P. E. I. HOTELS.

A former P. E. Islander, who recently revisited the home of his birth, has written to one of the Island papers, knocking the different hotels. He seems to know a great deal about a great number of the hostesses of the Gem of the Gulf, and he reminds us of a concerted crank, who is in the habit of changing his hotel whenever he notices that the attendants are aware of the fact that he is not the only guest in the house. The Editor of the ADVOCATE, who is as well acquainted with the Island hotels and their customs as the writer referred to, was surprised at the uncalculated attack and has made many enquiries of the travelling public. The same answer comes from each one: "Could not wish for better." A recent visitor to P. E. I., Dr. W. A. Styles, was at the Miramichi Hotel last week, was asked about the conditions in P. E. I., hotels in which he had stopped. He said he was at the Victoria in Charlottetown and also at the Cliff Hotel, and that the board was of the best and as good as could be had in any of the large cities. This coming from a gentleman who has travelled so much, should be sufficient to show that the adverse critic of the Island hotels is either a crank or looking for cheap notoriety.

Who will make a move before the evenings get too cool?
