Sydney Mines, N.S., Jan. 25th. 1910.
"For many years, I suffered tortures from Indigestion and Dyspepsia. Two years ago, I was so bad that I yomited my food constantly. I also suffered with Constipation. I consulted physicians, as I was afraid the disease was cancer,
but medicine gave only temporary relief.

I read in the 'Maritime Baptist' about 'Fruit-a-tives' and the cures this medicine was making and I decided to try it. After taking three boxes, I found a great change for the better and now I can say 'Fruit-a-tives' has entirely cured me when every other treatment failed, and I reverently say "Thank God for 'Fruit-a-tives'."

Come Curious Grounds on Which Piverce is Granted in the Different Nations of the Civilized World.

Different Nations of the Civilized World.

In connection with the agitation-for the reform of English divorce laws, it is interesting to learn the grounds on which divorce is granted in the different countries. In the first place it will probably strike many people as exceedingly curious that, while Ireland has no divorce law — separation clone being allowed — in Scotland divorce is granted for misconduct of either the husband or wife, the sexes being regarded as on an equality in that respect, or for malicious desertion for four years. And while in Queensland, Western Australia and Tasmania the divorce law is almost identical with that in England, in New Zealand misconduct alone on the part of the husband, wilful desertion by the husband or wife for five years without just cause, habitual drunkenness of four years and upwards, imprisonment or penal servitude, for seven years or more, and confinement in a lunate asylum for ten years constitute grounds for divorce.

ten years constitute grounds for divorce.

In Canada the law is the same as in England, while in America each of the forty-six States makes and administers its own laws of divorce. That is why they vary so much. "In only one State, South Carolina," says the author of "Marriage Making and Breaking," "is there no divorce, and in only one State, New York, is misconduct made an indispensable condition to the grant of a decree. Desertion and cruelty are in varying degrees common grounds in all other States, in fitteen States desertion for only one year being needed. In thirty-five States habitual drunkenness is a ground, and in a majority conviction for felcay. Insanity is a ground in nine States, and needed to provide for the wife and children in nine-teen."

HON, HUGH J. MACDONALD Police Magistrate Winnipeg

Police Manistrate
Winnipeg
Mr. Hugh Macdonald who was lately appointed Police magistrate of the Gateway city was formerly premier of Manitoba. Prebably the importance of his magistracy lies principally in the fact that the man he acceeded was the famous late T. Mayne Daly, and though Mr. Macienald is not in his famous father's rank he is big hearted enough to make the atteupt to fill a big man's shoes. Nothing attempted, nothing lone is certainly not in his make up. Squire Macdonald is a son of the late John A. Macdonald, and might have been premier of Canada today, the had remained in Dominion politics, and followed closely in the feetsteps of his dad. But he chose the nearer bonors offered by a provincial premiership and got out of the running for the post of prime minister of Canada.

NELLIE L. MeCLUNG

Mrs. McClung has lived in Manitoba for the last thirty years, having come from Owen Sound with her parents in the very early days of this province. However, she is always very careful to explain that she was only a "mere child" at that time, and yet her stories of some of the happenings of the long journey by oxtrain from Winnipeg to the point on the Souris river where her parents located, are so vividly told that we are forced to believe that she must, have been a very bright child for her years. are forced to believe that she must, have been a very bright child for her years.

Mrs. McClung, who before her marriage was Nellie L. Mooney, received her education at a coutnry school and afterwards at the Central Collegiate in Winnipeg. She taught school for five years and then married Mr. R. W. McClung, who was engaged in the drug business in Manitoba, Man. They lived in Manitou until last summer, when they removed to Winnipeg, and have taken up their residence on Chestnut street. Mrs. McClung was elected president of the local branch of the Canadian Woman's Press club, for this year.

Mrs. McClung has written two books, "Sowing Seeds in Danny," and "The Second Chance;" also many short extories. Last year she gave a series of recitais, from her own books, in Manitoba, and also in Ontario.

At the present time she is engaged in writing another book.

Mrs. McClung chooses for her characters the plain people of every day life, when we all know. The keen fidelity of her writing makes a streng appeal to the discriminating reader.
