MT. SALEM

The old-fashioned tea meeting which was held on the evening of Feb. 24, was a decided success. The program was excellent and seemed to please the people very much as they were encored again and again. The ladies provided an abundance of food; so much was left that next day they gave a ten cent dinner which was well patronized. The proceeds amounted to $40.

Omar Learn, of Bayham, is down with the small pox, and they are quarantined, as are Robert Fugard's as well.
