After Mr. Buckley's address the conference president, Hedley Colpitts of Woodstock, took charge of the closing session of the conference. Minutes of earljer sessions were read by the sec retary, Drummond McCunn of Woodstock, and favorably confirmed. A resolution was passed expressing heartiest appreciation of Rev. L. A. Buckley's visit, which he was only able to carry out by a special effort. Also one of thanks to the Hartland people for their delightfully hospitality, and also to those who took an active part in making the confer- 2.50 Presidents Address.

The "solid front" which its frequent feature of C.S.E.T. conferences, was then presented by representatives of the various churches, the Y.M.C.A. and the Sunday School Association : Rev. church, E. C. Morgan for the Baptist Rev. G.S. Helps; for the Methodist Clyde, Ridsout for S, S. Association and Rev. L. A. Butieley for the T. M.C.A. Bach representative gave a speech of a septence or two. Then came reports of the various delegations, followed by statements by several of the boys of their object in coming to the conference. Especial interest attached to the remarks of Merritt Stokes, who walked eleven miles from Ploenceville late Saturday evening to attend the Sunday sessions.

For the closing sexergises, the a square into the aisles and on the platform, joining hands. The hymn "Blest be the tie that binds" was sung with intervals for silent prayer after each verse-after the first verse, each boy prayed silently for his right his left hand neighbor, after the third for the boys at the front, and after the fourth for their parents and homes. Before the singing of the last verse, hands were unloosed, signifying that each member must now go out from the conference to strive alone to carry out the resolutions made during the sessions.

The national anthem was then sung, and the benediction pronounced by Rev. G. S. Helps, and Hedley Colpitts, the president. declared the conference closed.

On Saturday evening the boys were most pleasantly entertained in the vestry of the Baptist church by the young lady members of the co-operating churches. A splendid repast , as served and there was an appropriate program of music.

Prayer meeting was held at the home of Ellwood Foster on Wednesday last.
