Report of Trouble on Claim Dawson. No. 2.

Prominent Part in the Affair class of people. Neither of the Principals Seen.

From Saturday's Daily. A report of trouble which occurred on Eldorado creek during the week has reached town. A Nugget representative endeavored to find the principals in the affair but was unable to do so, and the circulation in town.

According to the report R. P. Elliott, who brought in a lot of mining machinery last fall made arrangements with foreman Miller of No. 2 Eldorado to place a portion of the machinery on that claim. Everything went satis factorily and the machinery, which included several boilers of the most im- the proved pattern, was placed on the ing, escaping to either shore. Frank Phiscator, who went outside in that some disagreement arose between like the front ranks of a funeral proces-Miller and Elliott as to the terms upon which the machinery was being used made a demand upon Miller for the boilers. Miller refused to deliver the goods and upon Elliott insisting upon getting the boilers Miller retired to his with which he announced his intention of repeling all invasions upon his terri-

Eliott, so the story goes, upon seeing that all negotiations were thus summarily suspended, decided that discretion would be the better part of valor, retreated in good order with the intention of working the strong arm of the law in his behalf. So far as known, however, he has not as yet done so.

After being rocked for some time by the ripples of domestic infelicity the bark in which Walter and Mary Sweetman were drifting adown the sea of matrimony has finally been wrecked on the sand bar of incompatability, one of occupants, metaphorically speak claim, which, by the way, is owned by and Mary were both in court this morn ing, the former on the charge of having assaulted his wife and the latter, beaten August last. A few days ago it appears and pummeled until her face looked sion, in the role of prosecuting witness. When Sweetman entered the courtroom from the jail he held a brief consultaand the latter went to the claim and tion with his wife, after which both stood up before the judge. Sweetman acknowledged having beaten and abused his wife. "But judge," said he, "I was just now telling her that if she getting the boilers Miller retired to his won't push this charge I'll leave the cabin and returned with a shot gun with which he announced his intention more." When asked what she had to say the lady with the battered countenance told of how Sweetman had never supported her during their two years residence in Dawson, and of how he had on returning from the creeks yesterday evening, insisted on her accompanying him to their cabin from the house of a lady with whom she had been staying, and on their reaching the cabin of how he had set upon and beat and bruised her. She closed by telling Sweetman she would never live with him again, and addressing the court said: "Major, he is not a fit man to be around a woman." The court gave him seven days in which to get out of the territory, adding, "If you are here at the end of that time you will go to the woodpile for six months." Mary asked for immunity from Walter's fists during January, from the following ladies and the seven days, but Walter promised to not "pester," her again. Thus was Considerable time was devoted to the be argued by the attorney in the case, McDougali for plaintiff, and Clark for defendants.

The case of the Crown vs. Stephenson, Williams prosecuting witness, was on when the noon hour arrived. This case is an aftermath of the closing of the Hoffman grill in which Stephenson and Williams were at one time partners, the disagreement being about the distribution of money collected after the business closed.

A warrant for Chas. Meadows, charged with running a music hall without license, was issued today, the officer being instructed have "Arizona" in court this afternoon.

Major Perry expressed himself as being very much retarded in the matter of making progress in his court by the fact that attorneys are very often, in fact almost invariably, late in their game between Edward H. Boyer and arrival and very frequently do not show Sam Pond, on one side, and Bert Ford up at all, thus necessitating continua-

That the demand for improved machinery is rapidly increasing is undenied by the fact that several orders for pumping plants of capacity sufficient to pump one and two sluiceheads upon hillside properties have already been secured by Mr. Charles E. Severance, general agent for Mitchefl, Lewis & Staver Co., and will be put in operation as soon as navigation opens. A representative will be despatched to the outside March 1st to accompany shipments and insure their prompt delivery. Mine owners requiring any machinery for early spring can secure standard machinery and be certain of prompt delivery by placing their orders with Mr. Severance, Room 15, A. C. building.
