REV. HIRAM RAYMOND DEAD

One of the Best Known Men of the County—Lived to See His 92nd Birthday

There died at Woodstock on Sept. 5, Rev. Hiram Raymond, a minister of the Methodist church, at the ripe age of 92 years, six months. Mr. Raymond was born and lived the whole of his long life at Middle Simonds, but during his last illness he lived with his daughter, Mrs. Albert Brown of Woodstock, at whose home he was tenderly cared for by his daughter, Miss Maud Raymond, a trained nurse. Other daughters are Mrs. Fred Everett of Jacksonville and Mrs. John Parley of California. Two daughters are dead. The sons are George Raymond, on the old homestead at Middle Simonds, and David W. in Montreal. His wife, who was Charlotte, daughter of the late Eliza Shaw of Simonds. The son of the late William Raymond, he was one of six brothers, the others being David, Albert, Daniel, Samuel and John—all of whom are dead. Sisters were Mrs. Elizabeth Raymond Wheeler of Riverside, Ill. and Harriet, who was the wife of the late Daniel Shaw of Simonds.

Mr. Raymond was a godly man and bore the respect of and was honored by a large circle of friends. In the days of his active Christian ministry he preached the Word acceptably and to the comfort of the souls of many people.

The funeral service, on Saturday, was conducted by Rev. Milton G. Burns of Woodstock. Hymns, G. A. G. hymns, J. M. Malloy, H. V. Bragdon, and his pastor, Rev. Harry True, assisted in the services.

Bright Paper With Item of Local Interest

The Arlington Advocate is a bright weekly just received at The Observer office. The Advocate is published at Arlington, Mass., and like most of the American weeklies is $2.50 a year. The issue contains the following item of interest to Observer readers:

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Currie returned Tuesday afternoon from an auto trip to Hartland, N. B., where their son Douglas had been spending his vacation with his grandmother Carrie and other relatives. Mrs. Currie's mother, Mrs. W. L. Alterton accompanied them to N. B. and will remain there for a short visit at her old home. Besides bringing back Douglas, they brought Miss Jean Miller of Hartland, who will visit the Curries for a few weeks, at their home on Park Avenue.

HEAVY RAINS CAUSE MUCH DAMAGE

Already This Month the Rain Fall Exceeds the Average of Whole of September for Many Years

The rain falls during the past ten days have amounted to a whole lot more than there was need of for any purpose. The damage to crops may amount to millions of dollars. So far, grain has suffered most. That which was standing was beaten down and has been made almost impossible to cut, while the great amount that was in swath or stacked when the rain began, is fit only for hog feed. And the grain crop, too, was the greatest the country ever produced.

Inquiries made in different parts of Carleton and Victoria bring forth the cheering news that potatoes are not rotting so badly as the condition of the weather would lead one to believe. There is, however, not reported from some localities. Altogether the outlook for the farmers is not at all encouraging. Farmers on the flatlands along the Beagunimic have suffered heavily through having their grain swept bodily away in the great freshet. Large quantities of grain is today in Sayer's mill pond and strewn all along the stream.

Not alone are the farmers the sufferers. The N. B. Contracting and Building Company, engaged in rebuilding Hartland bridge, have suffered heavily. Their work has been set back several weeks by the flood and they were hard put to save their big and expensive plant from being swept away. To prevent this calamity the men had to go to work early on Sunday morning, and continue work all day.

KEYNON EVANGELISTIC PARTY

Attracts Big Audiences and Big Program for Sunday

The Kyrnon Evangelistic Party, conducting a campaign in the United Baptist church is attracting a large audience. Mr. Kyrnon is a speaker whose message wins the people. Prof. Joseph Fletcher, a blind musician, brings forth from the piano and from the clarinet strains that stir the emotions as only the music produced by these under great tribulation can affect the hearer. Miss Porter is a sweet singer, and the combination is one to attract and impress. The services have been held each evening and several afternoons this week and will continue for some time.

Services for the general public will be held at 10:30 and 7:30 on Sunday, while at 3 p.m. there will be a meeting for men. Subject: "Facts for Men." Miss Porter will sing "The Old Homestead Song" and Prof. Fletcher will play a clarinet solo.

PRODUCE PRICES

Very few potatoes are coming in these days and the dealers are paying but $2.25; the market will be very unsettled until the full extent of damage of the rain is known. New oats are bringing 50 cents, butter 55 cents and eggs 60 cents.

The season for big game opened yesterday. Now for the big moose stories.

WINDSOR MAN SHOT DEAD IN MONTANA

Tragic End of Frank H. Connolly Once Well Known Here

Frank H. Connolly formerly of Windsor, son of the late Benjamin T. and Angelina Connolly, was shot and killed by bandits in the City of Great Falls, Montana, on Monday, August 2. Mr. Connolly had been in the Great Falls police force for eleven years.

On Monday morning about 10 o'clock, Mr. Connolly noticed two men whom he thought were planning to rob the Arlington Hotel. He started across the street to where they were and when nearly up to them, both men without a word opened fire. Both shots hit their intended victim, who fell to the ground. Mr. Connolly, although severely wounded, drew his revolver, but before he could get it into action both men fired again and again six shots in all, the last four being fired into the officer, while he was lying on the ground. The bandits then ran and made good their escape.

The proprietor of the hotel heard the shots and came to the door on and Mr. Connolly attempting to crawl up the steps to give warning. Police headquarters were immediately notified and an ambulance rushed to the spot, which took Mr. Connolly to the hospital. It was at once apparent that nothing could be done to save his life owing to the severity of the wounds and death took place about three hours after the shooting.

Frank Connolly was born in Windsor, on Sept. 6, 1867. When about twenty-three years of age, he went to Jacksonville, from which place after a few years he removed to Great Falls, Montana. While in Great Falls, Mr. Connolly met and married Miss Edith Smith, of Fredericton. There are two children, Harold, aged fifteen, and Margaret, thirteen.

Mrs. Connolly was with her husband when he died. Mr. Connolly was one of the most honorable and highly respected men in Great Falls. News of his death will be a shock to his many friends in Carleton county, where he was so well and favorably known.
