The Evaporated Apple Industry.

With the apple picking season close at hand and the large quantities of apples grown in Canada, a more timely Bulletin than one on the Evaporated Apple Industry, written by Mr. C. S. McGillivray, Chief Traveling Inspector of Fruit and Vegetable Canners, and issued by the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, could hardly be devised. It speaks of the old time methods when apples were cut into sections and hung up to dry, and then, with many illustrations and drawings, describes in full the process of wholesome and nutritive value of the evaporated apple, the ingredients that can be used, and the structures that are advisable for manufacturing on a scale of different dimensions. The bulletin remarks that the industry is only in its infancy in Canada, but is of great value and importance and open to extensive development. It gives the results of many experiments and, in short, in plain and explicit language, explains very fully the operations that are necessary to bring the evaporated apple up to the highest standard of commercial excellence and nutritive value. The bulletin can be had free by addressing the Publications Branch, department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

The Tattler.

It is hard to conceive of a holy tattler. One who delights to pry into other people's affairs, to hear and to repeat scandal, gives strong evidence of carnal-mindedness. With what eagerness the tattler seeks to find out about some unfortunate affair that should be hushed up, and with what carnal delight he or she passes it on, enlarging it a bit as it goes and grows.

When the carnal nature is cleansed away, and the Holy Spirit comes in to dwell and keep the heart in peace, all interests in silly and hurtful gossip go gone. Such an one neither likes to hear nor tell the floating gossip and scandals of the day. To whisper about the mistakes, blunders and sins of an unfortunate and repentant heart bowed and broken will most likely come home to the tattler some day.

Nerves are Exhausted.

When you have frequent headaches, find yourself easily irritated and annoyed, feel discouraged and down-hearted, cannot rest and sleep well, and find appetite fickle and digestion bad, you may know that the nerves are in bad condition. Don't wait for these symptoms to become chronic, but start in early with the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and head off disaster.

Patience.

Be patient, though the load you carry grows heavier with every year; it does no good to raise Old Harry, even when our woes are at their worst. Once I was prone to cuss and clamor at every hitch in my affairs; anon I'd take the ax or hammer, and run amuck, and break the chairs. Wherever Fortune acted dilly, I walked the floor and raised a row; and so when I was only thirty, I felt like one who's reached three score. But Wisdom comes as age advances, and I have found that patience pays; and no unpleasant circumstances can roll the current of my days. When three-score suns come for a visit, or I have boils or corns or gout, I say "Misfortune's with me, is it? Well, it can't jar a cheerful scout." One face trouble like a rabbit, one with a courage high and great; and grit like this is just a habit that any man can cultivate. One does his duty best so meanly, he leaves behind a punk renower; one chortles till he lays it down. No tribulation is so weighty that it can put me in a fix; and now that I am nearing eighty, I feel like one of twenty-six.

The Meanest Slacker.

The meanest of all slackers is not the man who dodges the firing line. Some excuse exists for his cowardice. There is really something to fear, something to shrink from. No; the meanest slacker is the man who is exempt from military service and who considers his exemption releases him from obligation to toil and sacrifice for his country's cause. Exemption means an added obligation. You are permitted by fortune or authority to escape the perils of the front. For the immensity thus granted you, and that is being paid for by the lives of others, you must make returns by every means in your power. Let your suit is a badge of honor to the man who has given the price of a new one for the greater comfort or safety of the boys out yonder, and as utter weariness from doing an extra bit to serve them should be a sweet reward.—Chicago Evening Post.

Age of Weak Nerves.

Do not heart for anything! is the cry of thousands of men and women who should be made well by the new, red blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make. Every day and night is the lot of men and women who are to be the victims of weak nerves, pale, drawn faces and dejected spirits tell a sad tale, for nervous weakness means being tortured by ungodly thoughts and unaccountable moods and depression. These sufferers are usually sensitive and easily agitated. A single chance remark, a slight change of temperature, a sudden draught, or a sudden shock, will bring down the curtain of sleep, and the sufferer will be left to the mercy of a restless, wakeful brain. The nervous system is the seat of the mind, and its health is the key to the health of the body. The nervous system is the seat of the mind, and its health is the key to the health of the body. The nervous system is the seat of the mind, and its health is the key to the health of the body.

Quaint Marriage Superstitions.

PAST BECOMING A THING OF THE PAST. There is no period in a woman's life that so completely changes her whole existence as marriage; and for that very reason she is apt to be more superstitious and fanciful at that time than at any other, and white superstitions are fast becoming a thing of the past there are few women who will not hesitate before making Friday their wedding day. June and October have always been held as the most propitious months for marriage, and it is not to be wondered at that the ceremony is timed so as to take place at the full moon, or when the sun and moon are in conjunction. In Scotland the last day of the year is thought to be lucky, and if the moon should happen to be full at any time when a wedding takes place the bride's cup of happiness is expected to be always full. The good people of Perthshire have had their banns published at the end of one and are married at the beginning of another quarter of a year can expect nothing but good things. The day of the week is also of great importance, Sunday being a great favourite in some parts of England and Scotland. And although an English lass would not marry on Friday, the French girls think the first Friday in the month particularly fortunate. In Yorkshire, when the bride is on the point of crossing her father's threshold, after returning from church, a plate containing a few small pieces of cake is thrown from an upper window by a male relative. If the plate is broken she will be happy; if not she will not expect to escape misery. Conservation of Ewe Lambs How to increase the numbers of sheep in Nova Scotia is a matter always of great interest, but of all most paramount interest now. It can only be done by conserving the ewe lambs for breeding purposes instead of allowing them to go to the butcher's hands. This has been done to a great extent in the past, but the extended if the province is to reap the full benefit from the present high prices for sheep and lamb products it is with a view to bringing about this condition that the Department of Agriculture has arranged with its Country Representative, Dr. Hugh McPherson, of Antigonish, to take measures to secure select ewe sheep which would otherwise go to the butchers and have them shipped to parties who will send in their orders, either directly to him or to the Secretary of Agriculture, M. Cumming, at Truro. Provided orders are received, Dr. McPherson directs to purchase select ewe lambs direct from the farmers. He expects that he will have to pay for them about 10 per cent more than for commercial lambs, equal to about $1.00 per head. Those interested in securing breeding ewe lambs in this year should send their orders during September or early October. Just what the lambs will cost cannot be definitely stated at the present time, but it will not be much less than $10.00 per head delivered. This may seem a large price in comparison with half that figure at which lambs could be bought before the war, but it must be remembered that butchers' lambs have nearly doubled and wool has trebled in value. It is to be hoped that many interested in sheep breeding will take advantage of this opportunity to get ewe lambs, which should be conserved in the interests of increased wool and mutton production in the years to come. Hants County, Ninety-Year Old Seaman. Deputy Shipping Master B. S. Purdy at the Customs House, Monday, got the surprise of his life when James Moore, ordinary seaman on the schooner Adella, asked to be paid off and stated that he was ninety-eight years of age. Mr. Moore is a native of Mattland, N. S., and has followed the sea since he was a young man. A former captain of his own vessel, he has been at home for nine years, but recently decided to take another voyage and signed on the Adella. He looked not more than 75, and when Mr. Purdy suggested that he meant 78 instead of 98, the old man indignantly asked, "Do you think I would lie about such a small thing as my age?"—Hants Journal. I sentence you to three days' imprisonment," said the judge. "By the way, your face seems familiar. Haven't I seen you before?" "Yes, your honor," replied the prisoner. "I'm the man who did the interior decorating in your house." "Ah, yes, now I remember. Did I say three days? Well, just make that sentence three years instead."

Wartime Economy.

Buy as far ahead as possible, learn what can be done without or substituted, remember that many times left-overs can be used to better advantage if a variety is kept on hand. Learn to have baking done at home. Bread and cookies home made are much more substantial and economical. Learn to buy meat correctly. Remember that meat from which steaks and soups can be made of the left-overs will furnish two meals to one of steak and chops. Save every particle of grease in two dishes, using the first grade for cookies or pie crust, in fact anything requiring shortening is as delicious as with clean meat fryings as with lard or butter. Use the oil and grease for soap. As fats and oils are of the greatest importance in war times, this suggestion should be very carefully considered. Save fuel by doing extra cooking at meal time and save ice and provisions by never leaving the ice chamber get empty, or by frequent opening of the ice chamber door; wrap vegetables in wet cloth or paper before putting in ice box; wrap bread or cake in dry cloth or paper and put in ice box and it will keep splendidly for a week, so not having to bake so often in warm weather. Save all left-over milk and learn to use baking soda. A cup of sour milk and a small spoon of baking soda will make a good cake, biscuit or pan-ties. Special attention should be given to buying good quality of everything. A pair of shoes for instance bought at a dollar or two less, is a poor bargain, when the paper soles are discovered; just so with everything a few cents cheaper for an inferior quality is usually the most expensive later. SOME DON'T'S. Do not talk too much about economy at meal time. It is not a good appetizer. Do not try to save every penny possible on the lighting bill. Good light makes people cheerful. Do not wear a habitual discouraged expression. It does not cost any more to smile. Do not feel that you are a martyr because you do not have potatoes as often as usual. It was only a habit anyway, as the food value is small. Do not be ashamed to let people know that you are economizing. You have a good reason, and so ought they. Do not hesitate to help the other fellow save. Perhaps his family is larger and his salary smaller than yours. Don't forget that after all we are one family working for a common cause. It pays to buy at home.

'The Canadians In France'—A Great War Map.

Canadian homes will no longer have difficulty in following the Canadian troops in France. There has just been issued a map of the European war area that clearly shows every point of interest that has been mentioned in despatches since the Canadian forces first landed in France. It has been made specially for the great Canadian Weekly, The Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, and is a credit indeed to Canadian enterprise. It is a marvel of detail and yet not crowded. It is in four colors and about 2 1/2 x 3 1/2 feet and folded into a very neat cover, about 5 x 10 inches. The map is surrounded by a border of the regimental badges and coat of arms of nearly every battalion that left Canada, from Halifax to Vancouver. Every important point can be recognized at once. That portion of the map covering France is in a soft color with names of towns and battle scenes in black, easily recognizable. The map is endorsed by returned military experts as most complete and accurate in detail. The Map can be purchased in quantities of 50 copies for $2.00, or less than two dollars a copy, yet it can be had absolutely free with The Family Herald.

Girl Could Not Work

How She Was Relieved from Pain by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Taunton, Mass.—"I had pains in both sides and when my periods came I had to stay at home from work and suffer a long time. One day a woman came to our house and asked my mother why I was suffering. Mother told her that I suffered every month and she said, 'Why don't you buy a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' My mother bought it and the next month I was so well that I worked all the month without staying at home a day. I am in good health now and have told lots of girls about it."—Miss CLARENCE MONT, 25 Russell Street, Taunton, Mass. Thousands of girls suffer in silence every month rather than consult a physician. If girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a safe and pure remedy made from roots and herbs, much suffering might be avoided. Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. (confidential) for free sample which will prove helpful. Minard's Liniment for sale everywhere.

Girl's Statement Will Help Wollville.

Here is the girl's own story: "For years I had dyspepsia, sour stomach and constipation. I drank hot water and olive oil by the gallon. Nothing helped me until I tried Buckhorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler's-ka. ONE SPOONFUL helped me INSTANTLY. Because Adler's-ka flushes the ENTIRE alimentary tract it relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has QUICK-EST action of anything we ever sold."—A. V. RABOLD. It's hard to be grateful to those who fight your battles for you and get licked.

Piles Cured By Dr. Chase's Ointment

It is a surprise to many to learn that there is any cure for piles short of a surgical operation. The doctors have encouraged this idea until the sufferer from this annoying ailment lives in constant dread of the surgeon's knife. This letter from Mr. Campbell carries a message of good cheer to all sufferers from piles, because it tells how relief and cure can be obtained in the quiet of your own home by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Mr. Donald M. Campbell, Campbell's Mountain, N.S., writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Ointment with great success for hemorrhoids, or piles, of fifteen years standing. After trying all kinds of so-called pile cures, three boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment gave me a complete cure. I have also used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and there are no others so good. You may use this letter, if you wish, for the benefit of others who may suffer as I did." (From before me, Murdoch Gordon Campbell, J.P., in the County, and for Inverness County.) You are not experimenting when you use Dr. Chase's Ointment for it has an unparalleled record of cures to back it up. Beware of imitations and treatments said to be "just as good." They only disappoint. Get a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.
