrs. Hamilton, while in the city, is the guest of Mrs. Geo. Watt, Dufferin Avenue.

Mrs. Hedley Snider has joined Major Snider in Brantford.—Toronto Globe.

Mr. Lloyd Harris and Mr. Arthur Dunstan were in Chicago this week on business.

Mrs. A. T. Dunstan, Brant Ave., spent the week-end in Hamilton, the guest of Mrs. John Knox.

Col. M. E. B. Cutcliffe, was in Toronto this week, on business in connection with the 125th Battalion.

Miss Helen Oldham has returned from Berlin, where she has been visiting for the past week or so.

Rev. Mr. Moulton, Clinton, Ont., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Syer, 7 Wilkes Street, for a few days this week.

Miss Muriel Bennett was the hostess at a charming little luncheon this week, given in honor of Mrs. Logie Armstrong.

Mrs. Graham of New York, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Gordon Smith, Chatham St., has returned home.

Miss Margaret Bishop, is spending the week-end at the parental home, from The Bishop Strachan School Toronto.

Mrs. Henry MacLean entertained the members of the sewing club, at the tea hour on Monday, at her home on Brant Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Preston, have returned from Montreal, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Wood for a few days.

Mrs. J. T. Rose of Bronte, a former resident of this city, is a popular visitor in town just now, the guest of Mrs. Thos. Elliott, Edgerton St.

Mr. and Mrs. Egan, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Mabon Dufferin Ave. for the past month or so, left on Wednesday for their home in Nova Scotia.

Mrs. James W. Digby leaves today for New York, where she will remain for a couple of weeks, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Pyke, later visiting in St. Johns, N.B., with relatives.

The Misses Dorothy and Katherine Rogers of Winnipeg, are up from The Bishop Strachan School, Toronto, spending the week-end with the Misses Bunnell, Wellington St.

Mrs. Fred Wilkes, who has been a popular visitor in town, the past month, the guest of the Misses Syer, Dufferin Ave., and Mrs. George Wilkes, Chatham St., returned to her home in Toronto, this week.

Interesting letters have been received in the city from Dr. Charles Crompton, who is at present attending important work at Saloniki, supervising the pure water supply, and other sanitary arrangements.

Mrs. A. J. Wilkes and Mrs. Logie Armstrong, were receiving on Thursday afternoon, when a great many friends availed themselves of the opportunity to welcome Mrs. Armstrong home again, after a years' sojourn abroad.

Mrs. Jos. Stratford, left early in the week for Ottawa, where she will be the guest of relatives. Mrs. Stratford expects to see her son, Mr. Jack Stratford, in Ottawa, who enlisted recently with a Winnipeg Battalion. Mr. Jack Stratford leaves shortly for active service overseas.

A Talent Tea was held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Digby, Wellington St., on Wednesday afternoon, and the demand for home made dainties greatly exceeded the supply, everything being sold at an early hour. A large sum was made, which will go to the fund to help secure comforts for our soldiers prisoners.

Many friends will be interested to hear of the appointment of Rev. H. D. F. Woodcock, M.A., Rector of St. Jude's Church, Oakville, and formerly Assistant Rector of Grace Church, this city, to be Chaplain of the new Halkon and Dufferin Battalion, now being recruited. While in this city he made a host of friends, and has been associated with the Brant Division as Chaplain, before leaving for Oakville. Mr. Woodcock qualified as a Major, and now takes the rank of Captain in the new battalion.

An engagement which will be of interest to many Brantford friends, has been announced recently, the marriage to take place March 26th, Miss Helen Sykes, Toronto, is well known in this city, having visited here on many occasions, with her aunt, Mrs. H. McKay Wilson. Mr. George Moleworth is also well known to many Brantfordites and the young couple have made themselves very popular with a wide circle of friends. The marriage ceremony will take place on March 26th at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Sykes, Rosedale, Toronto.

A pleasant tea was spent on Thursday at tea by the Equal Franchise Club and Executive of the Women's Emergency Corp. An informal reception was given to those present in an opportunity to meet Mrs. L. A. Hamilton, President of the National Equal Franchise Association, the guest of honor. The tables were prettily decorated in violets, lilac of the valley and green, the Chippendale catkins, and the colors, and smaller tables having set Mrs. L. A. Hamilton, Mrs. Cutcliffe, Mrs. Geo. Watt, Mrs. Gordon H. Preston, N. D. Neill, Julius Warrance, Schell, Matthew Muir, Livingstone, Misses Colter, Hollinrake, Mrs. Hately, S. W. Secord, Tilley, Harbison, Mrs. Howard Jackson, Burrows, Rowe and Misses Neal, Garven and Mitchell.

Miss Sheldon of Galt is visiting Miss Marion Watts, William street, Chicago, the guest of Mrs. Geo. Watt, Dufferin Ave.

Miss Muriel Bennett, Brant Ave., was in Toronto this week for a couple of days.

Miss Daisy Dalton of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. Geo. Watt, Dufferin Ave.

Miss Hilda Hurley is the guest for the week end of Miss Beatrice Gerrie of Hamilton.

Mrs. A. S. Towers is visiting in Chicago, the guest of her sister, Miss Louise Kirtidge.

Miss Vera Redden is spending the week-end in Hamilton, the guest of Mrs. B. Forsyth.

Mrs. Kate Laycock of Albany, N.Y., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Worles, Brantford.

Mrs. W. Creighton is spending the week-end in Hamilton, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Leggat.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Sutherland and Mr. Logan Sutherland are spending a few days in New York.

Miss Hewitt, Brant Ave., was a visitor in Hamilton and Grimsby this week, returning home on Thursday.

Mrs. Scott and little daughter Rebecca, of Toronto, are the guests of Mrs. Harvey Watt, Dufferin Ave.

Mr. Chester Harris leaves shortly for Kingston, where he will go in training for an officers' course.

About twenty-seven women have signed up as willing to take the men's places, at the recruiting depot, at Brantford, chiefly in demand are those of clerks, post office, banks, reporters, etc. One application has come in from a lady in St. Thomas. Miss Evelyn Back is in charge of the depot from 10-12, 2-5 each afternoon at present.

Mrs. George Dunstan and Miss Urechen Dunstan spent a few days in Toronto this week, while there attending a performance of "The Great Pursuit," in which Miss Phyllis Neilson-Terry, Marie Tempest and an all star cast are playing.

Rev. Canon Hedley of St. John's Church, Port Arthur, has been named chaplain of the 125th Battalion. Canon Hedley is very well known in this city some years ago being curate of Grace Church. He is a son-in-law of Rev. Dr. Macdonald, Albion St.

A delightful luncheon party with Miss Phyllis Neilson-Terry, Miss Edith King, Miss Jeanne Eagles, and Miss Cynthia Brooke as guests of honor, was given at the King Edward on Thursday by some of the officers of the Canadian Buffs, 19th Battalion. The luncheon followed the recruiting speech, made by Miss Neilson-Terry at the city hall, and the members of her talented guests spent a very enjoyable time. The table was very effectively decorated with pink carnations and maiden hair ferns.

Montreal Mail.—The will of the late Lieut.-Col. Yates, in command of the 1st Canadian General Hospital, in France, who died at Ramsgate, England, on January 22, 1916, was probated yesterday on the petition of the late officer's widow, through her attorney, C. Isles, K.C.

The will, dated November 7, 1910, and witnessed by John H. Dunlop, Esq., and D. James Angus, reads in part as follows:—

"I give and bequeath the use and enjoyment of all the property I may be possessed of, to my wife Alice Mary Bunting, during the term of her natural life, expressly exempting her from giving the security to which manufacturers are usually held.

"After the death of my wife, I give, devise and bequeath the ownership of all the property I may be possessed of, and personal, moveable and immovable, to the children issue of my marriage with the said Alice Mary Bunting, share and share alike."

The testator appoints his wife sole executrix, giving her power to sell and invest part or the whole of the property.

NEW YORK CITY. (From the World's Work)

From a racial standpoint, New York presents a striking peculiarity. It contains more Irishmen than any city in Ireland; it is the largest German city except Berlin, and the largest Italian city except Naples. More remarkable than all this, however, is the fact that the city now shelters more Jews than were ever assembled before in one place perhaps, since the beginning of time. At its period of greatest prosperity Jerusalem contained about 600,000 Jews; New York city, one man in every five is a Jew; in Manhattan, one man in every four.

A great many Brantfordites are going to Hamilton this afternoon to take in the military review, which will be quite an event, three miles of soldiers participating in the procession. The members of the Literary Club are holding the annual luncheon today at the Y. W. C. A. The guest of honor, Mrs. L. A. Hamilton, of Toronto.

An army deserter who escaped from custody in the Staffordshire, England, police, was pursued, and caught by an Alameda terrier, which held him until a constable arrived.

Farmers are alarmed over the shortage of agricultural labor in Nottinghamshire. Women and boys are being utilized as much as possible, but it is impossible to find substitutes for ploughmen, and unless something can be done, a lot of arable land will have to be put down for grass. To prevent this the county agricultural society is taking steps to introduce mechanical cultivators more particularly for use on rough land.

LADIES' NIGHT AT A. O. F.

Successful Function Held Last Evening—Best of the Series.

The "Ladies' Night" given last evening under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Foresters in their hall, was a splendid success. The attendance was exceptionally large, the programme good and everybody enjoyed themselves immensely. There was a gratifying number of ladies and societies present.

The A. O. F. have given several evenings for the benefit of the men who have enlisted, and this one was for their benefit, as well as the ladies, but last night's affair was the best of the series. The occasion was graciously attended by the High Chief Companion, Mrs. Martin of Hamilton. On the platform were also present: Jos. H. Ham, M.P.P., ex-Mayor of Hamilton; P. Saipie, D. C. R. of Hamilton; Chief Companion Miss Ashby of Hamilton; Pte. Wm. Bailey, D. C. R. Brantford district No. 10; ex-Mayor Hartman and Maj. H. McLean; Chief Companion; and read letters of regret from Acting Mayor J. S. Dowling, Col. H. Cockshutt, High Chief Ranger Martin and Col. Cutcliffe.

Mr. Ira D. Scruton, secretary of Court Success acted as chairman and presented an exceptionally interesting programme. During the course of the evening, Mr. Jos. Ham presented the prizes won at the eucure tournament to Bros. A.H. Pinkham, John Wiles, John Horning and Jas. Thompson.

Addresses were given by High Chief Companion Mrs. Martin, Mr. Ham, ex-Mayor Spence, D. C. R. Bro. Saipie.

Songs were contributed by Pte. Sharnan of the 125th Batt., Mr. Norman Buck, Chief Companion, P. Parkworth, Mr. A. Pickles, Pte. William Murray and Maj. H. McLean of the 125th Battalion.

The instrumental selection by Ptes. Budd, Kent, Girdlestone and Sharnan of the 125th regiment; Mr. Arthur Chrysler, Miss Cowtan and Miss Bremier.

Readings by Miss Pearl File and Mr. A. Pickles.

One of the features of the evening, was a black-faced sketch by Pte. Leitch, in the great success of the evening, and he introduced a number of local hits and was vociferously cheered.

Every number was well given and the members of the order of the evening, presented themselves to be a versatile crowd, and in many cases, musical and vocal artists connected with the Battalion.

At the conclusion of the programme an abundance of refreshments were served and a pleasant social hour spent.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the numerous performers by Messrs. W. Harris and Jos. Bond, and heartily concurred in by the audience.

The prizes for the eucure tournament were donated by Messrs. J. D. Palmer, Dr. Secord, R. T. Whitlock and Reid and Brown.

Many congratulations were tendered to the committee in charge for the very pleasant evening they had provided their friends.

WINDSOR SOLDIER SHOT BY ACCIDENT

Shell Exploded While Guard Was Extracting It From His Rifle.

Windsor, Ont., March 18.—While removing the shells from his rifle, after coming off duty this morning, Pte. Everett Cousins of the 90th Battalion, stationed at Essex, accidentally killed Pte. Jack Lanigan, who was asleep on the floor of the barracks, at the time the affair is looked upon as a pure accident. Pte. Cousins was taken into custody and will be held pending a military enquiry by Colonel West, commanding officer of the battalion.

The watch repair trade in Glasgow finds it impossible to keep going. Owing to every available skilled hand being called up to undertake Government mechanical work, Glasgow jewelers and watchmakers announce that they will not undertake to repair watches unless in gold cases and of special value, and at two months' notice. Watches and clocks are being returned to the owners, as jewelers say there is no prospect of repair work being executed while the war lasts. Many workshops are closed and converted for the production of munitions.

The death occurred at Whalode Drove, in the south of Lincolnshire, of William Perkins, at the age of 103 years and ten months. His wife, who is 72 years old, survives him. They had been married for over 72 years, and for 70 years lived in the same cottage. With an old age pension each, they declared that they found life well worth living. Mr. Perkins had suggested to the government that old age pensions for centenarians should be doubled.

HAVE GOOD HEALTH

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the Old Reliable Spring Tonic.

Don't let the idea that you may feel better in a day or two prevent you from getting a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla today from any drug store and starting at once on the road to health and strength.

When your blood is impure and impoverished it lacks vitality, your digestion is poor, and all the functions of your body are impaired.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest known blood tonic. It will build you up quicker than any other medicine. It gives strength to do and power to endure. It is the old standard tried and true all-the-year-round blood purifier and enricher, tonic and appetizer. Nothing else has done for mankind what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done. It has the same formula of ingredients. Be sure to ask for Hood's, get it today, and begin taking it at once.

"PINAFORE" AT ST. BASIL'S HALL

Hamilton Society Stages Old Favorite to a Crowded House Last Night.

PRINCIPAL'S PARTS WERE WELL TAKEN

Mr. W. G. Raymond Delivered Short Notable Address on "Ireland."

St. Basil's Hall, crown St., was crowded to the doors last night to hear the rendition of the famous comic opera, "H.M.S. Pinafore," by the St. Lawrence Musical and Dramatic Society of Hamilton. The famous old opera, with its wonderful music and dialogue, remains in popular favor after 40 years of existence, and whether produced by amateurs or the most perfectly trained companies, it has earned a reputation as a crowded house and storms of applause.

The rendition last night by the Hamilton society was most pleasing and much above the average of such productions. The work and singing of the principals was surprisingly good. Miss M. Sheridan as Josephine, and Mr. J. J. Wilmott as the low-born Ralph (the company gave it the Canadian pronunciation) took hits in a splendid style. The duets between the two were exceptionally enjoyable.

Mr. F. Dwyer, Sr., impersonated Joseph Porter, K. C. B., while Captain Corcoran was sung by Mr. F. Dwyer, Jr. in good voice, and with rather Irish accent. Mr. J. Gilpin proved to be an amusing Dick Deadeye, and his make-up was terrifying enough for De Wolf Hopper. A feature of the evening was the dancing of the hornpipe by Miss N. Brick, which earned appreciative accolades.

Before the performance began, an exquisite little address on "Ireland" was delivered by Mr. W. G. Raymond, president of the Brantford Women's Emergency Corps, and Mr. Raymond, who is the well-known and beloved citizen of Brantford, said Dean Brady in introducing the speaker. As upon no other night of a splendid meeting of women the view of the W. E. Corps was formed, could an Irishman be so proud of his country as now. Home rule, after years of struggle towards it, had been attained. In the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in the great struggle for liberty the Irish were bearing a splendid share. Lord Kitchener and Sir John French were Irish. The great, good-borne fighting qualities of the nation were coming out during this war. He closed his speech with a touching reference to the heroic Irish priest of Gallipoli, who shot almost to pieces, and in