If girls would study the following subjects thoroughly, we are of opinion that they will find them of the greatest advantage—Roastology, bakology, staeology, marketology, patchology, darnology and nreology.

At Ottawa, Mr. Haggart, for the Angler's Association of Perth, asks for an extension of the close season of pickerel, to cover the period from the 1st of April to the 15th of May, and also the close season for salmon in the waters of the Rideau to extend over whole of October.

The advent of the sugar-making season has disclosed the fact that many maple trees were seriously injured, for this season at least, by the heavy coating of ice that formed on them during February. Some large and many small twigs were broken by the weight of ice and through the wounds thus made the sap is now flowing freely.

Miss M. A. Foster has severed her connection with Harbor View Hotel, Charleston Lake, and is spending a few days with friends in Athens prior to leaving for the North West. Miss Foster has been for several years associated with her brother in the management of the Harbor View, and occasional visitors to the lake as well as the regular summer guests will regret her departure, as she was a most capable, courteous, and obliging hostess.

Some changes in the mail clerks of this region are announced. A Mr. Sarsfield has been appointed on the Brockville and Westport, and H. After an illness of over two years, James A. Olds a highly respected resident of Moristown, N. Y., well and favorably known by many in the Greenbush neighborhood, departed this life, aged 70 years. Deceased was born at Greenbush this county. When 18 years of age he removed to New York state where he has since resided.

The announcement of the death of Mrs. W. G. Kendrick (nee Mary Fowler) of Lynhurst caused sincere sorrow in Athens, where deceased was well known and very highly esteemed. After a brilliant course in the A. H. S., under adverse conditions, Miss Fowler graduated from that institution, received a course of training at the model school, and for the following three years taught at Charleston school. Then she removed to Lynhurst and her marriage followed. Consumption was the cause of her early demise.

The Globe in "sizing up" the newspaper men who are members of Provincial Legislature, thus refers to Mr. Graham who has rapidly and deservedly come to the front in Provincial politics:—"Geo. P. Graham is editor of that dean among the Ontario newspapers, the Brockville Recorder. The Parliamentary Guide credits Mr. Graham with being of Irish descent, which shows that he comes legitimately by the strong strain of humor in his makeup. A little of this saving salt of political life is always welcome and his fellow members are glad to hear and repeat his latest 'good thing.' It must not be supposed, however that he spends his life in jest. He is a good earnest debater, and one of the most considerable recent additions to the speaking talent of the house. His clean cut, pleasant face, with a premar silver in his hair, causes him to be quickly marked by strangers in the gallery."

A. H. S. ENTERTAINMENT.

On the evening of Friday last, an entertainment given under the auspices of the A. H. S. was highly enjoyed by a large number of citizens and students. Miss Cora Denaut of Delta contributed two vocal numbers which added to the esteem in which she has always been held by Athenian music-lovers. Miss Mabel Slack opened the programme with a well executed piano solo. The trio by Messrs. Wear, Rhodes, and Cobey, the trombone solo by Mr. S. Manhardt, the piccolo solo by Mr. Cobey and the chorus by the school were all good numbers and received well-merited applause. Mr. Wm. Johnston, M. A., LL. B., delivered an address on "Defects in Our Educational System." The subject is one with which the speaker is thoroughly well qualified to deal in a practical manner and he was heard with interest, pleasure and profit. Mr. A. W. Johnston, chairman of the A. H. S. board, presided in an efficient and pleasing manner.

The holding of these entertainments at popular prices affords our citizens an opportunity of an enjoyable evening and at the same time giving deserved recognition to the worthy object that the staff and students are endeavoring to benefit. The school has assumed the responsibility of paying for the printed examination papers used with beneficial results, and the funds derived from these entertainments are devoted to that purpose.

Mr. James Ross made a business trip to Smith's Falls last week.

Ed. J. Davis sold his fine black team to John Crawford, who removes to the state of Michigan on Thursday next.

They are fitting up their shop near the McNish agricultural works and will have the use of their machinery for some parts of their work. Mr. Pickrell has had considerable experience in the manufacture of these wheels in western Ontario, and, being a first class workman, will no doubt turn out a good article. They expect to open up the new shop in a couple of weeks.
