Gossip and Comment

The Hudson River Baseball League, which was organized a few weeks ago by Fred Paige, who made Hamilton his benchmarters, one short year ago, and which went on the rocks on Sunday, was the tweffth league which Mr. Paige has promoted. It is said that the big baseball wigs intend to look into Mr. Paige's system of operation, as they think wild-catting is a bad thing for the national game. Mr. Pat Powers, President of the Eastern, has asked Mr. Sol Mintz, of this city, to write a report of the International League of 1908. In this task he will likely have the assistance of at least one sporting editor. east one sporting editor.

Eddié MeBride writes in the Buffalo Enquirer:

The ordinary individual after looking at a wrestling match a half hour without a fall has just about enough of that sport for at least one night, and the fellow who sticks it out for an hour surely has his fill of the mat game. But down in Cleveland Harry Edwards, sporting editor of the Plain Dealer, one of the best known sport writers in America, is evidently not of that brand. He wants wrestlers to live up to their articles of agreement, even if it takes a week for them to finish a match. Last week in that town a wrestler named Billteer and another named Suter were matched to go to a finish. Walter Kelly was referee.

After they wrestled about three and large and another named Suter were matched to go to a finish. Walter Kelly was referee.

After they wrestled about three and Kelly was referee.

After they, wrestled about three and a half hours, it was decided that if no fall was gained in the next half hour that the man who had the better of the other up to that time—should be given the decision. There was no fall, and kelly gave the bout to Suter on points. Now along comes Harry P, and insists that the two men had agreed to wrestle hat the two men had agreed to wrestie o a finish, and that they should have lived up to their contract.

A few yars ago in this city Charlie Conkle, of Hamilton, and Walter Willoughby, then of Buffalo, wrestled for three hours or so at the old O'ympic A. C. I was referee. The crowd were half asleep by I o'clock, and almost all of the rest a half hour later. I was taken sick and compelled to leave the ring, and Bill O'Connell iook my place. After several hours more of no work O'Connell also became sick and tired of the job and called if a draw Even. O'Connell also became sick and tired of the job and called it a draw. Even then some of those who had been asleep for an hour or so objected, probably sore because they had to leave the clubhouse and their naps.

The Toronto World, in advocating the of the 87 races at the O. J. C. meeting pari-mutuel system of betting, says:
Of the 87 races at the O. J. C. meeting just closed, exactly 40, or less than 40 per cent, went to favorites. Twenty-nife races were won by second and third choices, that were fairly well backed, and 18 to longshots and outsiders. It is to be presumed that the 47 beaten favorites Is to longshots and outsiders. It is to be presumed that the 47 beaten favorites were tolerably well supported by the public, and also the 150 second and third choices that failed to win. Therefore, it is to be presumed that the rank and file that support racing at Woodbine played a losing game, as they generally do. Still the poor bookmaker also lost his pile. We have his word for it, and the amount specified is $200,000.

This would hardly jibe, did not that racing specialty known as the talent figure in the game. He is altogether different from the public, except that he is wise and only backs the winners. He knows the owners, trainers, jockeys and Montreal, June 8.—The Blue Bonnets track is in the best of order just now, Secretary Fraser, of the O. J. C., is to be congratulated on his efforts to make this the most successful meeting in the history of the Woodbine track, and no one will gainsay but that this has been achieved. From the Toronto Telegram: Being branded by the Canadian Racing Association as an outlaw track does not me cessarily follow that all connected with Duffe. Park are fully qualified to be burned at the stake, because, if this meeting is as well run as those interested say it will be, it will compare favorably with any of the circuit tracks, Fort Eric, Windsor, et al. It has been said that had the O. J. C. meted out fair treatment to owners and officials this spring who raced at Dufferin Park last fall, there would now be no meeting at the went end track, and the promoters there would have been glad to hop on the band wagon and join the throng that is endeavoring to limit horse racing in Canada. This, however, may be taken with a pinch of salt.
